

Candlelight For Ivory Brocade Bridal Dress

IVORY SATIN BROCADE was worn by Barbara Jane Custer for her candlelight wedding in Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church, when she became the bride of George Andrew Stevenson on September 15. The Rev. James V. Overdorff, assistant minister at Klamath Falls First Presbyterian Church, officiated at the 2:30 p.m. ceremony.

The wedding, which united two well known Basin families, was a social event of fall, attended by some 200 guests. The justweds are pictured at the reception in the church parlors.

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Custer, 3428 Shasta Way, and George is the son of George Stevenson, Lakeview Highway, and the late Mrs. Stevenson.

The couple honeymooned at the Stevenson-Smith ocean cottage at Harbor on the Oregon Coast; and since September 22, have been at home in Corvallis. (See wedding story.) — Photo by Miller-Williams

Visitors From Bay Area

MRS. FRED SCHALLOCK at the right, and her niece Mrs. Wilford Henry were having breakfast and some conversation in the Winema Coffee Shop last Monday morning when the above picture was taken. Mrs. Schallock is still claimed as a favorite long time resident by many Klamath denizens, although she is now living on the Bay Peninsula with her nephew and niece, the Wilford Henrys. Both are guests at the Winema Hotel while here visiting friends and relatives. — Photo by Kettler

MRS. MELVIN McCOLLUM, recent shower honoree, is pictured center, with her four hostesses at the Klamath Yacht Club. From the left, Mrs. Norman Moty, Mrs. Harold (Bud) Cloake, Mrs. Hugh Swaney and Mrs. Bob Henry.

They invited close friends of Mrs. McCollum's to a 1:30 p.m. dessert at the club, where she was presented with a group gift of sterling flatware. The starter pieces were given to replace the many lost with all of the McCollum household possessions when their Lakeshore Drive home burned last month.

The other picture was taken at the luncheon table. The hostesses are at the left further side of the "U" table. Continuing around the table, (l to r), Mrs. Ellen Rydell, Mrs. Cloake's mother from Springfield; Mrs. Charles W. Thomas, the guest of honor's mother; Mrs. Robert B. (Bob) Chilcote, Mrs. James B. Cronan and Mrs. George Filtcraft. Lower left, Mrs. Lee Stoner, Mrs. J. Martin Adams and Mrs. H. O. Juckeland.

Four-Hostess Shower At Yacht Club For Mrs. Melvin McCollum

Over 40 Friends Fete Mrs. Walter Badorek At Bon Voyage Luncheon At Pelican Cafe
