

Honeymooning In Mexico

IN A DELICATELY ETCHED CHANTILLY LACE over satin gown with frothy tulle and lace ruffles cascading into a sweeping chapel train, Susan Patricia (Sue) Vandenberg, daughter of Judge and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, 237 Washington, became the bride of Philip Lynch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Con Lynch, Lakeview, on October 6.

The couple exchanged marriage vows in a Nuptial Mass celebrated at 10 a.m. in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, the Right Rev. Monsignor T. P. Casey, officiant. The wedding united two well-known Oregon families, and over 500 friends and relatives were present at the ceremony. The couple is honeymooning in Mexico, and will be at home in Plush, Oregon, after November 15. (See story on inside page.) — Photo by Guderian

Local Man Weds Salem Girl

THEIR WEDDING IN SALEM is of interest to Klamath Falls friends of the bridegroom, Ronald Leander Kinmark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald G. Kinmark, 834 California Avenue. The bride is the former Dixie Ann Avriette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Avriette, Salem. Dr. Brooks H. Moore officiated at the 4 p.m. ceremony in First Methodist Church. (Story on inside page.) — Photo by Kennell-Ellis, Salem

S
O
C
I
E
T
Y

by Milly Ramsby

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Underwood Honored by Daughter on Golden Wedding Anniversary

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY reception was also a reunion of many long time residents whose friendships date from early days in Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. (Major) Underwood were married in Klamath Falls on October 3, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Chamberlain. The officiating Baptist minister was Klamath County Judge John B. Griffith.

The bridegroom opened Underwood's Drug Store in 1906 and Underwood's is still on Main Street, as the assumed name for the camera shop operated by co-owners Eugene Baillie and Erik Carlson. When Major Underwood sold the drug store to Walgreen Company, he retained the name Underwood with the picture developing and printing business later sold to Baillie and Carlson. Pictured with the anniversary couple is Bert Hall, well-known long time resident and close friend of the Underwood's for many years.

CUTTING THE CAKE at the reception given for them in the Pelican Party Room by their daughter Jean Underwood, on October 7, are Mr. and Mrs. Underwood, 320 North Seventh Street. Known to their friends as "Major" and "Nish" they have been a prominent Klamath Falls couple since their marriage here 50 years ago.

AT THE TABLE, Pati O'Connor pouring at the left; and Mrs. Harold M. (Goldie) Brown, at the right. Standing, left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett VanRiper, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimes, Mrs. S. F. Scott, Mrs. T. D. Case, and Mrs. G. D. Grizzle. A host of friends called to offer congratulations during the reception hours from 3 to 6 p.m. (See inside page for further details.) — All Underwood Reception Photos by Otto Ellis

THE FAMILY GROUP PICTURE was taken just before guests arrived at the reception so beautifully arranged by Jean Underwood for her parents. The date, October 7, a few days later than their anniversary on October 3, was set to coincide with son George's Navy leave. Seated from the left, Mrs. George Underwood, holding daughter, Candice; Major Underwood's niece, Corinne (Mrs. Charles) Grout, Olympia; hostess Jean and the honored couple. Standing, same order, Charles Grout and the Grouts' son, David.

Herald and News
Klamath Falls, Oregon
October 21, 1956