

Tillamook Man New Grassman

PORTLAND — Oregon's "Grassman of the Year" is Hans Leuthold of Tillamook County. Leuthold, who has a herd of 100 registered Guernsey dairy cattle, won the annual Portland Chamber of Commerce contest for pasture management in which he employed improved varieties of legumes and grasses. He won $300 in the state contest and now will compete with Washington and Idaho winners for the Northwest title and a $750 award.

MILLS PTA
By Dorothy Woods

Mills School PTA will sponsor a fun frolic at the school, Halloween night. Festivities will start with a spaghetti dinner including salad, bread sticks and coffee for 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Seventh grade teachers, Miss Doherty and Mr. Glatzer and room mothers, Mrs. Shaver, Mrs. Rhode, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Albert will work with the tea chairman, Mrs. Lola Spicher and a group of seventh grade Girl Scouts who will serve as waitresses. Mrs. Spicher will also present a group of talented children in a floor show during the dinner hour in the cafeteria. Dinner will be served from 6 to 7:30.

At 7:30 a magic show by Robert Emerick, of interest to adults and children will be on the program. Special prizes will be given away. The carnival concessions will open at 8 o'clock. These will include a merry-go-round, fish pond, plant bar, hit the pumpkins game, candy booth, pitch game, magazine booth, soft drink bar, games, cake walk and other booths and games.

Mrs. Ray Dunn, first vice president has supervised the committees. The program is planned for good, interesting fun for all ages. All parents of students and the public are invited.

The second meeting of the Mills School PTA for this school year was held October 10 with the president, Mrs. John Putnam in the chair. A poem was read by Mr. Geil, member of the faculty followed by the flag salute led by Brownie Troop 25. The glee club sang three numbers.

Hospitality chairman, Mrs. Donna Rainwater presented name plates to chairmen and co-chairmen.

Mrs. Gerry Beene, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting. Mrs. Vi Matlik and Mrs. Catherine Burnett were appointed to check on the by laws.

Program Chairman Mrs. Barbara Stapleton introduced Mrs. Dove Bungee, visitor to the Holy Land who showed slides accompanied by comments.

Special prizes were won by Mrs. Shoemaker and Mr. Russell. Room
