

TCU, Ohio State Suffer Grid Beatings

Sooners, Spartans Nab Wins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The fond hopes that Texas Christian and Ohio State had been nurturing for undefeatable seasons were snatched abruptly Saturday by Texas A and M and Penn State, respectively.

But there was no stopping the top three teams in the country, Oklahoma, Michigan State and Georgia Tech all triumphed without incident.

Apparently the Southwest Conference is going to turn into one of its usual knock-down drag-out battles. Texas Christian, No. 4 in this week's Associated Press poll, was the favorite until Saturday's 7-6 loss to the Aggies.

Now, of course, the Aggies, who have one tie and four victories on their record, move into the favorite's spot. But they're shaky choices at best.

Little Don Watson, who was the main gun in beating the Horned Frogs last year, did it again, setting up his team's only touchdown in the final period, then personally passing for it.

GROUND ATTACK

Ohio State, which was ranked right behind TCU, lost to Penn State by an identical 7-6 score. S. P. Hornor and Bruce Gilmore plunged over from the 1-foot mark for Penn State's only score in the fourth quarter. The Nittany Lions stopped Ohio State's vaunted ground attack and kept possession of the ball most of the way, another Buckeye specialty.

For the top three, the only questions was how much their margins would be. Oklahoma whipped Kansas, 34-12. By Sooner standards, this was close. But they had a 27-6 halftime lead. It was their 34th straight victory, once again breaking their own mark.

Michigan State crushed Notre Dame, 47-14 and Georgia Tech humbled Auburn, 28-7. The Spartans' point-production against Notre Dame was the fastest since the two schools began playing each other back in 1897. Tech's victory over Auburn was strictly for revenge. The Plainsmen upset the Ramblin' Wrecks last year and it cost them the Southeastern Conference championship.

TOP TEAMS

Otherwise, the top teams came through as expected. Tennessee swept past Alabama, 24-0, while Michigan, hoping for the Big 10 title, beat Northwestern, 34-20.

Syracuse and Pitt, the two best in the East, both won. The Orange toppled Army, 7-0, while Pitt turned back Duke, 27-14. The Cadets had been rated one of Syracuse's main stumbling blocks.

Other noteworthy developments: 1. Penn, which had gone a couple of years without a victory until two weeks ago, won another, this time outscoring Brown, 14-7.

2. Rutgers saw its last claim to fame disappear. Boston College shut out the Scarlet, 32-0. It was the first time Rutgers had been whitewashed since 1944.

3. And finally, two losing streaks were broken in one game. How? Well, Kings Point and Wagner played a 7-7 tie. Wagner had lost 12 in a row, and Kings Point eight straight before the deadlock.

The final round of the eliminations for the Oregon state match game championships took place in Medford Saturday. Expected entries from Klamath Falls were Al Hakenwerth, Al Woldt, Marion Grant, Bob Victorin, Dave Robb, Charlie Booth, Don Ferguson, Gino Rosterella and Clayton Sweasy.

Rosterella was winner of the Klamath Falls match game championship held last spring at Lucky Lanes. While a few of the better Southern Oregon bowlers will be competing because of other interests most of Medford and Klamath Falls best will be on hand. The top two men in the eliminations at Medford will compete next weekend in the finals at Portland.

Scoring during the past week showed a definite upsurge. Opal McDonald led the fems with a 563. Other 500's were Ruth Milne, 536, Marge Ruger 645, LaRayne Harris 540, Vira Carson 525, Scotty Bray 521, Millie Sheehy 518, Shirley Eccles 518, Clara Beard 509, Jo Renato 507, Marion Linville 506, Bernice Britt 502.

The six Major Classic teams mated the maples as four teams came up with scores of better than 2700. Cliff Stemler led the scoring in the major with 618. Don Mahoney clouted a 609 in his final appearance before moving back to his home in Oakdale, California. High series of the week and highest so far this season was posted by Al Backes who ran up a big 639 count.

Bob Victorin tallied a 588 for the Merrill Moose Friday evening to boost his season average to 189 and top position in the city. Victorin seems to be throwing a stronger ball this year and could very well go through the season in top spot. LaRayne Harris has found her stride again this season and leads the women with better than 170.

The Lady Bug league will hold their annual Halloween costume night this Thursday at the alleys. For some real good laughs you can't beat this annual affair at Lucky Lanes.

Henley '11' A-2 Winner

Henley High School's Hornets won their first game in District 6-A-2 football competition Friday night at Gem Stadium by blanking Phoenix 13-0.

Jerry Harnsberger went 20 yards off tackle for the first Henley score in the first quarter, then Larry Ferguson rambled 25 yards around end for the second TD in the third period.

Phoenix missed a chance to score in the third period, but couldn't budge the large Henley line. With a first down and goal to go, Phoenix was held on four downs with no touchdown.

ARCARO RATES

ELMONT, N.Y. (AP) — Eddie Arcaro, who has ridden both Nashua and Bold Ruler for trainer Jim Fitzsimmons, rates Bold Ruler a better prospect than Nashua. Of course, Arcaro is rating Bold Ruler on his early season form as a 2-year-old. Nashua is now four.

TOKYO (AP) — Catcher Roy Campanella hit two homers — one with the bases filled — good for six runs and Clem Labine pitched four-hit ball Saturday to give Brooklyn's visiting Dodgers a 7-1 triumph over Japan's Central League Allstars.

The victory made it one win and one loss for the Dodgers on their Japan tour. They dropped their opening game to the Tokyo Giants 5-4 Friday.

"They figured without Ted Jones," says Willard Rhodes, Thrifty's owner. "Ted was watching her run and making scratches on a bank of paper. By the time the heat ended he had the aluminum cut and ready to make repairs. He only had to shave off about a sixteenth of an inch from one piece to make it fit."

Uclans Sweep Over Cal

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Little Doug Bradley, playing his final game for UCLA, passed for two touchdowns and set up a third Saturday as the Bruins whipped the California Bears, 34-20.

A crowd of 49,000 in California's Memorial Stadium also saw the Bruins twice intercept Bear passes and return them for touchdowns. A third interception paved the way for a third score.

UCLA shocked California with two touchdowns in the first four minutes and the Bears never were able to recover, although at one time they drew into a 14-14 tie.

Bruin halfback Louis Elias opened the fireworks by intercepting a pass from quarterback Joe Contestabile at the Bear 32. Bradley, a 170-pound fullback playing his final game because of the five-game PCC penalty decision in the summer subsidy cases, threw to end Pete O'Garro for 23. On the fourth play of the short drive, fullback Barry Billington plunked over.

Two minutes later Contestabile gambled on a fourth and two situation at his 43, but his pass fell incomplete. Bradley immediately shot a pass to O'Garro behind the secondary and the 6 foot 3 end went all the way.

42-YARD PASS

A 42-yard pass from Bradley to sophomore Dick Wallen gave the Bruins their final touchdown. Before that, Wallen intercepted a Contestabile pass and returned it 42 yards to score. O'Garro grabbed one from Cal's Joe Kapp and went 22 into the end zone. So UCLA's five touchdowns came without one long drive.

California collected its first touchdown the hard way. Trailing 14-0, the Bears' Kapp engineered a 78-yard scoring drive. He threw the final 27 to end Norm Becker for the six points.

The Bears tied the game after UCLA's Don Long fumbled and Don Gilkey recovered at the Bruin 27. Seven plays later Jack Hart went over from a yard out. Then came interceptions by Wallen and O'Garro that put the Bruins out of reach.

California closed the count to plays after a faulty Bruin kick. Fullback Jerry Drew, playing the first of his five allotted games, tallied from two yards out.

UCLA scoring — Touchdowns: Billington (1), plunger; O'Garro 2 (43, pass-run from Bradley, 22, return pass interception); Wallen 2 (42, return pass interception; 42, pass-run from Bradley). Conversions: Bradley 3; Duncan.

California scoring—Touchdowns: Becker 27, pass-run from Kapp; Hart (1, plunger); Drew (1, plunger). Conversions: Oliva, Roberts.

KUHS Frosh Top Medford

By BOBBY THOMPSON

The KUHS freshmen stayed undefeated in their 1956 grid season by defeating McLaughlin of Medford 14-7 on Modoc Field Friday.

McLaughlin, previously unbeaten and unscored on in four games, was hurt when they fumbled on their own 14 yard line early in the game. On the next play, "Mr. Outside" Smiles Herrera ran his total points to 63 on a 14-yard TD run. McLaughlin came right back with Skip Bennett going over from seven yards out.

After Herrera scored his second TD from two yards out, Hawkins converted for the second straight time, split the uprights.

The Frosh running attack looked good with the line opening big holes in McLaughlin's line play. Good running by Ron Olvera, Herrera and Keith Larson did the trick.

Fraley's Facts, Figures

NEW YORK (UP) — Warning up the "hot stove" —

Jack Tighe, Detroit's new manager who insisted "we're in the market for deals" upon taking over the job, will prove it within the next few days when he obtains a second baseman. Second base has been the Tigers' No. 1 trouble spot ever since Charlie Gehringer hung up his spikes.

Baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., already has put in a request for the ball Don Larsen used in striking out Dale Mitchell for the final out in his perfect game masterpiece. Larsen has seen movies of the game three times now and each time he did, he says, "I got more and more nervous."

The Kansas City Athletics have made a bid for both Al Rosen and Mike Garcia but so far the Cleveland Indians have said no. The Tigers also have sounded out the Tribe as to whether Vic Wertz can be had.

Redmond Bows To Lakeview

LAKEVIEW — The Lakeview High School Honkers coached by Howard Hooper rolled to its sixth straight victory over the 1956 football season here Friday night as they polished off the visiting Redmond gridders in a 41-27 scoring dual.

Not only did it mark the sixth straight for Hooper's chargers, but for Lakeview fans, it was the third time this year that their Honkers have knocked off A-1 prep foes. Lakeview is still ranked as an A-2 club.

This time, it was quarterback Bob Lamb who took over the scoring spotlight for the victorious Honkers. The Lakeview signal-caller scored four of the six Honker TDs and directed the club's offensive drives throughout most of the game.

In the first quarter, Lamb scored on the end of an 80-yard downfield march from 13 yards out. Then a few minutes later, Lakeview marked up touchdown number two of the evening as Jim Stewart plunged over guard from the one-yard line. Charlie Drinkwater converted both times for Lakeview to give the Honkers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first period.

The high-flying Lake County footballers boomed their way into a one-side lead during the second quarter's play as they scored three times to take a 34-13 halftime margin.

Clyde Creel scored on a 32-yard run on a reverse, then Lamb punched the Redmond end zone twice on an eight-yard ramble through center, and on a 22-yard pass from Marvin Tyler. Drinkwater converted twice to add points to the Lakeview account.

In the third period, Lakeview added its final TD of the night as Lamb went over from the one-yard stripe after the Honker grid machine had marched 60 yards. Drinkwater kicked the extra point and Lakeview led 41-20 as the fourth and final quarter opened.

Redmond's scoring was shared by fullback Howard Shults and end John Reid. Both of the Redmond boys accounted for two touchdowns. Shults also added three extra points.

Next week, Lakeview will take to the road as the Honkers travel to Alturas for a non-league battle with the Modoc Union High School Braves in a Saturday afternoon gridiron tussel.

Coach Loses Pipes; UW Gets 1st Honors

Associated Press Sports Writer SEATTLE (AP) — Lucky, lucky, lucky are the Cougars of Washington State—Coach Jim Sutherland's kids' busted up his bagpipes before he reached the campus.

Golfer Porky Oliver is a bagpipe enthusiast, otherwise perfectly normal. . . Seattle golf writer Bill Steedman says bagpipes are one of the reasons he left Scotland.

The biggest skinning job in the county is under way at the Seattle Country Club, which is returning its entire layout. But play is continuing; half of each fairway is left in grass while the other half is being refurbished.

First player to land national Lineman of the Week honors last year was Jim Houston, Washington end; leadoff man this year was Dick Day, Washington tackle.

Washougal High School has the state's beef trust, a line averaging 218 pounds, backfield 202 and 20 players on the squad weighing 200 or more.

Washington athletes are helping the new Air Force Academy get off the ground in sports. Bob Beckel of Walla Walla is the scoring ace of its basketball team and Eddie Rosane of Pasco is the grid squad's first string quarterback.

When Miss Thriftway was running crippled in the Gold Cup race at Detroit the officials began talking about barring her from later heats as unsafe.

"They figured without Ted Jones," says Willard Rhodes, Thrifty's owner. "Ted was watching her run and making scratches on a bank of paper. By the time the heat ended he had the aluminum cut and ready to make repairs. He only had to shave off about a sixteenth of an inch from one piece to make it fit."

Beavers Bounce Cougars

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — Oregon State recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff Saturday and went on to roll over Washington State 21-0 behind halfback Earnel Durden, a sophomore sprinter from Los Angeles.

Durden scored two touchdowns and set up the third with a 30-yard fourth quarter run on a fake punt to keep the Beavers in the race for the Rose Bowl with the remaining West Coast eligibles.

Washington State, the nation's No. 1 passing team last week, threatened only twice on long marches and the aerial game didn't click consistently.

The Cougars were in a hole from the start when Jim Frankson fumbled the opening kickoff and Ed Rogers recovered for the Beavers on the WSC 25.

OSC was stopped on the first thrust but was back in a minute with a 37-yard scoring drive. Durden going over from the five and John Clarke converting.

DECADE MILESTONE

It was the first Oregon State victory here in 10 years and there was no doubt from the start that the Beavers would get it and spoil the day for the 14,500 homecoming fans.

The Cougars lost their big chance in the second quarter after Don Ellingsen intercepted an OSC pass on the WSC 11. The Cougars nudged 84 yards to the five where Bob Newman's fourth down pass went wide.

Durden raced 27 yards on a reverse right past the Cougar defenders for a third quarter score that made it 14-0 and was the quarter fakery that led to a touchdown.

Sam Francis was back to punt on fourth down on his own 49 but the ball was snapped to Durden and his 30 yard run paved the way for Nub Beamer's four-yard touchdown plunge.

Jim Frankson fumbled and lost the ball in the end zone in the fourth quarter after the Cougars went 73 yards behind quarterback Buneny Aldrich in their last offensive march.

The Beavers, who now have a 3-2 record, used 32 of the 34 men they brought along and didn't have to call on big John Witte, the All Coast tackle who has a rib injury left over from the California game.

Newman completed 11 passes of 21 for 141 yards and Burey Aldrich, the other Cougar quarterback, connected on five of nine for 69.

Young Ellingsen, whose father, Carl Ellingsen, was in the stands as one of seven honored members of WSC's 1931 Rose Bowl team, started the Cougars big drive in the first half with a fancy interception.

The Cougars used only three passes in the 15 plays needed to go the 84 yards but the throws gained 4 of them. Ed Stevens, a graduate of eight-man high school football at Lind, Wash., went 16 in the longest run of the march. Newman's fourth down pass to Ellingsen was too wide and the 156-pound Spokane end couldn't get it despite a dive.

From then on, the Beavers never seemed too concerned. In the second quarter, they ran on fourth down from their own 30 with a yard to go. It worked out well. Beamer getting six.

Don Gest fumbled a pass from Newman in the third quarter and the Beavers recovered on their own 42. Durden quickly ran 20 yards, rested for two plays and then turned on the speed for 27 to score standing up and put OSC safely in front.

The Oregon Staters not only outgamed the Cougars on the field but they had 11 cheerleaders in action to only eight for WSC.

Alturas Raps KU Jayvees

Alturas' Modoc High football team struck early in the first quarter for two touchdowns, and added a third quarter TD to register a 21-0 triumph over Klamath Union High's Junior Varsity squad in a Saturday afternoon contest on Modoc Field.

Lacking depth, Coach Ed Carver's Braves capitalized on speed from their halfbacks, and the ball-passing of quarterback Jerry Smith to carve out their win.

An 18-yard Smith pass to end Bob Cron with 9:22 remaining in the first period chased over Alturas' first six points. Guy Fender raced 12 yards around right end for the other first quarter score. Louis Barlese added the extra points from placement.

In the third frame Smith again hit Cron with a 22-yard aerial for the Braves' final scoring effort. Again Barlese's boot for the extra point was good.

The KUHS' Jayvees recorded their lone score in the fourth quarter with Bill Shreeve crunching over from eight yards out on second down. An earlier JV threat was halted by the Modoc line on the two yard stripe.

Alturas racked up eight first downs to the KU crew's six.

Merrill Rips Trojans, 32-6

Merrill's Huskies spanked a game, but outclassed Sacred Heart Academy football team Friday afternoon on the Merrill turf, 32-6, before an enthusiastic crowd who witnessed the contest as a part of the 20th Annual Klamath Basin Potato Festival agenda.

Coach Al Keck's crew rolled up 13 first downs to the Trojans' eight, and scored in every quarter of the fracas.

Perry Laney and Tom O'Neill each registered two touchdowns for Merrill, and John Hunnicutt tallied a solo six points to account for Merrill's bulge. O'Neill was the Huskies' big siege gun with TD passes to Hunnicutt and Laney. A Michaelis pass resulted in Sacred Heart's lone score.

The win was Merrill's third against no losses in league play. The Huskies tangle with Malin this weekend.

Beavers Bounce Cougars

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — Oregon State recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff Saturday and went on to roll over Washington State 21-0 behind halfback Earnel Durden, a sophomore sprinter from Los Angeles.

TIME OUT

"Well c'mon, Ref! Who did recover the ball?"

Stanford Subdues Webfoots

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Stanford vaulted its second Pacific Conference obstacle Saturday on the right arm of John Brodie, the nation's leading collegiate yardage producer who passed Oregon to submission 21-7.

Oregon, which had the conference's best pass defense record prior to running against Brodie, could not cope with the deft tosses of the Stanford senior. He threw one touchdown pass to his favorite target, halfback Paul Camera, and all told completed 11 of 21 tries.

It was 21-0 by the end of the third quarter, and Brodie retired then along with the other Stanford regulars. Oregon managed a last-minute score against the reserves. The first Stanford score stemmed from a chronic Oregon failing this season—fumbling. It gave Stanford the ball deep in Oregon territory early in the game.

LINE STOPPED

Oregon stopped the first Stanford drive on the 5-yard line, but moments later Brodie and his teammates came storming back 33 yards and fullback Lou Valli plunged the final two yards for the touchdown.

A 90-yard drive, starting late in the first quarter, provided the second touchdown. Brodie contributed five passes in the march and climaxed it with a 20-yard toss to Camera for a 14-0 halftime margin.

Brodie wound up the stint of the regulars by conducting a 73-yard drive in the third period, completing two key passes in the march. Valli scored the touchdown, plunging over from a yard out.

A 43-yard pass from quarterback Roger Daniels to halfback Charlie Tourville late in the game out Oregon in position to get its score.

TAYLOR INTERCEPTS

The Stanford reserves seemed to have the threat stopped when quarterback Jack Taylor intercepted another Oregon pass on the 13 with time running out, but a fumble on the next play gave Oregon the ball on the Stanford 22.

Daniels did not miss his opportunity. He spotted Tourville in the end zone and threw underflying.

The threat that rain and a slippery ball might stop Brodie failed to develop. Heavy rains, which fell earlier in the week, continued just to the north of Eugene Saturday but not a drop fell here. The footing was firm and the ball dry.

Stanford, victor over Washington State earlier, now goes against Southern California, a powerful team but one ineligible for the Rose Bowl.

Brodie, who had compiled 748 yards in four previous games, added 128 today, with 91 of the yards coming from passing, somewhat below his usual output but enough to riddle the Oregon defense.

VALLI STARS

Valli had a big day for Stanford, carrying the ball 7 times for 106 yards, an average of 6.2 per try.

Oregon, which had fumbled 19 times and lost 11 of them in four previous games, fumbled three times more today, losing the ball that way twice. Coach Len Casanova, trying to stop the fumbling, used his usual quarterbacks, the unrelated Tom and Jack Crabtree, and finally put in Daniels. He did not fumble and provided the last-minute passing that produced the touchdown.
