COMMUNITY DINNER HONORS CHILOQUIN ATHLETIC SQUADS

CHILOQUIN — An athletic banquet honoring boys on the 1955-1956 football and basketball teams of Chiloquin High School, the team managers and the yell leaders, was held at the Masonic hall Friday, March 9. The baked ham dinner followed by an evening of dancing, was sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Association, the Fire Belles, the Chiloquin Merchants and the Reservation Jaycees with Mrs. Floyd Ohles, PTA, and Mrs. Wayne Nicholas, Fire Belles, as co-chairmen.

Gary Heglund, senior member of both teams, was emcee. He introduced the speakers, Hiroto Zakoji and Allen Jeffries, of the Adult Indian Education office, John Mathis, high school principal, Gordon Kuist, coach, and Dick Siemens, student body president and senior member of both teams. Other special guests were PTA president Joseph Jackson and Mrs. Jackson, Jaycee president John Heilbroner and Mrs. Heilbroner, Mayor Earl Greear and Mrs. Greear and Mr. and Mrs. George Hobbs.

As the honored boys arrived with their dates they were presented with carnation boutonniere and shown to long tables decorated in the school colors of royal blue and white. Place cards were in the shape of either a football or basketball. Attractive programs were covered with a replica of the Chiloquin Panther.

Members of the Fire Belles served the meal with assistance from seventh and eighth grade girls.

Harriett Lester Barrett Weds J. Martin Brown In St. Nicholas Church

LANGELL VALLEY—A wedding of interest to Klamath County friends was the Barrett - Brown wedding February 4, at Los Altos, California. Father Stanley J. Reilly, pastor of St. Nicholas Church, officiated at the 11 a.m. nuptial mass.

The bride, Harriett Lester Barrett, wore an ivory satin gown with a full train. She was the third daughter to wear the bridal gown and the fifth generation to wear the Brussels lace veil and to carry the family's rosepoint handkerchief. She wore an heirloom rope of pearls and carried white lilies of the valley with white camellias on a white Prayer book.

She was escorted down the aisle by her father Colonel H. L. Barrett.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Earl E. DeMun, of Washington, D.C. She wore a lavender street length frock with matching accessories. Her arm bouquet was of yellow and amber carnations and stock.

GUILD PARTY

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Wes Dearborn and Mrs. Charles were hostesses for the monthly Guild card party, given at the St. Barnabas parish hall March 10. Nine tables were in play.

High prize for the evening went to Mrs. Owen Pepple for the ladies, Ishmael Dick for the men and Merrill Stewart won the traveling prize. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Cherryll Cohea, the bridegroom's 11-year-old niece from Bakersfield carried the two rings on an ivory satin pillow. Her dress was ice blue complemented by a rose-bud corsage.

The bride's mother, Mrs. H. L. Barrett, wore a hand-knit charcoal dress with black accessories and a pink camellia corsage. She was escorted down the aisle by her son-in-law, Colonel E. E. DeMun of Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, D.C.

The bridegroom, J. Martin Brown, is the son of Frank W. Brown and the late Christine Brown of Langell Valley and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ferguson of Terra Bella and Bakersfield, California.

Frank W. Brown served as his son's best man.

Ushers were Raymond Muller and James Muller, both of Terra Bella.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Los Altos immediately following the wedding. A buffet lunch was served. The new Mr. and Mrs. Brown cut the cake with Colonel Barrett's sabre as had Colonel and Mrs. Barrett's other two daughters. The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at Pismo Beach and are now at home at Terra Bella where the bridegroom is a rancher. The bride returned to her position at the Porterville State Hospital.

Martin with his parents and grandparents lived at Merrill, Bonanza and Langell Valley for many years before moving to California two years ago.

BIRTHDAY CONGRATULATIONS went on March 9 to Don Alt whose birthday came the next day to guests stayed on at the big party in his honor at the Yacht Club to say "Happy Birthday" on his natal day. Don, sophomore at Klamath Union High School was 17. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Alt of Midland Road invited 160 young friends to help him celebrate at the dancing party. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Alt were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Goddard and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Landrum. Spring colors, green and yellow, 10 angel food cakes and plenty of punch and "zippy" music added up to fun. Sampling punch are, left to right, Don, the host, Sharon Ruffen, Verland (Butch) Kimpton and Charlotte Brown.
