Mystery Develops Over Body Discovery

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The mystery of a body found under a rock pile had police more baffled than ever today. A little girl five people identified as the victim of an apparent murder was found alive yesterday, and a murder charge against her father was dropped. That left the body unidentified. Three-year-old Shirley Dicus, the supposed murder victim, was located in Neosho, Mo., with her father Lloyd A. Dicus, a convicted bigamist. Living with them was a woman police said was his fifth wife.

Lobby Info Merits Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two senators have given the special Senate lobby investigating committee some information which Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) said today may "merit the committee's attention."

McClellan told newsmen "it is nothing outstanding," but he did not describe its nature nor identify the senators who had submitted it.

The senators responded to McClellan's request for any information that would help the committee in its search for any improper or illegal attempts to influence senators or other government officials through lobbying, campaign contributions or other activities.

McClellan announced late yesterday that the committee had unanimously approved the appointment of its chief counsel, George Morris Fay, a Pittston, Pa., Democrat and former U. S. attorney for the District of Columbia.

McClellan said he had "no idea" when the committee would be able to begin its public hearings.
