

IT'S ONLY A FEW DAYS until October 26, the date of the fun costume party staged annually by Reamos Womens Auxiliary, but the gals have thousands of past years to draw from for costume ideas. The Friday afternoon gathering should produce some interesting characters. It is a "Come as You Were" party—a la Bridget Murphy.

Each member is asked to bring a wrapped "white elephant" mystery package for the grab-bag exchange. The social hour is slated for 12 noon; luncheon at 1:30. Prizes will be awarded for the most gruesome, prettiest, best group and most original of the costumes.

Committee members are shown above in the Pelican Cafe during a luncheon meeting to discuss final arrangements for the party. Kinmark-Avriette Vows In Salem Church Rites

First Methodist Church in Salem was the setting for the wedding of Dixie Ann Avriette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Avriette, Salem, to a Klamath Falls man, Ronald Leander Kinmark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald G. Kinmark, 834 California Avenue.

Dr. Brooks H. Moore officiated at the 4 p.m. ceremony on September 30. Mrs. David Rhoten was the vocalist and organist was Prof. Josef Schuelker.

The bride's Empire gown of white crystal silk over tulle was made by her mother. Appliqued Chantilly lace bordered the wide bertha collar and the train. The train extended from the shoulders to a court length fan of lace and silk. A lace, pearl and sequin trimmed cap of crystal silk held her fingertip veil, and she carried a cascade of white begonias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Donald Brown was matron of honor for her sister. She wore an Alice blue street length Empire styled dress with a floating back panel. The bridesmaids, Patricia Halseh, Mrs. Gerald Plunkett, Mrs. Robert J. Walker, Mary Jo Brown and junior attendant, Eugenia Avriette, sister of the bride, all wore periwinkle blue frocks similar in style to the honor attendant's. Their matching hats were trimmed with velvet bows and brief face veils; and each carried a cascade of pink begonias.

Another sister of the bride, Rebecca Avriette, was flower girl; and Dixie Ann's nephew, James Donald Brown, was ring bearer.

Dan Whitesall poured. The cake was cut by Mrs. Selma Laidlaw and Mrs. Oscar Olson. Assisting were Mrs. Charles Eby, Mrs. Darr Mennis, Mrs. Wallace Park, Mrs. Gilbert Fish, Mrs. Warrn Bryan, Sandra Olson and Marlene Mennis. For the wedding trip to California the new Mrs. Kinmark wore a beige Italian silk suit with a beige hat and black patent accessories. After the brief honeymoon, Kinmark reported for duty at Fort Ord where he has been stationed with the Army; and he is now awaiting orders to report to Fort Bliss, Texas. The newlyweds hope to be able to live in their own quarters near the fort. Attending the wedding from Klamath Falls were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fish and Mr. and Mrs. Warrn Bryan.
