

THE "FLYING SQUADRON," left to right, Ivan Kenagy, Albany, Oregon; Clarence Brennenman of Eugene; Dr. Boyd Sprague, Portland, former resident of Klamath Falls and Dr. Kenneth Tobias, Salem, were recent visitors in Klamath Falls. They represented the state-wide men's fellowship of the Conservative Baptist Churches of Oregon. The "squadron" met at the Bible Baptist Church with men's groups from Immanuel Baptist of Klamath Falls and the Newell Baptist of Newell, California. Purpose of the conference was to enlarge the scope of men's work in CBA churches.

Lesser Grain Borer Reported

SALEM (AP) — The lesser grain borer, which has caused heavy damage to stored grain in Southern states, has been found in Oregon, the State Agriculture Department said Tuesday.
Heavy live infestations were found in barley bins in Linn and Yamhill counties.
F. B. Larson, in charge of survey entomologists for the department, said the borer is not hard to control.
