

A TON OF MEAT, beef, pork and lamb was shipped from Klamath Falls recently to the Crippled Children's home in Portland by the Klamath Falls Shrine Club. The meat was bought by club members at the Rotary-sponsored 4-H and Future Farmer of America Junior Livestock Sale held in late August and donated to the hospital. The shipment was taken to Portland by the Bend-Portland Truck Service free of charge. The TP Packing Company donated the processing and six lambs to be included in the shipment. In the cooler at the TP plant before removal of the meat are, left to right, Charles Bane, manager, Bend-Portland Truck Service, and Shrine Club president, Jim Winde, Keith O'Hair and Charles Heaton, who bought and donated the meat.

UN Truce Chief Urges End To Border Clashes

JERUSALEM (AP) — Maj. Gen. Edson Burns, U.N. truce chief, has called on both Jordan and Israel to put an end to the series of border incidents that has exploded in the middle of the Red Sea. Another guard was missing. Jordan military sources charged yesterday that 1,000 Israelis in a fleet of trucks and armored cars blew up a fortified police post and killed 20 Jordanians during a two-hour battle. This attack, one of the most serious along the Jordan-Israeli border in months, was only three miles from where the Israelis claimed six of their soldiers were are on guard and will severely punish every murder and act of sabotage.

A spokesman at U.N. headquarters said the police post, a four-room stone building with two towers at Rahwa, about a mile inside Jordan and 20 miles southwest of Jerusalem, was wrecked. An explosives expert said at least half a ton of explosives had been used to blow it up.

Jordan military sources gave this account of the attack: Supported by heavy mortar fire and military engineers, about a battalion of Israelis in 34 trucks and jeeps and three armored cars attacked that 16 Jordan police and national guardsmen manning the post. The post was blown up by an explosive charged slipped into the building and everyone inside was killed.

Mayor Leads Fight To Rid School Of Colored Pupils

CLAY, Ky. (AP)—Mayor Herman Z. Clark, outspoken integration foe, said today he personally will lead the community's campaign to rid the Clay School of its only two Negro students.

"I'll not rest until James and Teresa Gordon return to a school where they belong," Clark said in an interview.

"We will follow a policy of passive resistance by keeping our children out of school until the Gordons leave."

The government started yesterday when all white children in the school (enrollment 500) walked out after the Gordon children entered classes under protection of 300 National Guardsmen and 60 state troopers. The escort slipped into the community before dawn under the command of Adj. Gen. J. J. B. Williams.

One teacher, Minvil Clark, said he would not return even though "I was threatened with the loss of my teaching certificate by the State Board of Education."

Clark, a Baptist minister here, said he and the school's 11 other teachers were told the board could revoke their certificates if they left school before their working day ended.

The minister repeated his promise later in the day to 200 Clay residents who met at Dixon, the county seat, to urge the Webster County Board of Education to honor a petition suggesting all teachers stay out of classes until the Negroes left.

School Supt. Wilbur Collins told the gathering the board would have to follow the law and permit the Negroes to remain.

All was quiet at Sturgis, 11 miles away, where seven Negroes were expected to enter the high school for the fourth consecutive day. Approximately 200 guardsmen are assigned to the school.

Gen. Williams said the troops at Clay and Sturgis will not be removed until the situation is resolved "no matter how long or short it may be."

About 200 people crowded around and on the road leading to the Clay school yesterday morning after the Gordons were safely inside, but only a handful watched them leave in the afternoon.

Lakeview Sets School Election

LAKEVIEW—A school bond election will be held here on Tuesday, October 16, according to H. B. Ferrins, school superintendent.

A bond issue of $360,000 will be asked for school district No. 7 to provide funds to construct and equip a new high school gymnasium, auditorium and two classrooms. A health room will be included in the project.

Morrison and Howard, Klamath Falls architects, have drawn preliminary plans for the structure. John Howard consulted with members of the school board at its meeting last week.

GIRL BORN

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Marie McDonald, recently divorced from wealthy shoe manufacturer Harry Karl, gave birth to a 4-pound, 5-ounce baby girl by Caesarean section yesterday at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

THESE LUCKY STUDENTS, Linda Bowman, 2804 Bisbee Street, left, and Ray Bramhall, 536 Pine Street, right, won a portable typewriter and a leather zipper binder respectively from the Shaw Stationery Co., 729 Main Street as a part of the store's back to school program. All students entering the store registered and were eligible for the prizes. Twelve pen and pencil sets were also awarded to other students. J. H. Brodie, center, represented the store at the presentation.

CONGRESSMAN DIES — Carl R. Chidblom, 84, former Republican congressman from the old 10th District in Chicago from 1919 to 1933, died yesterday.

Lee Available For New Job

SALT LAKE CITY. (AP)—Gov. J. Bracken Lee says, "If you know anybody who wants a man of my age for a job, why I'm open," now that his bid for a third term has been rejected.

But Lee, 57, says he "would not encourage" a move to re-elect him via a write-in campaign.

"I just don't think a thing like that would be successful," he said in an interview last night after his defeat in Utah's Republican primary Tuesday by political newcomer George D. Clyde.

"After all, this isn't the end of the world for any of us. It's just an election. Certainly I feel bad about it. I'm certain my friends feel just as bad if not worse."

Lee, considered a political maverick by party regulars in Utah for his criticism of foreign aid, the United Nations and the Eisenhower administration, lost to Clyde by more than 8,000 votes in a Republican gubernatorial primary that totaled more than 117,000.

Some post primary talk has mentioned the possibility that Lee might make the race for governor anyway, on a write-in basis. But he says of such a move: "My feeling is that I don't want to participate in it. The people have spoken and I'm willing to abide."

Will he support Clyde?

"I see no reason why I shouldn't support him. Of course, I'm not going to campaign as hard as I would for myself because that's hard work. But if they want me, if they need me, if they feel I won't hurt them — sure I would."
