

Humor Show Presented At Girls' League Meeting

By MARY HORNE
BEGINNING JOURNALIST

Laughter made the walls of Pelican Court tremble in the humorous side of the annual Girls' League meeting before the Spring Formal, March 23, in Pelican Court.

It marked the first time in the history of the Girls' League that the boys were allowed to attend.

The program began with Girls' League President Beverly Overton introducing Nancy Clark, president of Dance-A-Lot, one of the five clubs of Girls' League, and the club sponsoring the dance.

The crowd roared with laughter when Judy Pieser, a typical high school girl, named Abigail, called Donn Taucher, alias "Archie," and asked him to be her escort to the formal.

Judy was preparing for the gala event. She applied her rouge, (all over her face) powder and lipstick. Donn came in his new suit, and presented Judy with a lone flower. And they departed arm-in-arm for the dance. Nancy Clark broke in here and stated that it was time for the style show. Every year a girl from each class models her formal to give the other girls some ideas. The flowers the girls wear are donated by a local flower shop.

The first model was senior Dorothy Geary and her escort Joe Meador. Dorothy was wearing a beige net formal with tiny rows of satin encircling the complete dress. Her flowers were yellow and orange carnations in a wrist-let. Joe Meador was wearing a boutonniere of small colored carnations. Joe was dressed in a white dinner jacket, and black pants.

Next in the formal review was Junior Mary Harlan and her escort, Senior Wally Wunder. Mary's dress was a bright yellow with row on row of yellow fluffy net. Mary was carrying a nosegay of violets and yellow flowers. Wally was wearing a white carnation with a violet center.

Following the juniors presentation was Freshman Marilyn Mettler. Marilyn was wearing a dazzling tulle pink formal. Her corsage of pink rose-buds was worn at the waist. Her escort was senior David Peppie, wearing a pink carnation.

Last, but not least, was the sophomore representative, JoAnn Bogatay. JoAnn had a powder blue organdy formal with violet trim and a cummerbund tied in a big bow in the back. Jo Ann's flowers were for the neck. They were red roses with a white velvet ribbon. Kenny Jensen, her escort, was wearing a white boutonniere with a red rose center.

The program concluded with the four couples dancing.

Again Archie and Abigail came on to the scene, and again they were a "hit."

Everyone agreed that the first-boys-girls League assembly was a huge success.

KLAMATH UNION HIGH SCHOOL will be missing an advertising manager for the Klamath Krater, when Bruce Kielsmeier graduates this June.

Spring vacation is over and the Klamath Union High School student body is back to the old grind again. You might notice, if you see some students, that they are much friendlier and lazier. Well, that is just the old symptom that spring is here. We hope!

Wrestling awards were presented recently to all wrestlers winning the required number of matches. This award assembly was held in Pelican Court, where all students were invited to attend.

Wrestlers receiving honors were: Larry Alexander, Jerry Alley, Bill Badorek, Larry Badorek, Pete Barnhusel, Larry Bender, Richard Berg, Steve Bleak, Larry Brisbon, Jim Brown, Pedro Colley, Gary Cramer, Harold Day, Jim Hankinson, Burnard Hardman, Bob Harshbarger, Dan Hitchcock, Raymond Johnson, Doug Zickpatrick, Gary Krauseburg, Ken Kuhlman, Bob Leeling, Dave Leeling, Russ Long, Lyle McFarland, Bill Montgomery, Victor Nork, Darryl Peterson, Ronnie Phair, Gary Price, Gary Roberts, Gilbert Roberts, Roy Ropp, Larry Schell, C. B. Simons, Bill Steiner, Dennis Tonelli, and the managers who are Tim Hayden, Danny Johnston, and Tom Milne.

Pelican Court was the scene of Klamath Union High School's second annual "Pops" concert given by the KUHS Concert Band, under the direction of Lamar K. Jensen.

The program consisted of concert and the more popular arrangements. The main feature was "Ted Vann," who has played with the high school band in Kelso, California, and Eddie McCracken, who spent four years at KU and played for the band.

Officers of the band are: Kent Cooper, president; Paul Munson, vice president; Sharon Dewing, secretary; and Robert Swansen and Jean Vicens, librarians.

According to Pat Carroll and Carla Tomlin, both tyro reporters, KUHS held its Independent College Visitation on March 9. This program was designed to provide the seniors with such information as enrollment, cost and choice of school of higher learning. In previous years private colleges represented were: Lewis and Clark, Willamette, Pacific University, Linfield, Whitman, Seattle University, and an unidentified nurses school. These and others sent representatives this year to discuss with the seniors the problems the latter might encounter upon entering college.

Club meetings during the week of March 5 - 9 were: Tri - Ettes, Tri-Hi-Y, Pelican Tri-Hi-Y, Mathematics Club, Re-In-Club, Delta Chi and Pep Peppers.

Over the holidays the Science Club made their annual trip to San Francisco. Officers of Science Club are: Donn Taucher, president; Dan Hitchcock, vice president; and Sharon Hahn, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Herron, KUHS science instructor, is the adviser. The trip was made by school bus.

In Memorium

The following poems are dedicated to Charles Bostwick, our beloved classmate, who was called from this life. The poems written by Raemarie Neal and Donna Pfefferle reflect our sadness and sympathy to those loved ones left behind. We will miss Charles' smile in KU's halls.

ON THE OTHER SIDE
By Raemarie Neal

Where sings the voice not heard by man,
Where all as children trust—
Where love is great, and all possess
A wealth that cannot rust:
He waits for us, our smiling friend,
He waits for us, our pal,
He waits and plans to greet us all
When we come—after while.
The earth no longer mars his joy,
Nor friends his side forsake,
With God, there is no burdened soul—
No pains, no heartache that ache.
So, not for Charles, who has no grief,
Who shares the Perfect Love,
But for those left who miss the lad—
We pray peace from above.

We loved him as a brother,
Playmate, neighbor, and a son—
And still his memory lingers,
We know he really won.

He loved the psalm-filled air
With melodies yet untold,
But as the sun sets in the west—
His soul's this orb of gold.

We loved and still will love
Each past childhood sunny year,
And even through the darkest night—
We'll know our loved one's near.

Dear Folks....

Last Sunday we continued our exploring of Oregon with a drive over the Green Springs to Medford. It was the first time I had been over the pass, but Lydia had driven over with Beverly a couple of months ago. And they had been in a 3-car accident. The trip last weekend was to get rid of the fear of the pass that she and Donnie have and to let me see the scenery.

All the way over and all the way back Lydia didn't have much to say. After we reached Keno coming home, she said she wasn't scared, but that she sure had "snots in her numiok." But it really is a beautiful drive and if anyone from Kansas ever comes out to visit us, we'll make sure that they take that drive.

As long as I'm on the subject of driving, I should get in a plug about how far your gas dollars go when you fill up with powerful Rocket Gasoline at JAWHAWK PETROLEUM PRODUCTS. And that's no kidding.

Rocket Gasoline is the freshest, cleanest gasoline your money can buy. Dean Miller hauls his Rocket Gasoline in his own giant tankers directly from the refinery! The gasoline that goes into your car is clean...handled only once...and the "middle-man" profits are passed on to you in Savings! Our little Chevy made the round trip to Medford on exactly a half tank of gas. A fellow just can't go wrong if he powers up with Rocket Gasoline at either JAY HAWK station, 2135 South 6th or in the Town and Country Shopping Center.

I'm really turning into a "John J. Greenthumb." The other night I went home full of fire and ambition and started raking. By the time I had a nice wind-row half way across the yard, Mike came over to tell about his stay in the hospital and another fellow stopped to try to sell me his mother's-in-law TV set. By then it was dark and supper time. And the wind-row was still half way across the yard. But Donnie helped me. The next morning he cleaned up all the rakings...and stacked them neatly on the front porch.

Exclusive, but not expensive...is a good way to describe the Men's Department at MILLER'S DEPARTMENT STORE. I was in there the other day looking over the stock. MILLER'S has all-wool sport jackets in mixed colors for only 24.95 and flannel, gabardine and sharkskin slacks for 16.95 and 18.95.

New arrivals include those popular faded denim slacks and jackets...fine for yard work or any leisure wear. Only 4.95 each in most all sizes. Of course if you want to be a little more dressy, you can slip into a Pendleton Topster for only 17.50. MILLER'S has a complete line of Pendleton shirts for 11.95, 12.95 and 13.95. And those fine Van Heusen "Como Chambray" shirts in the latest spring colors...either long sleeve dress shirts or short sleeve sport shirts are only 3.95.

This is the year of the big blow--election year. Republicans charge the Democrats are playing politics with the farm program. The Democrats charge the Republicans are playing politics with the farm program. For once, both parties are probably right!

With warm weather coming up, Lydia likes to stock up on supplies and equipment to make her cooking easy. And ROBERTS HARDWARE in the Town and Country shopping center has the utensils to make kitchenwork easy and fun. First of all comes the new tubular Square Angel Food Cake Pan by Wear-Ever. M-m-m-What delicious cakes these new pans turn out. And they look good, too. Mrs. Bliss, ROBERTS housewares expert, will whip up a display cake in one of these pans about Wednesday, but she says I can't have a piece until Saturday night. The price? Only $3.25. Remember this new Square Angel Food Cake Pan is by Wear-Ever--the name that's been famous in America's kitchens for over fifty years.

Another Wear-Ever item at ROBERTS that's tops in value is Hallite...the best looking, best cooking utensils on the market. Hallite is the name of those durable aluminum utensils with the distinctive copper-colored lids that never tarnish. The special aluminum alloy spreads heat quickly and evenly...across the bottom, up the sides and over the cover...so that the whole utensil cooks the food. All cooking can be done over low heat, which avoids scorching.

ROBERTS are starting a "Bride's Club" on Hallite. And as a special gift just for coming in and looking over the fine display, you will get a big package of gorgeous paper dolls...not for the bride, but for the bride's little sister, your daughter, or someone. That's at ROBERTS HARDWARE at Town and Country.

Bought a new pair of light tan loafers last Thursday...from ARBUCKLE'S MODEL SHOE STORE, 717 Main. And are they comfortable! Bossman Orville Rehling has just received his spring shipment of U.S. Keds...those popular rubber soled, canvas shoes that kids and grownups like so well. Kids' sizes start at 6¢ and sell for 2.25 to 5.95. And Orville says he can fit anyone in them...Mom, Dad or Grandma.

Of course the big job right now is getting folks decked out in the right shoes (and handbags for the ladies) to compliment Easter finery. And ARBUCKLE'S have the styles, colors and price ranges to suit you!

SPECIAL--SPECIAL--SPECIAL--To make it easy to dress up the kids come Easter morn, ARBUCKLE'S are slashing prices on Childrens dress shoes. Dozens of styles and colors will be sold Monday and Tuesday for only $2 a pair. These include values to $6.95. What a Savings! Remember...Monday and Tuesday only...Children's dress shoes...regular 6.95 for ONLY $2. Hurry! They won't last long.

Next weekend we're spending Easter at Lebanon with Bill, Dorothy and the new baby. So I'll cut this thing off right here and get my work done so there won't be anything to keep us from going!

Sincerely,
Jim
