DMV Reminds Truck Owners

ALTURAS — The Department of Motor Vehicles reminded owners of commercial vehicles registered for 1956 on a quarterly basis, that renewals of their registrations are due on or before April 5 for the second quarter.

A. J. Veglia registrar of vehicles, said a new type of quarterly registration card has been issued this year to all owners who registered on this basis for the first quarter. He emphasized that it is necessary to present the card issued for the first quarter in renewing for the second quarter.

Quarterly renewal may be applied for at 18 department offices where the second quarter tab and card can be delivered over the counter. The most conveniently located for Modoc County applicants is at 1737 Placer Street, Redding.

PATROLMAN DIES

ALTURAS — Sgt. Lou Wright of the California Highway Patrol in Alturas died Tuesday morning. He had suffered a stroke several weeks ago and was apparently on his way to recovery when he suffered a relapse and was taken to the Modoc Medical Center early Tuesday. Surviving are the widow, June Wright, and a son, Butch, both of Alturas, and his father who lives in the Bay Area.

RECEIVING 1956 CAMPING directory is Naomi French, center, local Camp Fire Girls executive director who with Jim Harpole, left, executive director Modoc Area Council Boy Scouts, attended a Southern Oregon camping meeting in Medford last week. Handing out directories is the president of the Oregon Section American Camping Association, Frank "Scotty" Washburn, boys' work secretary of the Salem YMCA. Mrs. French is chairman of the Southern Oregon District ACA, and Harpole is chairman of the district nominating committee. The next meeting will be in Klamath Falls on May 1.

Stocks, Bonds Expert Set To Return To 'Big Surprise'

By CHARLES MERCER NEW YORK (AP) — Friends and associates of Leonard Ross back home in Tujunga, Calif., will be interested in knowing he's conducting himself with dignity during his New York sojourn, winning friends and influencing some people on their investments. Having skipped three grades thus far, Leonard finds himself in upper seventh at the Verdugo Hills Junior High School. His favorite subject there is math, followed by social studies "at times Leonard's mother, Mrs. William Ross, a court stenographer, accompanied him to New York.

The other day he spent a while at the New York Stock Exchange, impressing officials with his wide-ranging knowledge of investments and amazing employes with his ability to read ticker symbols for scores of stocks. Then he spent a while in the financial room of the New York Public Library, where he's checking through 150 various volumes for obscure facts. No night club addict, he spends spare time scanning the financial pages of New York newspapers.

His suggestions on what to buy and what to sell are so persuasive that it probably would be unfair to the market equilibrium to report them. But the most persuasive thing about him is that he is 10 years old and hasn't the slightest inclination to seek a career in high finance.

"It's simply an interest," he says, fixing you with kindly, intelligent brown eyes and swinging small feet that fail to touch the floor. "I've been interested in investments since I was 7. My father is a CPA and has a few small investments. Listening to him talk, I became interested and began following the market."

SERVICES HELD

YREKA — Services were held Wednesday from Girdner's chapel for Clarence Marvin Shaffer, 75, who died in Sacramento on March 24. He was born in Farmington, California, January 21, 1881 and had lived in Siskiyou County before moving to Sacramento. Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Isabel Rouse of Sacramento and two stepsons, Henry Hossick of Yreka and Floyd Hossick of Nevada.

Bugs Bunny Celebrates 20th Movie Anniversary

By ALINE MOSBY United Press Hollywood Writer HOLLYWOOD (UP)—One veteran star has buck teeth, wears no clothes, is sassy and has a whining voice celebrates his 20th anniversary as the boxoffice champ of Hollywood.

Bugs Bunny has been Warner Studio's top money-maker and the head of Hollywood's boxoffice poll for 20 years. No other actor can make that statement.

Unfortunately, Bugs, like Doris Day and Susan Hayward, never has won an Oscar. But his creators sigh that many a top ticket-seller never makes the artistic grade.

On Bugs' 20th birthday and 20th anniversary in pictures I dropped in at his home, the Warner cartoon department where Bugs is spoken about as if he were a two-footed veteran such as Spencer Tracy. The busy bunny shows no signs of dropping in popularity.

nant. We won't put him out of character."

Bugs has starred in 146 movies, including this year's "Napoleon Bunny-Parte," and "Foreign Legion-Hare." He appeared twice in live movies. Always the top-rated star has the voice of Mel Blanc. "Blanc," insists producer Selzer, "actually is allergic to carrots. So we leave his carrot-munching line of 'What's up, Doc?' to the end when we record the sound."

"Mel tried celery and apples but nothing sounds like a carrot. Funny," but Blanc just can't stand carrots."
