

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM FOLTZ were pictured at the altar of the First Church of the Nazarene, Klamath Falls, following the candlelight ceremony during which they exchanged their marriage vows on March 8. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barkoe of Klamath Falls is continuing her studies at Klamath Union High School from where she will graduate in June. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester O. Foltz, also of this city. (See story on inside page.) — Photo by Ferebee

FAMILY HEIRLOOMS were worn by Harriett Lester Barrett daughter of Army Colonel and Mrs. H. L. Barrett, Los Altos during the wedding ceremony that united the dark-haired bride and the son of a pioneer Klamath County family, J. Martin Brown, on February 4. Word of the formal wedding in St. Nicholas Church in Los Altos reached friends of the family here this week. The bridegroom is the son of Frank W. Brown and the late Mrs. Brown former residents of Klamath County. He is also the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ferguson of Terra Bella and Bakersfield, California who lived here for many years. — Photo by Edwards Studio

MRS. WILLIAM KARL FINK of Klamath Falls, who before her marriage in the First Methodist Church on March 9 was Clara Streeter Shapard, member of a prominent Shelbyville, Tennessee family. She is the daughter of Mrs. Eliza McDonald Shapard of the Southern city. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Fink of Oakland, California. The marriage vows were exchanged in a candlelight ceremony with the Reverend Dallas McNeill as the officiant. Mr. and Mrs. Fink are at home at 1504 Fulton Street, this city, following a wedding trip to points in the San Francisco Bay area. (See story on inside page.) — Photo by Guderian

SOCIETY

MRS. JOSEPH WEIR EMMERT who before her marriage on March 18 was Betty Jane Brandesky is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brandesky of Klamath Falls. The double-ring ceremony was read at 2 p.m. in the Mt. Laki Church by the Rev. William Ainley in the presence of 60 relatives and friends of the young couple. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mansfield, also of Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Emmert are at home at 5704 Avalon Street, this city. (story inside!) — Photo by Ferebee

SPRING'S PRETTIEST FASHIONS and smartest styles were eyed by some 225 guests at the Beta Sigma Phi sponsored luncheon and style show held on St. Patrick's Day at the Willard Hotel. Funds from this luncheon will be used to apply on a TV set for the Klamath Nursing Home on Summers Lane. Doris Christian was luncheon chairman. Miller's Department Store presented the ensembles. Here Mrs. Frank Bogatay trips before guests in a powder blue silk brocade two piece frock made on the new sheath line. Her hat is of shaded blue veiling, she wears pastel shoes and matching bag and carries a neutral toned fur piece. — Photo by Kettler

A POLISHED COTTON, one of this season's smartest and most flattering fabrics is worn by Hazel Schieferstein, left, for guests at the March 17 Beta Sigma Phi luncheon and style show at the Willard Hotel. The full skirted portrait print skirt is topped by a plain bodice with cowl neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The blue frock was accented with patent shoes and bag and off-the-face white hat. Right, is Marion Cronin (Marion of Miller's) in a stunning ensemble of pink, who narrated for the style show. Models included Hazel Schieferstein, Betty Phillips, Doris Christian, Barbara Bogatay, Betty Gettle, Barbara Howard, Nellie Nichol and Paul Cook. — Photo by Kettler