Al Brightman Quits Seattle Post

SEATTLE (AP) — Al Brightman was looking for a new job Wednesday and Seattle University was looking for a successor to the basketball coach who left hastily and without public explanation after eight glory-speckled years.

The rumors were plentiful why Brightman's resignation was accepted Tuesday but the growing Catholic school expressed no regret at his leaving and Brightman said he was departing "without any regrets."

And along with the rumors "why" came those about "who" will succeed the 32-year-old mentor who coached the famous O'Briens—Johnnie and Eddie—and had a 100 win, 68 losses record.

Quickly named as likely successors were the O'Briens but they appeared to be eliminated because Father Robert Rebhahn, S.J., director of athletics at SU who announced Brightman would be leaving April 1, said his suc-

Calif. Boxing Probe Hears 'Dive' Charges

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Governor's Special Committee Investigating California Boxing Tuesday heard testimony from boxer Tommy Campbell that he was instructed to throw three fights.

Aragon, in training at a ranch near here, said it was hard for him to believe the fight was "fixed." He added: "I never hit anyone in my life as hard as I hit Campbell when I knocked him out. I could have taken a shower and come back before they revived him. I'd have quit boxing a long time ago if I had suspected any of my fights were not on the level."

Campbell also told the committee that McCoy instructed him to lose to Del Flanagan in Minneapolis and that he was to get $300 extra for losing. Campbell said that before the bout, however, a boxing commissioner came into his dressing room, said he had heard rumors about a fix, and warned him he had better give his best.

FLOCK OF FOULS

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — Bob Petterson, a Louisa high school basketball player, figures he owns some kind of record for personal fouls. He committed 12 in one night. Petterson made five fouls in a junior varsity game. Because the Louisa team had only five players, the opposing coach allowed Petterson to remain in the game. Petterson made five more fouls. Then he played briefly in the varsity contest and committed two more fouls.
