

Bonanza P-P Holds Meet

BONANZA—First fall meeting of the Bonanza Parents and Patrons Club was held in the school auditorium September 26 at 8 p.m., with President Donald Philpott presiding.

Principal Charles Steber introduced the teaching staff, which includes two new teachers. He listed the improvements made during the summer to the football field and playground, and school policies and the year book were discussed.

New committees appointed are: ways and means, Mrs. J. E. Baldock; membership, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brown; hospitality, Mrs. Bob Hartley, Mrs. Mike Dearborn and Mrs. Jesse Angel; program, Mrs. Charles Dalton, Mrs. Jess McFall and Mrs. Reg Thomas; food, Mrs. Rose Stalnaker and Mrs. Maurice Spillane; publicity, Cora Leavitt, and room mothers, Mrs. Ed Scott and Mrs. Wes Dearborn.

The executive committee served refreshments after the meeting.

Youth Group To Be Formed

MALIN—A new young people's group for both boys and girls from the fifth to eighth grade age levels is now being sponsored by the Malin Presbyterian Church. The group has chosen the name "Jet Cadets" and will meet on Sunday evenings from 7 to 8 p.m.

Leaders are Alice Johnson and Verba Long. Activities will include Bible study, through which the young people will work for ranks and stars. Squadron divisions will be in charge of the programs. All boys and girls in the community of this age group are welcome to attend.

Yreka Hi Said Unsafe

YREKA—The Yreka high school building has been termed "unsafe" by a San Francisco engineering firm and J. E. Hurley, superintendent, announced that corrective measures would be taken immediately.

The study was undertaken after conflicting reports of state officials on the question of whether or not new construction was indicated.

Hurley said a final written report will be forthcoming in about three weeks but he had received oral information that abandonment for the present building will be recommended.

Amos Purcell Dies Following Illness

AMOS PURCELL, 77, a native of Iowa, resident of Klamath Falls for 15 years, died here September 29, following a long period of ill health.

Surviving are a brother George Purcell and a sister, Mrs. Ralph Tucker, both of Ulysses, Kansas.

Services for Mr. Purcell will take place from the chapel of Ward's Klamath Funeral Home on Tuesday, October 2, at 3 p.m. The Rev. Dallas McNeil of the First Methodist Church will officiate. Final rites and commitment will be in Klamath Memorial Park.

Half an hour of free fun

Come in and we'll show you how to play organ music in just 30 minutes! You don't have to read notes, or take lessons. Just sit down at the Hammond Chord Organ, and amaze yourself. One finger of your right hand plays the melody. One finger of your left hand presses a button for a rich, full chord. You can follow "Picture Music" or regular notes. There's no catch to this, no obligation to buy anything. We just want everyone to know how easy this wonderful Hammond Chord Organ is to play and enjoy.
