

Ancient Leaf-Writing Sent To Klamath Soroptimists

A letter of appreciation to the Klamath Falls Soroptimist Club for assistance in visiting the United States and attending school at Spokane has been received by Mrs. Alice Lamm from Mrs. R. Kanthimathi, 29 Kew Street, Chidambaram (South Arcot District), Madras State, India. Mrs. Lamm was president of the club when arrangements were made for "Kanthi," as she is affectionately known to Soroptimists, to come to this country.

She enclosed in her letter a souvenir for the club—an eight and one-half inch strip from a book which had been in her family for many generations.

"I tore this from an ancient book that my family had," Mrs. Kanthimathi wrote. "As it is decaying, you have to air it from time to time.

"Before the use of the present-day paper, the people of ancient India used the palm leaves, iron pointer and a fruit juice ink to write with. This leaf-writing is more than 250 years old, torn from an old book that had been passed on to my family through many generations. The language that is found here is called Grantha, a very ancient language which was greatly influenced by the Sanskrit language.

"This is one of my family treasures," she continued. "I am happy to present this to you as an antique souvenir from the Orient."

Mrs. Kanthimathi has returned to South India to continue her work in the educational field. Her native language, she commented, is called Tamil.

The piece of palm leaf will be presented by the Soroptimist Club to the Klamath County Museum. It was announced at the Thursday luncheon meeting at the Winema that Edna Albrecht has been named regional resolutions chairman by Lorene Burks, governor of the Northwestern region of Soroptimists.

Olive Cornett, legislative chairman, stated that her committee felt it had achieved its goal of 100 per cent registration among members and were now working toward 100 per cent vote being cast on November 6.

Mary Bothwell, program chairman, listed the coming meetings. On Thursday, October 18, Alice Lamm will show her colored slides of her recent trip around the world. Members are asked to make reservations if they are bringing guests. The October 25 meeting will be United Nations Day with Rita DePew in charge. E. A. Geary, Republican candidate for the Oregon State Senate, will speak at the November 1 meeting.

A FRAGMENT torn from a page of a 250-year-old book which has been in the family of Mrs. R. Kanthimathi, Madras State, India, for generations is being offered by the Klamath Falls Soroptimist Club as a Gift to the Klamath County Museum. The characters were inked in fruit juice on palm leaves and the leaves assembled in book form long before writing paper was known in India.
