

AN EARLY SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPER at the Victor E. O'Neills' was a perfect prologue to the arduous social and business sessions facing members of the Oregon State Board of Education here for an official meeting. Dinner was at 5:30 so the hostess, Lucile O'Neill, and her fellow board members would have plenty of time to get up to OTI for the Sunday night reception at 8. Klamath cuisine included roast ham of venison, wild plum preserves and venison mince meat pie.

LADIES AUXILIARY

The Ladies Auxiliary of Canton

Crater No. 7 Patriarch Millant held a brief meeting October 11 in the west hall of the IOOF building. President Arloa Andrus called the meeting to order and asked for some decisions on a meeting for the association president when she will be here. Vice president Iona May Wells reported on the rummage sale held September 28. After adjournment, members joined the Rebekahs in the regular hall to hear Sister Fie Rotgans and view pictures of her native country, The Netherlands. Sister Fie Rotgans was brought to Oregon by the Rebekah Assembly of the meeting by a committee of Oregon and her lectures, open to Rebekahs.

LAKEVIEW

DAUGHTERS OF NILE

The Lake County Club of the Daughters of the Nile was host Wednesday evening, October 10, to Leona G. Bryant of Coquille, queen of the Zuleima Temple, who made her official annual visit here. Other officials attending were Minnie Bullock of Grants Pass, princess royal; Lucille Rice of Medford, princess Tizrah; Eva Cook of Medford, princess recorder; Connie Davis, princess marshal and Katherine Stonicypher, Tulelake, a member of the Klamath Falls club. Dinner was served at Vans in an attractive autumn setting. Arrangements were made by Beverly Clause. Three vocal solos were given by Mrs. Eugene Anderson, Faye Maxwell, president of the Lakeview group, guided the meeting.

FRESHMAN GIRLS

Freshman girls of the home economics class of Lakeview High School, overcame an initial shyness in greeting their guests at a planned coffee hour for their parents on October 12. The cookie recipes had been furnished by the girls, purchases of supplies made and the actual mixing of ingredients and baking were done in the home economics department kitchen under the direc-
