Forgery Suspect Sought In Area

James E. Pittman, a 30-year-old Negro, wanted by Siskiyou County police on forgery charges, is believed to be in the Klamath Falls vicinity.

City police report that the six foot, 160 pounder may be in one of the following three type vehicles:

A 1946 blue Chevrolet coupe bearing temporary California license plates, a 1938 DeSoto sedan with California license ARO 911, or a 1953 Plymouth without known plates.

Pittman reportedly uses the alias, Willie James.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ethel Mae Friedel, 44, native of Valdez, Alaska, will be held from St. Paul's Episcopal Church, this city on Wednesday, September 12 at 2 p.m. Rev. Galen Onstad will officiate.

Mrs. Friedel, a former resident of Klamath Falls, died September 8, at Mountain Meadows, near Clear Water Camp, Oregon, where she had lived for the last 38 months.

Surviving are her widower, Charles F. Friedel and one son, Fred E. Friedel of Mountain Meadows; sisters, Mrs. Lola Puariea of Mountain Meadows and Mrs. Irene Tinkham of Seattle, Washington; a brother, Clyde Jaques of Comp-ton, California.

The commitment service and interment will be in Klamath Memorial Park. Ward's Klamath Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Anna Albertson Rites On Tuesday

LAKEVIEW — Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Albertson, 73, will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Ousley-Osterman chapel with Rev. Gordon Griffin officiating. Interment will follow in the West Side Cemetery.

Mrs. Albertson died Saturday at her home in the West Side district.

Born in Georgia, she was married in 1927 to Clarence Albertson at Bandon, who survives. Other survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Martha Cochran, Tahlequah, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Roxie Zumwalt of Talent.

Mrs. Albertson was a member of the Lakeview Baptist Church.

FIRE

DORRIS — A burning cigarette tossed into a waste paper basket under a desk in the office of the service station at the Golden Bear Truck Stop at the south end of town caused a fire Thursday evening. The volunteer fire department responded to the call but quick work on the part of the personnel at the service station had the blaze under control by the time firemen could arrive.

More Comfort Wearing FALSE TEETH

Here is a pleasant way to overcome loose plate discomfort. FASTEETH, an improved powder, sprinkled on upper and lower plates holds them firmer so that they feel more comfortable. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (destitute breath). Get FASTEETH today at any drug counter.

Gambling Cases Set

Nine persons cited for gambling law violations after state police staged a series of raids last week on Klamath County taverns, pool-halls and cardrooms, were scheduled to appear Monday at 3 p.m. before District Judge D. E. Van Vactor.

District Attorney Richard Beesley said the raids were made at his request. Monday morning his office was preparing complaints to be filed in Judge Van Vactor's court.

State police are holding 200 punchboards and 10 slot machines they said were seized at various establishments in the city and county.

CFG Opens Fall Drive

The Klamath Council of Camp Fire Girls announced today the opening of its fall Membership March, with a survey taken in all elementary schools. The survey is an invitation to all girls 7-10 years old to join Blue Birds, the junior Camp Fire Girls, and to all girls 10-13 to join Camp Fire Girls.

It is being conducted by the Council Group Organization Committee headed by Mrs. Phil Lee, chairman. Her committee consists of: Mrs. Murray Britton, chairman of the central district assisted by Mrs. Tom Gospodnetich, Mrs. Harold Scoules, Mills School, Mrs. Robert Clark, Fremont School, Mrs. A. M. Cherry, Riverside School, and Mrs. Willis Homer, Fairhaven School; Mrs. Herbert Waits, chairman of the north district assisted by Mrs. Rex Hiatt, Roosevelt School, Mrs. Gilbert Fleet, Pelican and Conger schools, Mrs. Henry Tucker, Fairview School, Mrs. Kyle Morgan, Mrs. Gino Carnini, Sacred Heart Academy.

Mrs. Marden Piffette, chairman of the south district assisted by Mrs. George Yabhaus, Mrs. Ralph Fuller, Peterson School, Mrs. A. M.
