Alaska Demos Retain Lead

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Democratic candidates held their leads over Republican opponents in all but a few contests today as returns from Tuesday's territorial election trickled slowly in from the hinterlands.

With most of the big populated areas tabulated and 161 of the 271 precincts reported, the Democrats were ahead in 30 of the 39 races. Some still were close enough they could go Republican but not enough to upset Democratic control of the Legislature and dominance in top territorial elective positions.

The Republicans were strongest in races for the Territorial Senate, apparently capturing five seats and possibly six to the Democrats three. Seven holdover Democrats kept the party in control.

In the House race, Democrats led for 21 seats and the Republicans 3.

Easily reelected was E. L. Bartlett, delegate to Congress, who had piled up a 13,617 to 6,727 lead over Byron Gillam, his Republican opponent.

Alaskans also apparently will be represented by two Democratic U.S. "senators" and one "representative" who will go to Congress to work for statehood. If it is granted during their terms they will take their places in the Senate and House. Ahead and gaining in the six-year Senate race was former Gov. Ernest Gruening.

Mrs. Douglas McKay Urges Women To Get Out Vote

"We have a great privilege," Mrs. Douglas McKay told Republican women at a luncheon at the Winema Hotel Wednesday, "that of going into a voting booth and casting our ballots as our hearts and minds dictate—with our choice known only to ourselves and God."

She urged the women to be personal ambassadors in making sure that all of the registered Republicans vote on November 6.

Mrs. McKay, wife of the Republican candidate for U.S. senator from Oregon, was introduced by Mrs. Ellen Clark, co-chairman with Bob Mest of the Klamath County McKay-for-Senator group. Present at the luncheon were many precinct workers, personal friends of Mrs. McKay and some who announced themselves as newcomers to Republican ranks who had joined to aid in the McKay campaign.

A wife and homemaker for nearly 40 years, Mrs. McKay told the women of their early struggles to make a living and raise their family. She told of her husband's service in both world wars and their final move to Washington when McKay was named a member of President Eisenhower's cabinet.

"When Douglas asked me if he should become a candidate for nomination for U.S. senator, it was one of the hardest decisions I was ever asked to make," Mrs. McKay related "I had a comfortable home and pleasant associations in Washington and we had hoped to return to Oregon after his term and retire to private life.

"Because of his conviction that Oregon needs him in the Senate, I agreed to make the greatest sacrifice I have ever made—that of leaving our pleasant life to help my husband by stepping into a rough and tough political campaign."

She expressed her appreciation to all of their friends, including Mrs. Olive Cornett who, as state chairman of the Women-for-McKay movement, has visited 27 Oregon counties and has traveled more than 10,000 miles to campaign for McKay.

She stressed his three - point program of supporting Eisenhower, working toward a just and lasting peace and his known honesty in reflecting the desires of the people in Oregon so as to truly represent this state.

"He's a good guy—I hope you vote for him," she confided in closing.

Cub Scouts Show Display

A Cub Scout display to indicate that scouting is a "family affair" was one of the highlights of the first meeting of Cub Pack Four held recently. The display was presented by dens two, three and four, with their leaders and assistant leaders being Gladys Melhase, Bessie Guyer, Alice Galloway, Ellen Tinker and Joan Aschenbach.

Val Costanzo and Alice Galloway presented a few highlights of Cub Scouting and how to make it fun.

The following committeemen for the coming year were anounced: Bill Green, institutional representative for Mills-PTA, Treasurer Val Costanzo, Committee Chairman Chest Ashby, Advancement Committeeman Ivan Eccles, and Ideas Chairman Shorty Eastburn.

A graduation certificate into Troop 4 was presented to Kenneth Galloway. Cub awards were presented to Douglas Leach, Warren Gillette, Keith Vannice, Richard Eastburn, Larry Woods, Curt Morris, Charles Galloway, Don Aschenbach, John Tinker, Donnie Lee Spicer, Jack Hatfield, and Kenneth Galloway.

Melissa Stiles Funeral Today

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. today for Mrs. Melissa Isadore Stiles, resident of Klamath Falls since 1902 who died October 8. Dr. E. M. Causey, pastor of the First Baptist Church of which she was a member, officiated at the service in O'Hair's Memorial Chapel.

Final rites and interment were in Linkville Cemetery.

Survivors included her widower, Perly Stiles, Klamath Falls; a son, Carl J. Stiles, Chiloquin; daughters, Mrs. Nora Page, Mrs. Anna Booth, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Eva Spencer, Coos Bay; Mrs. Norma Carlisle, and Mrs. Zelma Pool, Crater Lake National Park and Mrs. Iva Gourley, Ashland; 12 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Skunk Rattles Saloon Patrons

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Customers at Woody Trigg's bar looked up from their drinks and saw a skunk standing in the doorway.

"All you could hear were the ice cubes rattling in the glasses," Trigg said.

The 19 customers left hurriedly while Trigg and waitress Ruby Day, after an odorous chase, finally trapped the skunk in a rest room.

Authorities who carted the little rascal off to the animal shelter explained that it apparently strolled in from a park across the street.

HUBCAPS BRANDED

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Auto hubcaps, like calves, are going to be branded in this part of the wild and woolly West, says the Los Angeles Police Commission. Stamping hubcaps with tiny license numbers would help reduce the $1,000-a-day loss to car strippers, Lt. R. M. Myer, of the auto theft detail, said.
