Stork Shower

TULELAKE—A pink and blue color scheme prevailed at the stork shower honoring Mrs. Harvey Greenbank on Friday evening, September 1, Mrs. Greenbank is the former Joyce Larson.

Guests gathered in the fireplace room of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian Church where gifts were arranged on a large table simulating a bassinet.

The attractive refreshment table was covered with an arrangement of pink gladioli and tall blue tapers. Other arrangements of the same flowers were used about the room.

Mrs. Hilmar Larson, mother of Mrs. Greenbank and Mrs. Arthur Greenbank, mother of Harvey Greenbank, poured.

Ruth Galloway assisted in opening the numerous gifts. Mrs. Sam Anderson and Mrs. Bill Allen gave a humorous skill.

Speeches were Mrs. Carl Jensen, Mrs. Albert Scott, Mrs. E. C. Schwanitz, Mrs. Chester J. Mann, Mrs. Sam Anderson, Mrs. Evelyn Galloway, Mrs. Bill Allen, Mrs. John O'Shea, Mrs. A. E. Ryckman and Ruth Galloway.

Harris-Riehman Nuptial Vows

DUNSMUIR — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris Jr., will make their home at Berkeley following a honeymoon trip to Washington, D.C. and across the nation.

The bride, formerly Sara Theresa Riehman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Riehman of Somerville, New Jersey. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris Sr., Dunsmuir.

Nuptial vows were exchanged September 1 at the Church of Immaculate Conception in Somerville. A reception followed at the Raritan Valley Inn.

The bride attended eastern schools. Harris is a graduate of Dunsmuir schools and after serving in the U.S. Army, has been attending the University of California.

OVER 100 TEEN-AGERS GATHERED AT THE YACHT CLUB around 8:30 p.m. on August 31, for a final summer social fling before going back to school. From the left in the picture, Dick Clark, Mary Murg Addison, Wally Wunder and the hostess, Marcia Haffer. All of the guests, with the exception of one or two were from KUBS classes of '55 and '57. — Photo by Kettler

VOWS SAID IN MORNING RITES

YREKA — Newlyweds making their home in Yreka are Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Layfield (Jerry M. Davenport). They were married recently at a double-ring ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Davenport of Yreka, in the presence of close friends and relatives.

For the morning ceremony, the bride chose a two-piece white knit suit with light blue accessories. She carried a rosewood Bible and a bouquet of white carnations with blue satin streamers. Vows were exchanged before the living room fireplace banked with baskets of white gladioli.

Paula Fisher was the bride's maid.

attendant, Thurman Thompson was best man. Rev. Erling Hiltach of Creswell, former pastor of the Yreka Baptist Church, officiated.

The bride, a senior at Yreka High School, expects to be graduated in January. The bridegroom completed a four-year tour of duty with the U.S. Navy after attending Yreka High School. He is now employed in Yreka.

Memo to teen-agers: When you are being driven by the mother or father of a friend, direct at "Hello" when they get in the car least a little of your conversation and "Thank you" when the ride to the grown-up who is doing you is over.

MEET

Fred Worrymore

THE BUSINESSMAN WHO COULDN'T RELAX
A bundle of nerves—Tight as a drum
No relief from business pressure

HE NEVER LEFT THE OFFICE. When he went home at night, his business problems went with him. Big or small business today means plenty of strain and pull on those nerves. The pressure builds and builds. Doctor's prescriptions, clinics, rest homes. Uh-uh. Nothing worked for Fred. Maybe a man of action needs a different kind of stimulus to relax.

Fred read an ad one day: "Anyone Can Play a Hammond Chord Organ in Minutes... one finger plays the melody, one finger plays chords and 'picture music' shows you how, if you can't read standard music." He went in for a demonstration and played "Home Sweet Home" in fifteen minutes. We all know that music hath soothing charms. It worked with Fred.

WHAT A JOY TO HIS FAMILY

Now after a hard day at the office, Fred completely unloads before dinner with his Hammond Chord Organ. No more tension. No more artificial curricula. Maybe you're not a Fred Worrymore. But whatever you want from life, you can find satisfaction, relaxation and a lot of just plain fun with a Hammond Chord Organ. Why not see how easy it is to play yourself. TODAY!
