STOCKS WALL STREET NEW YORK (U—Oils were unusually strong Friday in a generally higher stock market. Oils actually provided the main prop for the market in the afternoon as the previously favored railroads faded from buying popularity. Trading was fast and came to an estimated 1,100,000 shares as compared with 2,660,000 shares Thursday.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK CHICAGO (U)—Hogs continued their advance in the livestock market Friday. Butcher hogs sold unevenly steady to 25 cents higher. Most top prices went to $14.75, up 10 cents and another new high $14.90, Feb. 2. This represents a gain of $1.50 for the week. Butchers scaling 190 to 270 pound mainly sold at $14.00 to $14.60 with several loads and lots at $14.60 to $14.75. Butchers scaling 290 to 330 pounds brought $13.25 to $14.00 and 340 to 375 pounds $12.75 to $13.25. Choice steers topped at $19.00. A few utility and commercial steers brought $13.00 to $13.00. Buyers paid $13.00 to $13.00 for a few commercial to low choice heifers. Lambs were about steady at $19.00 to $20.75 for good to prime wooled types. Salable receipts were 7,500 hogs, 600 cattle, 100 calves and 500 sheep.

GRAINS CHICAGO GRAIN CHICAGO (U)—Wheat faced into new high ground under a broad, aggressive buying movement on the Board of Trade Friday. New crop futures jumped more than 5 cents at times. May wheat, an old crop month, scored a substantial gain early and then fell back on reports producers were redeeming wheat from the government loan and offering it on the free market. Other grains also advanced but did not match the gains in new crop wheat. Behind the active buying in wheat were such factors as a forecast for continued dry weather in the Southeast, an Agriculture Department confirmation of severe wheat losses in Europe and rumors the administration would be willing to see wheat price supports boosted. Wheat closed 1 to 5 1/2 higher. March 2.27-27 1/2; corn 3 1/2-13 1/2 higher, May 1.40-1 1/2; oats 1 1/2-1 1/2 higher, May 1.00-1 1/2; soybeans 1 to 3 1/2 higher, May 2.65-2 1/2; and lard 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, May 12.45.

Vandals Strike Parked Autos

Three autos parked in the 1400 block N. Ninth Avenue in the housing project were hit by vandals Thursday night, police reported today. The owner of one of the cars, Robert Caldwell, 1419 Ninth, told police that at about 1:45 a.m., he drove home and found the auto he believed the vandals were using for their escape. The other damaged autos belonged to Jake Gendick, 1411 Ninth, and A. V. Mongil, 1409 Ninth. Spoils, outside mirrors and other exterior accessories were either damaged or stolen, police said.

Tulelake Man Shot In Foot A Tulelake man is hospitalized at Klamath Valley Hospital today from injuries suffered when he was accidentally shot in the foot Thursday morning. Hospital attendants said he was recovering well, but the auto he was carrying a 22 caliber rifle in the car, and that his 5-year-old son, Randall, who was sitting in the back seat, might have accidentally touched it off.

Injury Interrupts Mexico Vacation A serious injury March 14 upset the vacation plans of the V. J. Josephson on his trip to Mexico. A few hours before arriving at Guadalajara, Mrs. Josephson fell in the car of the train and fractured her hip. She was taken to a hospital at Guadalajara and will have to remain there in traction for six to eight weeks. Mrs. Josephson, 5070 Delaware Avenue, has been visiting in San Diego since early in January. They planned to stop at Guadalajara and then go to Mexico City. Josephson is a retired Great Northern Railway Company employee. Mrs. Josephson is receiving medical care at the Sanatoria Str. Margarita, 880 Garibaldi, Guadalajara, Jalisco, and her husband is staying at the Hotel del Parque, Avenida Juarez 845, during her hospitalization.

Firemen Hear Guest Speaker MALIN—The March meeting of the Malin firemen was held Monday evening in the fire hall with Hank O'Keefe as acting president in the absence of Orville Kirkpatrick. Fire Chief John Hershelf introduced the speaker for the program, Doug Roney of Roney's Inc., Portland. Roney talked to the group about various types of fire fighting equipment. It was decided to order four water-proof firemen's coats for rural Malin and four for the city of Malin. These coats will be kept on the trucks. Refreshments were served by Wayne Fisk and Hubert Morelock.

Williams Gets 10-Year Term

Robert Lee Williams, 21-year-old truck driver, who was wounded in an attempted service station hold-up here, was sentenced to 10 years in Oregon State Prison Friday by Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg. Williams had pleaded guilty to a holdup at Idellia's grocery store before he was wounded by Lawrence H. Gaylord, attendant at Yaden's Service Station. The young robber was arrested when he applied for treatment at Klamath Valley Hospital an hour after he was wounded. Before passing sentence, Judge Vandenberg heard a plea for leniency by Defense Attorney Edwin E. Driscoll. The lawyer told the court he believed Williams was mentally ill. District Attorney Richard Bentley also recommended leniency. The maximum penalty for armed robbery is life imprisonment.

County GOP To Hear Ike A workshop for GOP campaign workers will be held under auspices of the Klamath County Republican Central Committee Monday at 7 p.m. in Balseger Motor Company building. George Proctor, committee chairman, announced that at that time the party workers will hear a special message from President Eisenhower over a telephone hookup with 33 other Republican committees in various sections of the state. Governor Elmo Smith also will take part in the telephone conference. President Eisenhower's message is expected to deal with the importance of conducting a house-to-house canvass to encourage Republicans to register and vote. The governor will spearhead a drive to add 55,000 Republicans to the list of eligible voters before the registration books close in Oregon on April 17. Proctor said all Republicans are urged to attend the conference.
