

AN ELEGANT LOOK for cocktails, created by Rappi in velvet dotted nylon tulle (Checker Fabrics and Net Company) over taffeta, is this little number for Fall. Velvet edges the sheer, three-quarter length sleeves and high rounded neck which continues as a low squared back, bow-trimmed. For your swish evenings fashion says you may still wear the exaggeratedly full skirts that have been found to be so much fun all summer.

KEEP FRAGRANCE at your finger tips with the exciting new spray colognes. Here are Shulton's Escapade and Desert Flower, dramatically packaged to match their individual lines in brilliant Escapade pink and luxurious Desert Flower gold and white. Both come in plastic-dipped bottles to prevent shattered glass and softly shaped in contour.

Spray Colognes

Paint sprays, moth sprays, shaving creams, whipped cream — all in aerosol containers... fun to use and functional, too. There's no telling where it will end, and we hope it never does!

Nicest of all the push-button devices, for ladies only, are the delightful new spray colognes. They've gained an instant, overwhelming popularity because they make all other ways to apply fragrance old-fashioned.

The most important advantage of spray colognes over the old-time atomizer is their uniform spray and their ability to bring forth every last drop of fragrance. No more bulb squeezing — just a touch of your finger produces a burst of fragrance.

Two new spray colognes on the market are made by Shulton in their popular Desert Flower and Escapade fragrances. If you're the sophisticated type, choose Desert Flower... a truly elegant, enchanting fragrance. Escapade is the exclamation point for a lively, vivacious personality.

Whatever your type, if you've ever wanted to feel fragrant all over — today's your day. You can literally bathe in these fresh fragrances by Shulton... they spray so quickly over such a wide area. Besides, cologne was never meant to be dabbed on. Few women realize they are creating only an illusion of fragrance when they apply a few sparse drops behind the ears. To share the pleasant effect of your cologne with others, apply it generously. Because you apply spray cologne directly to your skin, you eliminate the wasteful first-finger-then-skin action.

Other practical aspects of the new Shulton spray colognes are the opaque, plastic-dipped bottles — white and gold for Desert Flower, pink and black for Escapade. The liquid is never exposed to light — known to be damaging to fragile fragrance. The built-in atomizer cuts down evaporation to the minimum... and they're spill-proof, too — no more stains on furniture tops.

Desert Flower and Escapade Spray Colognes are packaged in smart gift cartons.

TABAK OF CALIFORNIA proves again that styles now originate in the West. Here are two from-five-on velveteen costumes for sheer glamour. The sleeveless sheath has a just slightly draped square neckline, elastic-controlled. The sheath cover-up dress is an obviously well-established empire. These are velveteens to treasure in jewel-like colors of porcelain blue, peacock green, crimson glow and naturally the always fashion-right black.

MEAL-STARTER

In your blender, chop fine 1/4 small green pepper, 1 small onion, 1-inch slice peeled cucumber and a 3-inch piece of celery. Add 1 can of condensed tomato soup and 1 soup can of milk. Season with black pepper, marjoram (or oregano) and garlic salt. Chill in the refrigerator and serve with a cheese stick or wafer.

Recipe Requested

This is going to be a test of readership for this page. About a month ago, your food editor was asked for a recipe for Peach Tapioca Pudding which the person inquiring remembered from way back. She commented that the recipe had appeared at one time on the tapioca package. A letter to General Foods Corporation, makers of Minute Tapioca, brought a quick response. Marie Wooden, product publicist for Minute Tapioca, says she thinks this is what was requested.

PEACH TAPIOCA
(Using Fresh Peaches)
2 cups sliced fresh peaches

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- 1-3 cup quick-cooking tapioca
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 1/2 cups water
- 1/4 teaspoon grated lemon rind

Place peaches in a bowl. Dot with butter. Sprinkle with lemon juice and nutmeg. Set aside. Combine sugars, quick-cooking tapioca, salt, water, and lemon rind in saucepan. Place over medium heat; cook and stir until mixture comes to a boil. Pour over peaches and mix thoroughly. Cover and set in warm place; stir once after 15 to 20 minutes. Serve warm with cream. Makes 8 servings.

LIMA BEANS

California large dry limas are an economical source of good protein. Keep this point in mind when planning meatless menus. The cooked limas combine well with cheese to make highly nutritious entrees.

STEAK ALPINE

Mix 1/4 cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon black pepper; pound into 1 1/2 pounds round steak with meat hammer or edge of saucer. Brown both sides of steak in hot shortening. Add 1 can (1 1/2 cups) V-8 juice; cover and cook over low heat about 1 1/2 hours or until tender. Stir occasionally. Makes six servings. Mashed potatoes are a natural with this entree.

TOMATOES

When broiling tomato slices or fixing stewed tomatoes, always add a little sugar to bring out the good flavor of the tomatoes.
