

THE NUMERAL "3" was conspicuous at the bridal shower given for Juanita C. Ledesma, above, by three hostesses, Mary Ellen McFarlane, Pat Boylen and Kathy McDonald. There were 33 guests invited to the Boylen residence, 3717 Summers Lane; and the date of the party was the first time in 33 years that the bride-elect's entire family had been together in Klamath Falls.

Gifts came from three distant points, north and east in the United States, and Old Mexico in the south. The honoree, who was the-then bride-elect of Jerry Oakes, is a well known dog fancier. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ledesma, Old Midland Road.

If you need glasses, wear them. Don't go around peering at people in a vain effort to recognize them. You won't look pretty and you'll only emphasize the fact that you should be wearing your glasses. With so many glasses to choose from, they're no badge of frumpiness these days. Don't cling to a dress that isn't becoming but is too "good" to throw out. Far better to give it to someone to whom it will be flattering.

DELTA KAPPA GAMMA

Out of town teachers and new instructors in the local schools were guests of Mu chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, at its first function of the year, a luncheon at Van's Saturday, September 22. Hostesses Ruby Groom, Mary Gallagher and Jennie Carroll set the "Alaska" theme with table decorations, talks and movies. Neva Green is chapter president.

Anne Sprague, who spent her 1955 vacation in Alaska, told in "Looking Northward" of the first year anniversary of the three or-

SUMMER LAKE

HOME EC CLUB

Mrs. Zilla Elder was hostess to the Home Ec Club at her home the afternoon of September 26. The twelve members and three guests present answered roll call by giving dates of their wedding anniversaries. Guests were Mrs. Dean Harris of Bend and her cousin, Mrs. Blanche Bolton from Winchester Bay, and Mrs. Mae Leyva from Lakeview.

The members voted to hold a cooked food sale at Silver Lake the opening day of deer season, and Mrs. Boyd Claggett and Mrs. Jim Carlon volunteered to take charge of the sale. A doll, complete with wardrobe, will be sold later as another money raising project. Each member is asked to make one or more garments for the doll.
