

Communist Party Organ Lashes At Josef Stalin

MOSCOW (UP)—The Communist party organ Pravda today published a broad-scale denunciation of Stalin as a man whose drive for glory took monstrous forms and harmed the Communist cause.

OVER THE GARDEN GATE

GILCHRIST
By Hope N. Brader
The Gilchrist Community Garden Club met in the Methodist Church recreation room on the evening of March 21.

Mrs. Corwin Galbreath, president, presided over a short business session and turned the meeting over to the chairman, Dorothy Houston and Mrs. Vern Roehck took charge of the program for Anne Dolezal, program chairman. The study for the evening was on birds. A book report on the book entitled "Song Birds In Your Garden" by John K. Terras of the National Audubon Society was given by Mrs. Verne I. Brader.

Motion films were shown on "The Robin," "Ruby Throated Hummingbird," and "Water Birds." All film was from the Department of Visual Instruction, Oregon State System of Higher Education, Corvallis, Oregon.

Special prize was won by Mrs. Cap Jessup. Guest for the evening was Mrs. Myra Putnam of Chadron, Nebraska who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Vern Roehck.

The club entry for the State Bird Scrapbook contest was on display. It was made by Mrs. Vern Roehck and her class in the Gilchrist School. The book carries out the theme of the state birds and state flowers showing the outline of the state, its capital and mountains and rivers, and technical knowledge and habits of the birds or a poem.

Hostesses for the evenings were Mrs. Ray Darnell and Mrs. William Taylor of Chemult. Centerpiece was a lovely arrangement of flowering shrub in pink, with pussy willows in crystal, and tall tapers in pale pink on a lace cloth. Napkins carried out the spring theme in flowering pink dogwood.

PTA NEWS
By Mrs. Joe DeGrande
The regular meeting of the Keno PTA was held March 21 at the Keno School. The meeting was called to order by President Lee Shellhorn, minutes of the previous meeting read by Secretary Monette Zarosinski and the treasurer report was read by Mariam Crossline.

After the business of money raising was discussed, it was decided to have a cake walk at the April meeting. Betty Kness volunteered to watch small children during the April business meeting.

New officers for the coming year were elected, president, Margaret Zarosinski, vice president, Monette Zarosinski, secretary, Mariam Crossline, treasurer, Anastasia Morrison, and historian, Betty Kness.

"As time went on, this cult of the individual assumed even more monstrous forms and did serious harm to the cause."
The Pravda article appeared only the opening gun in a newspaper campaign against Stalin. It made no mention of the most sensational charges which reports reaching the West have said the new Soviet high command has leveled against their former chief—that he maintained a continuous reign of terror, murdered thousands of his party associates and the flower of the Red army officer corps and placed the nation in danger of Hitler conquest.

Pravda assured the Russian people that the Soviet Union now is on the right track.
PARTY'S ROLE
It said the Communist party is the leader and organizer of the Soviet people "and the collective leader of the party, guarding and interpreting its principles, is the Central Committee."

The campaign to destroy the Stalin myth was touched off by Communist Party boss Nikita Khrushchev last month in a secret address to the party's 20th Congress.

But Pravda's broadside was the first public expression at home of the campaign against Stalin personally. The newspaper had this to say of the Communist hierarchy's decision on the late dictator:
"Giving Stalin all the credit due him, soberly evaluating the big role he played in the revolution and the establishment of socialism in the Communist party at the same time decided to liquidate the cult of the individual so as to re-establish Lenin's principles and norms of life in government work and to establish the best conditions for the construction of communism."

Dick Haymes' Auto Attached

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Singer Dick Haymes' $5000 convertible sports car has been attached by a credit bureau on grounds that he owes a $516.94 market bill.

Papers of attachment were served on Haymes yesterday at his Malibu home. The Sales Market Inc. of Encino claimed he has owed $516.94 on a grocery bill since last August. It filed suit for the debt last Friday.
