Dulles Returns To U.S. Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles returns today from a three-week swing through Asia to take charge of U. S. efforts to prevent an outbreak of war in the Middle East.

Time appears short. Israel has work by mid-April on a Jordan River development project if the Arab states have not taken steps by then toward joining in an international plan for the river.

Syria has talked of military action if Israel units move into the area. Egypt and Saudi Arabia are backing Syria.

Dulles is returning after visits to 10 countries in South Asia and the Far East. He will report to President Eisenhower and on Friday night to the nation by radio and television.

CONFERENCE UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—An 84-nation atoms-for-peace conference will be held at the U.N. next September with President Eisenhower opening the session, diplomats report.

American Facial Changes Noted

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Is the American race undergoing a genetic change in its facial characteristics and inclining toward the receding chin type?

Dr. Alton Moore, assistant dean of the University of Washington School of Dentistry, says there is a chance in taking place.

The face of Mr. America of 2056 may look very much like Caspar Milquetoast of 1936. School surveys of children in Seattle and other cities in the nation showed that 71 per cent of high school students had badly aligned teeth. In more than half these cases, this defect causes disfigurement—usually a receding chin, he said.

This, he told the Los Angeles Dental Society, may mean that we are drifting away from the straight Roman profile as the common standard of facial beauty.

Bennett Loses Top TV Money

NEW YORK (AP)—Robert Edward Bennett, 43-year-old store clerk of Kingsland, Ga., has failed in a bid for the grand prize on The $64,000 Question.

He thereby loses his winnings of $32,000 piled up over the weeks by answering questions about Abraham Lincoln on the CBS television show. He'll receive a Cadillac as a consolation prize.

Bennett lost out on the program last night by not knowing how much Lincoln offered to compensate the states per slave for voluntary emancipation.

He guessed $2,000. Ralph Newman, proprietor of the Abraham Lincoln Bookshop in Chicago, who was serving as Bennett's expert adviser, said he thought the offer was closer to $1,600.

Master of ceremonies Hal March said $400 was the figure.

Bus Boycott Prosecution Expected to Rest Case Today

MONTEGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—The prosecution expected to rest its case today and make ready to meet defense arguments in the bus boycott trial of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.

Baptists Plan Bible Conference

Dr. Verma C. Grounds, president of the Conservative Baptist Theological Seminary, will conduct a Bible Conference at the Bible Baptist Church March 22-25. There will be three evening meetings at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The closing service will be Sunday morning at the regular church hours.

To accommodate the growing attendance, the Bible Baptist now has two morning church services at 8:30, the second at 11, with the Sunday School in between the two services at 9:45.

show that Negroes have been threatened and intimidated to keep them riding buses during the 16-week-old mass protest against segregation.

Carter permitted two Negroes to testify about threats they said they had received, but ruled out the testimony of another Negro.

Another prosecution witness, City Editor Joe Azbell of the Montgomery Advertiser, said under questioning from defense attorneys that Negro ministers he heard speak at mass meetings since the boycott had made a point of urging their followers to shun violence.

Ernest Smith, Negro courthouse janitor, testified an unidentified Negro had tried to pull him off a bus.
