McAuliffe-Scott Vows Said In St. Augustine's Church

MALIN—Married September 6, in St. Augustine's Catholic Church in Merrill, were Sharon Frances Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Scott, and Daniel (Danny) McAuliffe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. McAuliffe, all of Malin. The Rev. John Phelan officiated at the 8 a.m. Nuptial Mass attended only by members of the bride and bridegroom's immediate families.

The bride wore a pink print raw silk afternoon dress with a brown jacket and brown accessories. Her headdress was of pink and white flowers.

Attending the nuptial couple were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Shuck, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Shuck wore a blue afternoon dress with matching accessories.

Mrs. Scott chose an avocado print dress with matching avocado coat with brown accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. McAuliffe, wore a navy blue afternoon dress with navy accessories.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony at the bride's home in Malin. Others present besides the newlyweds parents were Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Lyon, Mrs. Lindley Stewart, Alturas; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. John McAuliffe, James Scott, Beverly Scott, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Glen W. Scott, the bride's grandparents.

The bride was graduated from Sacred Heart Academy in Klamath Falls and the bridegroom attended schools in Malin. They are now at home in Alturas.

Wednesday Club

St. Paul's Parish Hall was decorated with colorful leaves and fall flowers for the members and guests of Wednesday Club.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Helen Mueller, Mrs. Phil Schroeder, Mrs. L. Z. Carter and Mrs. Ann Fisher.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Margaret Dingwell, Mrs. Oscar Kiltredge, Mrs. Louie Magallanes and Mrs. George Schroeder.

Prizes for pinocle were awarded to Mrs. Robert Friesen and Mrs. Gordon Sites; for bridge to Mrs. Otto Ellis and Mrs. Jim Wal-linder.

As long as a man is your employer you owe him your loyalty. It is poor manners and poor business for anyone to go around running down the man for whom he works.

If you don't respect your boss, it is time to look for another one.

BPW CLUB

Observance of National Business and Professional Women's Week started in Weed with a kick-off dinner meeting the evening of September 20 at the Savoy Hotel with employers of the local business women members invited as special guests.

"Boss Night" entertainment was a colored photo travelog of Mexico and Guatemala, shown by John Jeffery who, with Mrs. Jeffery, took the pictures on their recent 10,000 mile trailer journey through the southern countries.

Dave Sbarbaro, chamber of commerce president, was introduced by Mrs. Mary Young, club president, and commended the local BPW for their many accomplishments and contributions to the community in the few years of organization and thanked members for their participation in the fourth Weed Italian Carnivale.

Be sure to remove metal hanging or pleated pins before laundering draperies. This prevents rust stains and pricked fingers.

Jet jewelry makes fashion news from Paris. Dior uses from five to seven rows of necklaces. Patou trims suits with it and Abouy uses it for black velvet hats.

Any toy that can be washed with soapsuds is safer for a child to play with than ones that are uncleanable.

Lots of fur hats from Paris in fox, beaver, ocelot, leopard or colored Persian lamb.
