

BASIN BRIEFS

Weed — Rummage of all varieties is being collected by the Weed PTA for their annual rummage sale to be held at the Weed Court Club Tuesday and Wednesday, October 2 and 3. Soiled garments donated are being accepted at the Weed Laundry and Dry Cleaners for cleaning, and Mrs. R. Abramson, chairman, stated that September 28 will be the last day for collection of items needing cleaning and also that paper bags and hangers are needed.

For Weekend — Houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Hahner of Lakeview during the weekend were Dr. and Mrs. E. Gaither Everett and son, David; Mrs. George Hahner, all of Ashland; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey and two small sons of Portland. Mrs. Hahner is remaining in Lakeview for the week, part of which she will spend with Mrs. C. J. Clause.

From California — Dr. and Mrs. Jack Mayer are spending several days in Lakeview visiting old friends. They are formerly located here. They are guests at the home of Mrs. A. L. Thornton.

Over Weekend — Bill Ayres of Sebastopol, California, was a visitor over the Labor Day weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Ayres in Lakeview.

Special Award — Flynn's Appliance and Furniture Store, owned by Mills and Fields Flynn in Lakeview, was presented with a special merit award at the Lake County Fair for a commercial exhibit over the most consecutive years. This is given by the local fair association through membership in the State Fair Association, and was awarded for the first time here, according to Bob Weir Jr., president of the Lake County group.

Minister — The Rev. Harold Roberts of Medford filled the pulpit at the Merrill Presbyterian Church last Sunday in the absence of Rev. George Milne who recently moved to Portland.

Trip — Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jinnette, all of Merrill, spent last weekend sightseeing in the Prineville, Burns and John Day area.

From Roseburg — Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fruits of Merrill over the Labor Day weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fruits and daughters from Roseburg.

City of Merrill — To be eligible to vote in the city of Merrill elections, it is necessary for all voters and electors of Merrill to sign new registration cards and return them by October 1 to Otis Thompson, city recorder.

Moved — Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schooler and Mike have moved to Klamath Falls where they bought a home. Mr. and Mrs. John Torrence have rented their house in Bonanza.

Grandson — Mr. and Mrs. John Hellekson of Langell Valley received word of their first grandchild, a boy, born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Snell of Susanville. He was born August 31 and weighed 7 lbs. 5 ozs. Mrs. Sylvan Crume of Sprague River is paternal grandmother.

Nada Derry — of Malin and her houseguest Iva Lou Brattan of Parkdale, Oregon, visited in Langell Valley and Bonanza Saturday. Both girls, student nurses at Providence hospital at Portland, are on vacation. They left Malin Sunday for Portola to visit Nada's sister, Mrs. Ralph Womack.

To Convention — Mrs. M. A. Bowman of Merrill left on Tuesday by train for an insurance convention in Portland.

Weekend — Hazel McNeil, Sylvia Jones, Isabel Lemler and Mildred Rexford, all of Merrill, spent Labor Day weekend at Huckleberry Mountain.

Nephew Visits — Visiting at the Merrill home of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Fotheringham was Mrs. Fotheringham's nephew and family, Lt. Com. and Mrs. R. R. Matthews and children from San Diego.

Merrill — Twelve children registered on opening day, Wednesday, September 5, at the Merrill Recreation Hall for kindergarten. Mothers of the children enjoyed a coffee hour while the children assembled in the kindergarten room to become acquainted with each other and their teacher, Mrs. Carrie Mattson. The Merrill VFW Auxiliary sponsors the kindergarten project.

Visiting — for a week at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Brown, Crystal, were Tom Ottinger, his son Fred and family, McMinnville. The Ottingers left Crystal 14 years ago after selling their property to the Fred G. Browns, and Mrs. Ottinger passed away two years ago. Ottinger Sr.,

American Legion Sets Out On Anti-Commie Crusade

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The American Legion set out today on a new crusade against communism after hearing a warning by Vice President Richard M. Nixon of communism's "serious threat to freedom" and a pledge by newly elected national Commander Wilbur C. Daniel to fight its "despotic evils."

The Legion wound up its national convention last night by electing Daniel, a 42-year-old Navy veteran, to the highest office of the 2,800,000-member organization.

now 85, makes his home at McMinnville with his son and family.

'Grandma' 96 Today

EAGLE BRIDGE, N.Y. (AP)—The little lady known as Grandma Moses is 96 today.

Nothing elaborate is planned. Grandma likes it that way — the way her painting is. Its simple charm has gained her world recognition.

Mrs. Anna Mary Robertson Moses began painting in her late 70s. Today her work hangs in many of the great galleries of the world.

Her daughter, Mrs. Winona Fisher, says Grandma's eyesight is still "wonderful," and that her health is even slightly better than it was last year.

Mrs. Fisher lives with Grandma in a cottage tucked in this hamlet that rests on rolling countryside only a short distance from the Vermont line.

Mrs. Fisher says Grandma "paints a little every day."
