

Merrill To Vote On City Offices

MERRILL — Nearly all of the city offices in Merrill are to be filled at the November 6 election which will be held in the Merrill Community Hall.

Paul D. Lewis and Orville Eifert have filed for the office of mayor, a two-year term. Incumbent Bob Walker is not a candidate to succeed himself.

George Williams is unopposed for the post of police judge.

Three candidates have filed for the two-year positions on the city council. They are Claude Blohn, Lawrence Geraghty and Robert Trotman.

Unopposed councilman candidate for four-year terms are James Kirby and Ben Murphy.

Scouts Schedule Halloween Party

FORT KLAMATH — There will be a Halloween party after the monthly pack business meeting of Fort Klamath Cub Scouts Friday evening, October 26, at 7 o'clock in the C. L. Clubhouse. Children are asked to attend the meeting masked and in costume, and there will be games and refreshments.

Eight Cub Scouts, accompanied by Cubmaster Lefty Wild Eagle Wilder, den mother Mrs. Blaine Brattain and institutional representative Claude Shepherd, the evening of October 17 presented ceremonial and war dances in Klamath Falls at the mutual improvement program of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. They joined in the round social dance which followed.

Cubmaster Wilder and his scout dancers are scheduled to be on the OTI program Saturday.

BASIN BRIEFS
