Couple At Home In Redding After Canadian Honeymoon

WEED — A double-ring wedding service, read September 9 in the Weed Holy Family Catholic Church, united Freida Margaret Neiderhouse, Redding; and Robert Gerald Tadina, Weed, in marriage. The Rev. James Vaughan officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony.

The new bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Neiderhouse, Redding; and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tadina, Weed.

Mrs. James Brunello, soloist, was accompanied by organist, Mrs. Virgil Groppi.

A white aisle cloth led to the altar where the bride was given in marriage by her father. White chrysanthemum arrangements flanked the altar and aisle pews were marked with white satin bows centered with white flowers.

The bride wore a gown of Schiffli-embroidered nylon tulle underscored with satin for her wedding. The chapel length bell skirt featured scalloped tiers of embroidery over tiers of tulle. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a V-neckline and short sleeves. A princess crown of net leaves and orange blossoms held her fingertip illusion veil.

White phalaenopsis orchids centered the cascade bouquet of stephanotis.

Mrs. Mona Smith, Redding; was matron of honor for her twin-sister. Her gown was of eyel-embroidered pink nylon.

The two bridesmaids, Sherral Letsinger, Redding; and Mary Lou Server, Alturas, wore aqua blue. A nosegay of pink sweetheart roses was carried by the little flower girl, Rose Mary Rovito. Her gown was of white nylon over satin. Kenny Piva carried the rings on a heart-shaped white satin lace-trimmed pillow, made by the bride's mother.

James Minoletti, Orland, was best man; and ushers were Robert Quadros and David Borealli. Richard Battistessa, nephew of the bridegroom, and Elmer Pellegrino were altar boys.

The bride's mother wore a beige lace and a corsage of pink carnations; Mrs. Gerald Tadina, mother of the bridegroom, was in rose colored lace and her corsage was also of pink carnations.

Mrs. Apollonia Ferrari, grandmother of the bridegroom, as a special guest, wore a pink carnation corsage with her silk navy print dress.

The reception was in St. Michael's Hall.

For going away, the bride wore a cocoa brown ensemble with matching accessories. After a Canadian honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Redding.

Picnic Honors Allen Conley, USN

EARLY AUTUMN WEDDING VOWS

DUNSMUIR — Wedding vows were exchanged September 15 by Helen Sally Schmid of Mount Shasta; and Roy Alfred Waespi, Castro Valley, in the rustic setting of Dunsnmuir Lutheran Church. The afternoon service was read by the Rev. Martin Schabacker.

The bride's wedding dress was styled with a white lace bodice and tulle skirt over slipper satin. She wore a lace tiara and pearl jewelry. Her bridal bouquet was a purple and throat white orchid surrounded with stephanotis.

Marie Fortney, maid of honor, wore a pink dotted nylon, ballerina length gown and carried pink carnations. Mrs. P. E. Catherine, sister of the bride; and Barbara Waespi, sister of the bridegroom were bridesmaids. Their gowns, styled similarly to that of the maid of honor, were in pastel shades and they carried matching flowers.

John Laurel of Castro Valley was best man. Ernest Collins and Don Graydon served as ushers. Mrs. Schabacker was organist, accompanied by Iva Smith, soloist.

The reception was at Abrams Lake Lodge, where the three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with wedding bells, was served. Marie Schmid, sister-in-law of the bride, registered the guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schmid of Mount Shasta; and Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Waespi of Castro Valley are the bridegroom's parents. The newlyweds will live in Hayward.

Blouses in every fabric appear in the Paris collections. They're shown with suits in chiffon, jersey, velvet and satin.

LITTLE BEAUTY-in-a-bonnet is June Merlene Collins, who has been two since June 29. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harold Collins, Bray, California. Her grandparents are Mrs. Harriet Newman, 4707 Freida; and Mr. and Mrs. N. Collins, Kansas.

Babies are different from one another from the moment they are born. And they grow more different by the day. For this reason, it's futile to urge one child to meet another's standards or keep up with his interests. Even twins can be radically different children.
