

LANVIN says the atomizer is the only satisfactory way to dispense perfume. The new STEP atomizer is imported from France and has no wick or tube to clog it up and it has no bulb. It works by the easiest pressure of the finger. It is guaranteed not to leak, clog or to allow evaporation of your favorite scent.

STEP Atomizers

It isn't too early to start shopping for Christmas—and remember last year when you were disappointed that some of the items you wanted were sold out by the time you got around to settle down to buying. Exquisite and colorful atomizers make lovely gifts and the new STEP atomizers range in price from under five dollars to nearly $30, so you have a wide choice. Purse atomizers are a welcome gift for the bride or for the girl in college—and they are wonderful "little" gifts for Christmas, or "big" gifts if you want to splurge on a handsome baecarat crystal atomizer for the dressing table. STEP atomizers are designed without bulb, wick or tube and work so easily with the easiest pressure of your finger. They are guaranteed not to clog and you need not worry about evaporation or spilling. STEP atomizers come in a beautiful selection of 35 different styles and colors. Just hold your STEP atomizer upside down and press the piston and out comes a delicate spray of perfume. Lanvin Parfums uses STEP exclusively.

ACCENT ON BEAUTY

The vanity lavatory is replacing old-fashioned mirrored dressers in many homes. Vanity lavatories offer all the convenience of the dresser, counter area, drawer space and a wide expanse of mirror. In addition, there is the advantage of a modern lavatory with hot and cold water.

CHIPPED BEEF

Chipped beef is usually combined with a creamy white sauce and served over toast points for a light luncheon. Try a change and serve this creamed beef mixture over waffles for a wake-up breakfast. Garnish the plate with a spiced peach or crabapple.

HERE'S a low-calorie butterscotch pudding made with D-Zerta Pudding mix combined with crisp fall apples. It is a dessert for now and on into winter — especially if you are watching your weight.

Remove from heat and fold in diced apples to which lemon juice has been added. Pour into serving dishes. Pudding thickens as it cools. Top each serving with pieces of diced apple. Makes 4 servings.
