Artificial Kidney May Be Eventual Answer For Blood Poisoning Remedy

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A surgeon today described a simple new artificial kidney which you might swallow to prevent death from blood poisoning.

Once easily swallowed, it would do the work of aiding kidneys to remove fatal poisons from the blood. It is merely a thin, collapsible tube of plastic sausage casing, filled later with a special liquid to make it work like healthy kidneys to purify the blood. It works when it's inside the small intestine.

This artificial kidney has kept dogs alive even when both their kidneys had been removed. It also helped a man dying of a chronic kidney disease that had ruined his kidneys.

This bold approach to a most serious problem was reported at the opening of the American College of Surgeons' annual congress by Dr. Paul R. Schloerb, surgeon of the University of Kansas School of Medicine and Kansas City Veterans Administration hospital.

Dr. Schloerb spoke at sessions devoted to new research ideas to save lives.

Blood poisoning, or uremia, comes when injured or diseased kidneys fail to remove poisons accumulating in the blood. One answer is to tap blood flowing through an artery and send it

"DENNIS THE MENACE"

"DENNIS DID WHAT? WITH HIS KNIFE? ALREADY DEAD? WELL, I'M SORRY HE CUT YOUR FLOWERS, MRS. WILSON, BUT I'M GLAD TO HEAR THEY WERE ALREADY DEAD."

ARGUMENT
 KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—Dink Davis, 68, and his wife, 64, argued over the World Series.

Mrs. Davis told police her husband hit her twice with a chair, bruising her arms. Davis said she hit him with a hammer. Davis went to a hospital for

Letters To Income Tax People Prove That Truth Is Stranger Than Fiction

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 WASHINGTON (UP) — The income tax people get a lot of interesting mail.

Like:
 A man from Texas, where they grow big money, sent in a check for $25 along with a note which read: "This is part of my tax liability. I can't sleep nights worrying about this debt. If I keep on laying awake at night, I will send you the balance I owe."

A man in Georgia listed his total income as $28 from his business. He mentioned supporting a wife and two youngsters. He sent in a money order for exactly $28, which he said he owed. A suspicious agent wrote him back and asked if he made out his own return. "No," the Georgian replied, "one of your boys did."

"I AM GOOD"
 A little girl from California wrote to the head man of the tax department and announced that she was 15 years old but didn't pay any taxes. "So do not punish me for not filing. I will when I get older. Do not worry, I am good." On the back of the envelope she wrote:

"Important, slightly."
 A fellow from Tennessee said that a skunk came to visit him and his wife in a store they had. They had to shut up shop and wanted to know if they could

Coffee Hour Group Named

MALIN—Mrs. Philip G. Blohm has named a committee to assist with a coffee hour on Wednesday to honor Mrs. Douglas McKay. Members are Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Ted DeMerritt, Mrs. Robert Hill, Mrs. Wayne Fisk, Mrs. Marie Kalina and Mrs. Merle Lousley.

Guests are invited from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. on Oct. 10 to the home of Mrs. Mervyn Wilde in Malin to visit with Mrs. McKay. The event is sponsored by the Republican women of the community and all women in the area are invited.

AID

HONG KONG (AP)—Radio Peiping today announced that Red China will give the Himalayan kingdom of Nepal 60 million Indian rupees — about $12,650,000 — in economic aid during the next three years. Nepal now gets a million dollars a year in U.S. aid.

The foreign policy of the little kingdom, which lives between India and Communist-controlled Tibet, previously has been closely aligned with India.
