CANTON CRATER

Ladies Auxiliary of Canton Crater No. 7 Patriarchs Militant met September 27 in the IOOF Hall, with President Arlo Andrus presiding. Isabell Foster, installing officer, installed Anna Bean as the left aid to the president.

The president announced that the October 11 meeting will be a practice meeting only held in the west hall as the hall will be needed for the visit of Sister Fie Rotgans of Holland who will lecture and show slides of her native country. The meeting will convene at 7 p.m., after which members will join the lecture group there.

Members are reminded that there are only two more meetings before the visit of President Veima Stolz of the association.

BETA SIGMA PHI

Beta Phi of Beta Sigma Phi held its "model meeting" October 2 at the home of Sally Gandy. President Pat Metzger presided over the business meeting, and programs for the coming year were distributed.

A welcome was given by Connie Pierce to the guests, and Pat Metzger, Merilee Alter and Sally Gandy spoke on the history and accomplishments of Beta Sigma Phi. Program for the evening, "Painting the person," was presented by Beverly Nelsen.

Refreshments were served by co-hostess Connie Pierce to members and guests: Jean Walker, Teresa Ganong, Jana Rumlhart, Phyllis Harris, Joan Wilcox, Grace Pfeiffer and Pat Lukes.

REBEKAH LODGE

Rebekah Fraternity Lodge No. 106 held its regular meeting October 1, with Past Noble Grand Esther Fernlund in the chair. Members decided to help the Bonanza B. Springs Park Association with its card party October 27 as its community service project for the month.

Sydney Ketchum, the United Nations delegate, will speak and show slides November 5 at 8 p.m. All other lodges in the district will be invited to attend.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ishmael Dick after the meeting.

WOMENS CLUB

The Bonanza Womens Club met at 2 p.m., October 2 at the library in regular session with Vice President Janet Fernlund in charge. The annual bazaar and food sale will be held at the library Saturday, December 1, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. to raise funds for the library building.

Committees appointed were: food booth, Jeannette Stewart, Florence Horn, Margaret Burnett and Cora Leavitt; aprons, Lillian Becholdt and Alta Dixon; miscellaneous booth, Lizzie Schmor and Velda Haley; doll sales, Virginia Thomas, Noma Becholdt and Lizzie Schmor showed the group how to make toys from wash cloths, and refreshments were served by Betty Steber and Ann Dalton.

HENLEY

JOB'S DAUGHTERS

A special meeting was held Friday, September 21, at Mt. Laki Church by Bethel No. 51, International Order of Job's Daughters, to welcome Thelma Schild, Grand Guardian of the state of Oregon here on an inspection visit.

Honored Queen Virginia Roenke called the business meeting to order at 4 p.m., and Mrs. Schild was introduced and presented with a harvest corsage. Others introduced were Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian of the state of Oregon and past guardian of Bethel No. 6; Cole Brown, past guardian of Bethel No. 51, and Alice Hatchett, grand representative to the state of Missouri. In an impressive ceremony, new members Rosalind Warren and Linnie Thoecke were initiated into the Bethel.

After the business meeting, Rita Carr, Shari Dehlinger, Jane Hengel, Audrey Kiger, Diane Ginter and Vicki Moore sang "School Days," and Shari presented Mrs. Schild with a gold charm to add to her bracelet which has a charm from each Bethel she has visited. Other festivities in Mrs. Schild's honor were a luncheon at the Winema Hotel and a no-hostess dinner at the Pelican Cafe.

chairman, and presented Vicki Moore and Linda Hall in piano solos.

Do you own a FRONT LOADING WASHER?

Maybe you've wondered why your clothes don't wash as clean and white as you'd like. Or maybe you've had the unhappy experience of having excess suds gush out over the floor. You have to be careful about what and how much you use in a front loader. With White King Soap you can be sure—sure of a clean wash and sure that there won't be too much sudsing. Makes your clothes so much softer, too. Try White King Soap in your next wash load, and see the difference.
