

WHAT'S THIS . . . DEER HUNTERS WITH SOME KIND OF NEW FANGLED EQUIPMENT?

EASY MAN!! . . . DON'T TRY TO NAIL HIM JUST YET.
Bill Griffith, Klamath Falls angler, waits patiently and puffs leisurely on his burner while hoping that one of the Klamath River rainbows will take the bait. Griffith and his fishing companions brought in about 15 dandies on their recent fishing trip.

BOB BEACH APPRAISES THE CATCH FROM LONG RANGE while Bill Griffith submits the freshly caught rainbow to a more thorough inspection. The Klamath Falls anglers recently enjoyed a fishing trip down the Klamath and came home with just the right number for good eating. Not only is the Frain ranch site excellent for fishing, it will be a perfect picnic site as long as the weather holds. The location can be reached by traveling out the Green Springs road to the Klamath River Store, turning left, and proceeding a few miles down the Topsy Grade Road.

COMPLAINT
OKLAHOMA CITY — It isn't either illegal to play the song "Oklahoma!" in downtown Oklahoma City. This was settled with the dismissal of a complaint against Philip James Keough. Keough manages a local theater where the movie "Oklahoma!" now is showing, and he has played the title song for the benefit of pedestrians. Traffic Policeman Jack Ryan filed the complaint two weeks ago.

EXPRESS
PROVO, Utah — Officials planned a re-enactment of the old Pony Express last weekend to publicize national "wire-a-letter" week. But the 10-mile mail relay from Provo to nearby Pleasant Grove wound up covering the last leg by automobile. The rider who was supposed to meet the pouch at Lindon failed to show. He had gone hunting.
