

Yankees Stunned As Bums Cop Pair Of Series Games

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP) — Shocked by their worst mauling in a quarter of a century of World Series competition, the pitching-poor New York Yankees banked their hopes on the left arm of their mound ace, Whitey Ford, and the right about turn to their own park, spacious Yankee Stadium.

Brooklyn's devastating 13-8 slaughter of a Series record of seven Yankees pitchers marked the first time since 1922 that any team has ever swept the first two games from the haughty Yankees. Twenty-four years ago, the Yankees lost the first two Series games to the New York Giants . . . and went on to lose the next two.

Ford appeared to be Casey Stengel's last hope. The little lefty, who was battered by the Brooks in the Series opener but who defeated the Dodgers twice last year—both times in Yankee Stadium—must win to set the Yankees back in the running. Stengel knew this better than anyone.

Brooklyn's two convincing triumphs have caused the price-makers to make a quick switch in the odds. The Dodgers are now 13 to 5 favorite to win the Series. The Yankees had opened an 8 to 5 choice.

An Ebbets Field throng of 36,217 saw something happen in a series game that never had happened before. The Yankees blew an early 6-0 lead and kayoed a 27-game winning Don Newcombe, Brooklyn's biggest winner since Dazzy Vance rolled up 23 victories in 1924. Not since the 1929 Philadelphia Athletics came from behind an 8-0 deficit to defeat the Chicago Cubs 10-8 did any club dissipate such a huge lead.

STORMED BACK

The seemingly beaten Brooks, led by Pee Wee Reese, Duke Snider and Gil Hodges, not only stormed back with a six-run tying outburst in the second, but continued to hammer away with a run in the third and two more in each of the fourth, fifth and eighth innings to roll up the biggest run total ever perpetrated on the Yankees in Series history.

Hodges, whose three-run homer proved the difference in the first game, batted in four more with a pair of doubles and a single to raise his RBI total to seven, two under Lou Gehrig's 1928 record. Snider crashed a three-run homer in the detonating six-run frame, increasing his Series homer total to 10. That dethroned Gehrig for runner-up honors, second only to Babe Ruth's 15. Reese's two-run single was a key blow in the big inning, set up partially by Joe Collins' boot of Sandy Amoros' grounder. All six runs in the inning became unearned because of the first baseman's miscue.

None of the seven Yankee pitchers were spared as the Dodgers cracked 13 hits to the Yankees 12. Don Larsen, the starter, permitted only one hit but walked four and failed to last through the second inning.

MOST PITCHERS

Newcombe, who became involved in a scuffle with a fan outside the park after the game, was rocked for six runs and six hits in less than two innings. Don Bessent, third Dodger pitcher—enabling the two teams to tie a record for most pitchers used—lim-

Muddle at Maryland: Why was Army-bound Quarterback Frank Tamburello ever drafted (and the Terps lost to Syracuse) when as a student in the top half of his class scholastically he was obviously eligible for deferment? . . . The whispered story: there was either deliberate or careless mistake by the selective service board . . . and even an appeal to the national draft head couldn't square it . . .

UCLA, nursing a mad-on at Stanford, is saving its best senior eligible for their November clash. . . The Bruins didn't dig the Indians' one way vote against easing the summer scandals punishment.

The growing-up of Whitey Ford: Right after his first World Series appearance in 1950 (8-2-3 scoreless innings against the Phils), he shrugged, "I'd rather be a roller derby skater" . . . actually tried to get permission from the Yanks. . . Now he'd rather be a business man, will use his Series cut to open a bowling emporium, a la Rizzuto-Berra . . . hopes he has the acumen of that pair—an angel is shouldering the tab for their New Jersey venture. . .

You can rave all you want about professional football newcomers like Heisman a ward winners, Howard Cassady and Billy Vessels, but the best-looking recruit runner in the NFL is the Colts' Lenny Moore. . .

Trainer Wayne Anderson of the Redlegs isn't surprised that the Giants' Don Heinrich made good in pro ball . . . recalling his first crisis as a Bremerton, Wash., high school star . . . tough gang from Bellingham surrounded Heinrich and party after a rough game, yelling, "Which one's Heinrich?" . . . Don turned around to a meek third string substitute and whispered loud enough for all to hear: "Hey, Donnie, you better get outa here quick" . . . the mob jumped the sub, while Heinrich scooted away, leaving Anderson to mnerse. "I always knew a kid who could think quick like that would make a top quarterback." . . .

Best man in the National League at making a double play, better even than Red Schoendienst, veteran ballplayers tell you, is Pirate rookie Bill Mazeroski. . .

Mickey Mantle told erudite Moe Berg he's going to need another operation on his right knee after the season . . . the same hinge on which the inside cartilage already has been removed . . . but the Yankees' Dr. Sidney Gaynor says its news to him. . .

Duck Coach Says UCLA 'Not Anemic'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Oregon coach Les Casanova says there's nothing anemic about UCLA but many spectators who watched the Bruins edge the Ducks by a lonely touchdown probably won't agree.

"What's anemic about that outfit?" said Casanova who watched UCLA roll up 281 yards to Oregon's 166 to beat the previously undefeated Ducks 6-0 Friday night before a Coliseum crowd of 22,097.

The player-pool Bruins played coach Red Sanders' usual game of ball control, running 77 plays to Oregon's 54. But it took Duck quarterback Jack Crabtree's fourth quarter fumble — one of seven Oregon bobbles — to set up the winning, and only, touchdown.

Running the option from his own 17, Crabtree was hit, fumbled and Brian and Dick Wallen finally downed the ball on the Oregon one. An off-side penalty set UCLA back to the six. Two plays later, sophomore tailback Don Long ambled around right end to score standing up. Don Duncan's conversion try was blocked.

It was the 17th straight conference win for the Bruins who haven't been stopped in PCC play since Stanford turned the trick 21-20 in 1955. It was also UCLA's seventh straight victory over Oregon.

"Our team has never played better against a running attack," said Sanders. But offensively, he said, "this team has more trouble moving the ball than any other Bruin team I've coached."

Honkers Rip Buffalo Herd In 33-13 Win

LAKEVIEW — Coach Howard Hooper's Lakeview Honkers continued their undefeated rife through high school football ranks Friday night as they handed the visited Madras White Buffalos a 33-13 pasting in a district game played before a large hometown crowd.

This was the Yonkers fourth straight victory of the year, all against "name" opponents. The first three Lakeview wins came over Yreka, Ashland and Henley.

Marvin Tyler sparked the Lakeview offensive drives as he passed for two touchdowns and scored another on a 60-yard pass interception runback.

Tyler tossed once to Jim Stewart for a 20-yard scoring play, and another time to Gary Henderson for a 20-yard tally. Stewart scored the other two Lakeview country on runs of 29 and six yards. Lakeview scored twice more, but penalties nullified the efforts.

Next week, Lakeview will again be at home as they face Burns in another district game.

Score by quarters:
Lakeview 7 13 0 13-33
Madras 6 0 7 0-13

Newk Clouts Dodger Fan After Words

BROOKLYN (UP) — Nothing riles Don Newcombe more than to be charged with choking up.

So when he left the ball park Friday after being kayoed by the Yankees, who belted him for six runs, he became angry because a fan shouted "You choked up, you have no guts."

Newcombe, carrying a baseball bat, dropped it and ran toward the fan, daring him to repeat the remark.

Police, who witnessed the incident, said the two became involved in a scuffle when the fan, Michael Frank Brown, did repeat the remark. Brown was socked in the stomach and he complained to the police, who said they would take Newcombe to jail if charges were pressed.

An officer, Brown, and Newcombe went toward the police station in Newcombe's car. En route, Brown, a Dodger fan who is a refreshment stand attendant, agreed not to press charges. Both men said they had been hot under the collar and offered apologies.

Deputy Police Commissioner Walter Arm said the matter was dropped at that stage, even though the officer involved filed a report to his precinct.

T. Anthony Nabs Verdict

WASHINGTON (UP) — Seventh-ranked light heavyweight Tony Anthony and Clarence Hinant were both ready and willing for another match today and TV fans who watched Anthony win a split decision from the Washington, D.C., battler Friday night were hoping it would be soon.

It was an excellent fight.

Anthony, a New Yorker, came back in the nationally televised 10-round fight after taking an eight-count knockdown in the second round. He was saved by the bell as Hinant swarmed all over him in an effort to put a sudden end to the bout.

Fights

FRIDAY'S FIGHTS
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON—Tony Anthony, 171½, New York, outpointed Clarence Hinant, 170, Washington, 10-

STRAINING, BUT NOT FAR enough was Jerry Collins in the county league football game between Chiloquin and Bonanza Friday afternoon at Chiloquin. Above, Collins tries to gather in a pass from one of his teammates, but it falls just out of reach. Chiloquin won the game. See story on other sports page.

Yankee Pitching Missing

NEW YORK (AP) — What has happened to Yankee pitching?

The once-proud mound staff which played a big role in the Yankees' one-sided conquest of the American League has crumbled before the Dodgers' heavy artillery like the targets of an atom bomb.

In the first two games of the World Series, lost 6-3 and 13-8, eight of Manager Casey Stengel's 10-man pitching staff, went to the firing line. And only Bob Turley escaped unscathed.

"They won too easily in our league and had too much rest," was Stengel's explanation in brief.

"They never faced such a sustained attack as the Dodgers produce," said a ranking National League official.

A glance at the box scores show the Yankee hurlers have issued 13 bases on balls, 11 of them in yesterday's game for a series one-game record. Along with the bases on balls have come 21 Dodger hits and 19 runs. The combined earned run average of the eight pitchers is 6.75.

Whitey Ford, pounded from the box in the first game after yielding six hits and five runs in three innings, came back Saturday in the first game at more spacious Yankee Stadium in an effort to beat the American Leaguers back in the won column. The southpaw, with a 19-6 regular season record, is Stengel's ace and if he can't win in his own ball park. Then the aurora of invincibility that has surrounded the Yanks for many years will have completely disappeared.

Only Bob Grim, who never has measured up to the promise he showed as a freshman in 1954, and the seldom-used Rip Coleman, a southpaw, have not been used by Stengel. Bob Turley impressed Stengel enough in pitching hitless ball for one and one-third innings in two games that he may get the call in Sunday's game.

All of the others—starter Don Larsen, Johnny Kucks, Johnny Byrne, Tom Sturdivant, Tom Morgan, and Mickey McDermott—were given the works as Duke Snider and Gil Hodges led the 12-hit attack in the come from behind victory. The 13 runs were the most ever scored against the Yankees in a World Series.

Football Scores

FRIDAY'S COLLEGE FOOTBALL
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
UCLA 6, Oregon 0
Utah 41, Brigham Young 6
Denver 22, Montana 13
Miami (Fl.) 27, Boston College 6
George Washington 13, Hardin-Simmons 7
McPherson 27, Baker (Kan.) 13
Southwestern (Kan.) 7, Ft. Hays State 0
Wahpeton Science 0, Valley City 0 (tie)
Central (Iowa) 7, Parsons 6
Lacrosse 44, Stout (Wis.) 0
Carthage (Ill.) 27, Culver Stockton 13
Tenn Wesleyan 19, Marion (Ala.) 13
Westmar 14, Dana (Neb.) 6
Nebraska Wesleyan 34, Wayne (Neb.) 26
Bethel (Kan.) 13, Ottawa (Kan.) 12
Washburn 14, Emporia State 6
Occidental 13, Los Angeles State 6
Larver 58, Calif. Baptist 20
Barnes Marines 31, Pomona-Claremont 16

Pirates, Medford Both Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The top six teams in the Oregon Associated Press high school football poll came through with expected victories Friday night, but two of them got bad scores.

Two of the low four teams in the top ten were defeated.

Marshfield, No. 1 in the poll and defending state champion, polished off Roseburg in a class A-1 district 5 game, 33-7. Medford, No. 2, turned back Central Point, 34-12, in district 4 action.

Eugene, third-ranked, just managed to preserve its perfect record, edging South Salem, 19-14. Albany, No. 4, was extended by Sweet Home before winning a district 8 game from Sweet Home, 21-14.

Beaverton, No. 5, got merely a warmup as it routed David Douglas of Portland, 27-6, in district 3. Sixth-rated Gresham drubbed Central Catholic of Portland, 20-6, in their district 3 action.

Grants Pass, No. 7, traveled to Longview and was beaten, 13-9. Springfield, ranked eighth, came from behind with three touchdowns in the final period to defeat Redmond, 21-14. Springfield travels to Coos Bay next weekend for a crucial district 5 contest.

McMinnville, No. 9, cleared a big hurdle in its race for another district 4 championship by routing St. Helens, previously unbeaten and untied, 44-7. 21-6. Jefferson, No. 10 and defending Portland city league champion, lost to Cleveland, 25-19. Lincoln beat Grant, 13-9, and Benson downed Franklin, 32-20, in other league games.

Of the top 10 teams only Eugene, Beaverton, Gresham, Springfield and McMinnville now are unbeaten and untied. Marshfield and Albany each had a week ago. Two other unbeaten, untied teams, Astoria and Parkrose, remained in contention with Gresham and Beaverton for district 3 honors. Astoria was impressive in routing Hillsboro, 25-0, while Parkrose beat Milwaukie, 21-6. Forest Grove gave McMinnville a lift in district 4 by blanking West Linn, 12-0.

Klamath Falls, still in the running for the district 6 title, showed strength in edging Boise, 14-12.

In the wide-open district 7 race The Dalles kept its slate clean with a 33-7 victory over Baker while Pendleton, the defending champion, and La Grande, the two other favorites, played to a 13-13 tie.

North Bend shaded Cottage Grove, 13-12, in a district 5 game. Corvallis defeated Bend, 19-13, in an important district 8 contest. In Ontario was dumped from the unbeaten ranks by Meridian, Idaho, 26-21. Vale trampled Weiser, Idaho, 35-7.

Uclans Slip By Oregon's Ducks

LOS ANGELES (UP) — The weakened UCLA Bruins clung to a record of 17 straight wins in three years of Pacific Coast Conference play today after slipping past the University of Oregon, 6-0, in Memorial Coliseum.

The Bruins' one-touchdown win Friday night was their seventh straight over the Oregon Webfoots. UCLA has not been defeated in PCC competition since Stanford won in 1953.

But, the team fielded by UCLA Coach Red Sanders was a shadow of the Bruins who dominated PCC football for the past few years. A tough Oregon line blunted all of UCLA's touchdown drives as they neared the goal line.

FUMBLE HURT

Seven Oregon fumbles, four of them recovered by UCLA, were the key to UCLA's victory.

The Bruins' touchdown in the fourth quarter was the result of a fumble by Oregon quarterback Jack Crabtree who dropped the ball when UCLA captain Don Biren hit him with a smashing tackle.

Substitute end Dick Wallen recovered, and on the second play from scrimmage Bruin sophomore halfback Don Long went around end for the lone score of the game.

Long gained 68 yards for an average of 6.28 yards a carry, but despite his brilliant performance, UCLA couldn't muster enough drive to push through the tough Oregon defense.

DRIVES STOPPED

The Bruins got inside the Oregon 10 in every quarter. Oregon stopped UCLA drives on the 1, 7, 7, and 10 as the Duck line of end Phil McHugh, guard Harry Mondak and guard Spile Hillstrom dug in and held.

Oregon threatened early and late in the game. Halfback Jim Shanley took the opening kickoff and raced 88 yards to the UCLA one, but the run was called back because of a clipping penalty.

Then, in the closing minutes of the fourth quarter, the Webfoots got into scoring position on a 40-yard pass from Crabtree to halfback Hank Loumena, only to lose the ball when UCLA intercepted a pass.

Statistically, the Bruins dominated Oregon in almost every listing, making 207 yards rushing to the Ducks' 89 and completing eight passes to the Webfoots' three.

Country Leading Bowed NY

NEW YORK (UP) — The Yankees may be bloody after losing the first two games of the World Series, but you can always be sure that "old warhorse" Enos Slaughter is unbowed.

The one-time Cardinal star, who now runs in left field for the Yankees like a young colt instead of a 40-year old veteran, has a turned out to be the most troublesome hitter in the Yankee lineup with a .500 batting average on five hits in 10 at bats.

Only twice has Country been retired on routine chances; the other three were sizzling line drives that backed up the outfielders.

The United Press revealed Friday that Slaughter's share in the Series player pool depends on his showing in the Series—a half-share based on his short term of service with the Yankees or a full term based on excellent play here. But don't get the idea that money is the only thing spurring him on—old Country would be going all out all the way if only safety pins were at stake.

"They'll say old Enos is smelling the money," said Slaughter. "But that's not the only thing I have been playing better since coming to the Yankees from Kansas City. I think it gave me a lift."

Slaughter's play has been a revelation to the younger Yankees, but Enos still is upset about two catches he didn't make Friday. Brooklyn's Gil Hodges blasted a pair of doubles to his sector to drive in a total of four runs, and those two blows decided the game.

"I never really had a chance to get either one," Slaughter had to admit. "But as long as I'm up here I'll be trying. You can bet on that."

Slaughter has a good reason to be distracted as he plays in the Series, for he's concerned about the welfare of his wife who is expecting a baby "today or tomorrow." But you'd never guess there was anything on his mind when he's swinging that bat.

The disclosure that Slaughter's share depends on his play in the Series prompted a lecture by Manager Casey Stengel to the Yankee players before Friday's game. The subject was speaking to the press about such matters.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Statistics of the Oregon-UCLA football game:

	Oregon	UCLA
First downs	9	14
Rushing yardage	89	207
Passing yardage	77	74
Passes completed	6-3	20-8
Passes intercepted by	2	1
Punts	4	5
Fumbles lost	4	1
Yards penalized	55	103

JC's Vie In Penalty Mix

STOCKTON (UP) — The Stockton College Mustangs defeated Oakland Junior College 15-6 at Baxter Stadium here Friday night in a junior college game that saw a total of 25 rule infractions called against the two teams.

Stockton struck first in the second period when quarterback Earl Moreno hit end Joy Gritts with a 25-yard pass and Gritts went all the way for the touchdown. The play was good for 58 yards.

Oakland back Rich Xavier was caught behind his own goal line in the same period after a bad pass from center, giving Stockton a safety and two points.

Oakland tallied in the third period on a 60-yard pass and run play from Xavier to halfback Wayne Schneider.

Lew Schmid, Stockton halfback, got his team's final score when he drove over the middle for 15 yards after an end sweep by Marshall Dragomanovich had netted 38 yards.

Stockton drew 19 penalties, costing them 205 yards. Oakland was assessed 70 yards for six infractions.

Stockton ground out a total of 44 yards to Oakland's 187.

Minor League

MINOR LEAGUE BASEBALL
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Dixie Series (best-of-7)
Houston (TL) 5, Atlanta (SA) 0 (Houston leads 3-2)

BOWLING SCORES

MOOSE PA'S LEAGUE

Player	W	L
O'Hair's Chapel	7	5
Shasta Sand	7	5
Merrill Moore	7	5
C. P. & W. Ward	7	5
Klamath Printing	7	5
Investors	7	5
Louie's Foods	7	5
Tai's Tavern	7	5

Friday night's results:
Louie's 0, Shasta 4
Tai's 1, Merrill 3
O'Hair's 7, Investors 0
Klamath Printing 1, Ward 3
High team series—Shasta Sand 2700
High individual game—Al Hakenwerth 219
High individual series—Gene Doughty 601

US Olympic Club Works

BUNKER HILL AIR FORCE BASE, Ind. (AP) — Coach Gerald M. Tucker put his U.S. Olympic basketball team through its first stiff practice session Saturday and said it was going to spend lots of time running.

"Our big men can move and we're going to fast break," said the coach of the AAU Phillips 66 team announced.

One of them 6-foot-10 Bill Russell of San Francisco's undefeated NCAA champions, complied by leaping from flatfooted stance with his back to the basket, and "dunking" the ball through the hoop without looking at it.

"Well, they can jump, too," Tucker grinned.

The U.S. has never lost an Olympic basketball game in the three Olympiads that included the sport. The U.S. has scored 21 straight victories.

Sports in Brief

FRIDAY'S BRIEFS
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
BASEBALL
BROOKLYN — The Brooklyn Dodgers overcame a 6-run New York Yankee lead to win their second straight World Series game 13-8.

KANSAS CITY — Marlene Bauer Hage of Grossinger, N.Y., set a course record with a 9-under-par 67 to take a 2-stroke lead in the first round in the Women's Heart of America Tournament at Hillcrest Country Club.

EL CAJON, Calif. — George Bayer of Grossinger, N.Y., fired a 6-under-par 66 to hold a 3-stroke lead at the halfway mark of the San Diego Open with a 36-hole total of 131.

RACING
LEXINGTON, Ky. — Nimble Colby won the $53,731 Kentucky Futurity in three heats.

NEW YORK — Bold Ruler ($3.80) scored a convincing victory in the Anticipation Purse at Belmont.

CHICAGO — Bobtag ($11.40) won the Mt. Prospect Purse by 1½ lengths over Braseda at Hawthorne.

ALBANY, Calif. — Bold Reading ($7) lasted under pressure to annex the feature at Golden Gate Fields.

Of the active New York major league players Willie Mays holds the highest batting average for one season. He hit .345 in 1954. Brooklyn's Carl Furillo hit .344 in 1953.

Scoreboard

EXHIBITION HOCKEY
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Montreal (NHL) 8, Cleveland (AHL) 3
Chicago (NHL) 5, Buffalo (AHL) 5 (tie)
Toronto (NHL) 9, Sudbury Wolves 3

Cincinnati second baseman Johnny Temple was married at home plate in 1956 while playing for Columbia, S.C. His bride is Becky Sheely.

Michigan State cross-country coach Karl Schladeinan has led the Spartans to four NCAA, four Big Ten and three IC4A team titles.

Sawdust Copping Now in Full Swing!

CAP NOW!

Then—pick your tires up when you need them — 5 tread designs to choose from.

Illustrated is our Traction Design

- Wider • Deeper
- Quieter

For all around use, on or off highway. The all-purpose tread that proved so popular last year.

Capped with famous VOLT ICEMASTER CAMEL BACK

Available in Passenger Car Sizes
6:00x16 thru 8:20x15
In Sawdust or Rubber

Take the Gamble out of Winter Driving!

BALSIGER MOTOR CO.

Main at Esplanade Ph. 4-3121

ALSO AVAILABLE AT

Stones Signal Service 12th and Pine	Clooke's Chevron Service 1203 Main
Ray Reeves Flying "A" 1130 Main	Nordwall's Flying "A" 4th and Main
Beecon Service 1201 E. Main	Walker Bros. Merrell
Jordan's Shell Service Dorris, Calif.	Schaefer's Associated Ashland Highway

DR. J. W. LOWE
Chiropractic Physician
Complete Spinal, Knee and Foot Adjustment
111 So. 4th St. Stearns Hotel Bldg.
Office Ph. TU 3-1123. Res. TU 3-0185