Lake Pupils Make Dinner

LAKEVIEW—Girls from Home-making III, instructed by Mrs. Mae Holloway, home economics instructor at Lakeview High School prepared and served a dinner for members of the District 7 school board and their wives on Thursday evening, October 11.

Savings in purchasing through timely buying and the use of the food freezer purchased by the school board this year was demonstrated by the fact that cut up, frozen chickens were on hand for the preparation of the dinner. Also included in the buying were birds for a dinner to be served by the girls during the student council regional conference here on Monday and Tuesday of next week when 80 persons will be served.

Some sophomores are included in the class of upperclass girls and they helped with preparation of the fried chicken, minted pears for the salad course, chocolate eclairs filled with almond toffee ice cream and the vegetables for their first dinner for guests.

The dinner table was covered with a yellow cloth (improvised from one of the new tinted sheets) and was centered with autumn leaves and cornucopias overflowing with fall fruits.

Girls helping with the work were Lou Samoles, Kathleen Colohan, Yvonne Murphy, Jean Kaley, May Cartwright, Darlene Watson, Sharon Evans and Donna Odegard.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Warren Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Quisenberry, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Harris, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Shaw.

400 Delegates Expected Here For Church Conclave

An expected 400 delegates from churches of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and the three provinces of Western Canada will begin arriving in Klamath Falls Monday, October 22 for the annual meeting of the Baptist General Convention of Oregon-Washington.

Local Collies Set For Show

Five Klamath Falls collies are expected to enter the one-day specialty bench show, sponsored by the Pacific Northwest Collie Club, Inc., at the four-breed specialty show to be held on Saturday, November 3, at the Armory in Portland.

Kathlyn McDonald, licensed Klamath Falls handler, will handle all five dogs. They will be on exhibition from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on that day, she stated.

A well-known collie breeder, Glen Twiford, from Casa, Wyoming, will be judge, the first time he has officiated at a Pacific Northwest event.

Three of the dogs are 10½ months old. They are Kay-Mac's Rock Around the Clock, owned by Con and Carole Shults; Kay-Mac's Rosie O'Grady, a winner in the recent all-breed show at Boise, owned by Georgia McDonald, and Stormy Day O'Addition, owned by 15-year-old Duane Fitzsimmons.

The other two are Kay-Mac's Country Gentleman, a three-year-old owned by Robert A. McDonald and Mrs. McDonald's own Kay-Mac's Cindy Lou.

The other three breeds in the joint show will be German Shepherd, Dachshund and Chihuahua.

The gathering is a three-fold meeting. The Baptist Brotherhood for men will start sessions in St. Paul's Episcopal Church at 2 p.m. Tuesday, October 23. The Women's Missionary Union, an organization for women and young people, will hold meetings at the First Baptist Church at the same time.

A banquet for each group will be held Tuesday evening. Business sessions of the convention will be held at the First Baptist Church Wednesday and Thursday, October 24-25.

Baptist leaders from across the nation will be present for these meetings. Dr. C. C. Warren, president of the Southern Baptist Convention from Charlotte, North Carolina will be the guest speaker. Dr. R. Alton Reed, secretary of the Baptist Relief Annuity Board, of the Southern Baptist Convention and Mrs. R. L. Mathis, president of the Women's Missionary Union also of the Southern Baptist Convention, Waco, Texas, are to be present.

Dr. John Caylor of Atlanta Georgia, Home Mission Board Editor, will represent the Home Mission Board of the SBC. From the convention office in Portland will be Dr. R. E. Milam, former resident of Klamath Falls and now executive secretary of the convention, together with C. E. Boyle, editor of the Pacific Coast Baptist, Paul McCasland, John T. Sizemore, Rev. and Mrs. R. P. Hood and others will represent the various agencies fostered by the convention.

People of the churches of the Klamath Baptist Association, host to the convention, are receiving many of the delegates in their homes.

Dr. E. M. Causey, pastor of the First Baptist Church announced plans for the sessions. The public is invited to all meetings of the convention.

GET New RICH-HEAT Heating Oil

keeps your home "sunshine warm"

DEVELOPED BY A NEW RICHFIELD PROCESS SO THAT IT...

burns hotter... because Richfield's exclusive new refining method completely removes ingredients that retard combustion—reduce heat. You get a bright, hot flame that keeps your home "sunshine warm."

burns cleaner... because all elements that cause oil to burn dirty are taken out by Richfield's advanced refining process. RICH-HEAT also contains the miracle ingredient Solarite which prevents rust and sludge formation in fuel lines, filter and burner. They stay clean permanently. No soot or smudge on walls, drapes, or furnishings.

burns more economically... because every drop of RICH-HEAT oil is converted into heat—burns readily—evenly—completely. You get maximum heat from every gallon—more heat at less cost. Decide on Richfield RICH-HEAT heating oil now.
