

CHILQUIN

RAINBOW GIRLS
Charlynn O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn O'Neill of Modoc Point, was chosen the first worthy adviser of the newly formed assembly of Rainbow Girls organized under the sponsorship of Cascade Crest chapter OES. Mrs. Gail Ridenour of Modoc Point is serving as mother adviser. Public installation ceremonies were held at the Chilquinn Masonic Hall in September.

Assembly in the installation were the following Oregon grand officers: grand worthy adviser, Mary Heister, and grand drill leader, Carolyn Frey, both of The Dalles; grand musician, Connie Rosing of Portland; grand chaplain, Judy Hein of Astoria, and grand recorder, Myra Myers of Marion. They were introduced by Mrs. Verna M. Gray, supreme inspector.

Cascade Crest members participating were Mrs. Bob Mathis, who gave the greeting; Mrs. John Manning, soprano soloist; Mrs. Athel B. Rorer, accompanist. The Ma-lin and Klamath assemblies of Rainbow Girls and the Lost River chapter Order of DeMolay took part. Presentations were made by many lodges and assemblies in the surrounding area.

A benediction was given by the Rev. David Schneider, after which refreshments were served to the capacity crowd attending.

Chapter members are Charlynn O'Neill, worthy adviser; Peggy Du-Bois, worthy assistant adviser; Gail Manning, clarity; Judith Jenkins, hope; Janet Clark, faith; Sandra Haas, recorder; Carol Barnes, chaplain; Louise Neihaus, drill leader; Ruth Ann Adams, love; Janet Wilson, religion; Helen Hescok, nature; Louise Heglund, immortality; Claudia Heglund, fidelity; Barbara Adams, patriotism; Meta Collins, service; Diane Kircher, conference observer; Betty Winkle, outer observer; Sharon Wilder, musician; Joan Botens, choir director; Della Erickson, treasurer, and Judy Adams, Mary O'Neill, Linda Oates, Judy McCauley and Donna Robinson, choir.

Mrs. Lawrence Myers is assistant mother adviser and chairman of the advisory board. Other members are Mrs. Bob Mathis, Mrs. John Manning, Mrs. Glenn O'Neill, Mrs. Joseph Adams, Mel Fitzpatrick, the Rev. Harley Zeller, Gus Page, Dwight Kircher and Mrs. William Zumbur.

RELIEF SOCIETY

The monthly planning meeting of the Lakeview Ward Relief Society for all officers and teachers was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Stephens the evening of October 15. Final arrangements were made for the annual dinner and bazaar to be held at the Latter Day Saints Church the evening of October 26 when a turkey dinner will be served between the hours of 6 to 8 p.m.

Following the meeting Mrs. Stephens served refreshments to Mrs. Elmer Williams, Mrs. Claude Noble, Mrs. Merle O'Neill, Mrs. Robert Fossum, Mrs. Ralph Williams, Mrs. Orville Stein and Mrs. Frayne Williams. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Merle O'Neill November 12.

NOTICE

The deadline for Wednesday Society is Monday at 4 p.m. The deadline for Sunday publication is Tuesday at 4 p.m.

Complete, legible and preferably typed copy will receive first consideration in the order received at the Society Desk.

Every effort is made to print all acceptable copy as scheduled, but it is impossible to guarantee a specific time or date.

In other words, priority will be given copy which needs the least editing and which reaches the Society desk on the earliest date before scheduled publication.

DUNSMUIR

MISSIONARY LEAGUE

Officers of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League of the First Lutheran Church in Dunsmuir elected at the October meeting for the coming year are Mrs. Marvin Cartwright, president; Mrs. L. L. Loney, vice president; Mrs. John Knack, treasurer, and Mrs. Robert Reid, secretary.

Three films were shown on church work and the recent Lutheran convention at St. Paul, Minnesota. After a report by the Rev. Martin Schabacker on the Tahoe Chapel project, a monthly donation of $5 was voted for the Tahoe pulp fund.

Mrs. Robert Reid presided at the meeting held at the home of Mrs. Martin Schabacker. Mrs. George Taylor will be hostess at the November meeting.

WOMEN'S CLUB

Possible community projects were discussed at the luncheon meeting of the Dunsmuir Women's Club at the Hotel Dunsmuir last week, their first meeting after a summer recess. Mrs. Cy Dabovich presided. A decision on projects will be made at the November meeting.

Members took materials for embroidery and other craft work to be sent to DeWitt State Hospital for Women.

PROSPERITY REBEKAH

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge No. 104 met in the IOOF Hall October 18 at 8 p.m. with Irene Rickman, noble grand, officiating. The degree staff, under the leadership of Bernice McCracken and Vera Fritsch, initiated candidates Mary Wells, Olive Hanna, Barbara Metz and Christine Thompson as new members. Florence Briggs was also honored as a new member by affiliation.

The first nomination of officers for the coming year was made, and the next meeting on November 1 will conclude nominations. A social hour with refreshments was held in the dining room decorated with fall flowers and gold paper links of fraternity. The refreshment committee was Vera Linkenbach, chairman, and Helen McCracken with May Plunney, Helen Mick and Lorene McCollum assisting.
