"DENNIS THE MENACE"

"HOW COME THAT OL' PIPE DON'T MAKE YOU SICK?"

Summer Bows Out Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today was the last full day of the summer season and chilly autumn weather already moved over most of the eastern half of the nation.

Frosty air extended over the lower Great Lakes region and lower Mississippi Valley eastward to the Atlantic Coast.

The summer season ends officially at 8:36 p.m., EST, tomorrow.

Temperatures were in the 30s from Virginia and North Carolina northward with some places reporting readings below freezing.

Meg Tours East Colonies

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret flew smilingly off today on a five-week official visit by plane and ship to British territories in the Indian Ocean and East Africa.

Queen Mother Elizabeth waved farewell as the giant, four-engine Argonaut lifted her 26-year-old daughter into the overcast sky over London for the trip into the sunny tropics.

Queen Elizabeth II and her family were not on hand. They are vacationing at Balmoral Castle, in Scotland.

The five-week tour is the princess' most important official function since the breakup last October of her romance with Group Capt. Peter Townsend.

The handsome, divorced air ace is himself soon to leave for Africa—by jeep on a round-the-world trip.

For her departure the princess wore a form-fitting navy blue coat and a head-hugging hat. Her mother, also in navy blue, said a brief private farewell in the plane, then stood on the airfield with Colonial Secretary Alan Lennox-Boyd to watch the departure.

As the big craft moved away, the princess waved gaily from a seat by a window.

Margaret's plane headed first for Britain's Mediterranean rock bastion of Gibraltar. From there the royal route lay through Kano, on the edge of the Sahara, and Entebbe, in Uganda, to Mombasa, the Kenya port where the princess tomorrow afternoon will board the royal yacht Britannia, her home for the major part of her trip.

THE ORAL ROBERTS film, "Five Things God Has Shown Me," will be shown Saturday night, September 22 at the Church of God of the Apostolic Faith, on the corner of Granite and Douglas streets in the Stewart Lenox Addition. Above is Oral Roberts. The Rev. Raymond Edmonson is pastor.
