QUEEN for six months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Johnson, 4413 Denver Avenue, has been Nancy Irene—ever since she was born. And no sign of her abdicating. She has two grandmothers, Mrs. Letty Lindsley, Puyallup, Washington; and Mrs. Viva Johnson, Portland, who is to visit the Johnsons sometime this fall.

Pioneer Schoolmates Luncheon Meeting

Pioneer Schoolmates Club is a group of women who went to school together in Klamath Falls—and who have been meeting regularly for over 40 years. The recent meeting on Friday, September 21, was at the home of Minnie Robinson, 421 Washington. Co-hostess was Elizabeth Ramsby, sister of two members, and a frequent guest of the club. Highlight of the afternoon was a monologue, "The County Fair," by Lena Everett, Mrs. Robinson's sister, who came from Sacramento to pay a surprise visit to her sister and the old school friends. Another out-of-town member was Winnie Wampler McEmore from Oakland, California, who contributed to the afternoon's merry-memory-marathon with some humorous recollections of her own. A late luncheon was served by the two hostesses. Assisting were Maud Hosley, Lena Everett and Winnie Cleghorn. Others present included Mae Anderson, Edna Car-nahan, June Grimes, Minnie Griz-zie, Anna Reeder and Ida Grimes. The next meeting of the group will be at the home of Anna Reeder, 413 Division Street.
