Pedersen-Donnelly Nuptial Vows Said In Catholic Rites

Sacred Heart Catholic Church was the setting for the September 29 wedding of Barrie Gail Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barry H. Donnelly, 435 Jefferson Street, to Frank M. Pedersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Pedersen, 407 Donald Street. The Rev. Alfred J. Fisher officiated at the 10 a.m. Nuptial Mass in the presence of some 60 guests.

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her father, wore a gown of white nylon lace over tulle. The semi-fitted bodice was scoop-necked and the long lace sleeves were pointed at the wrists. The full skirt billowed to a floor length hemline.

Her brief above-the-shoulder length veil flared from a bandeau of delicate seed-pearl encrusted loops. Her bouquet was a white orchid with stephanotis florets knotted on white satin streamers.

The something old that Barrie wore was her great-aunt's (Mrs. Herman Kilian) mother's lapel watch, 50 plus years old. Borrowed was a lace handkerchief from her cousin Mrs. Lawrence Thielke; and the something blue was a tiny cross set with blue stones — a graduation gift from sister Mary Cecil when Barrie got her high school diploma from Sacred Heart Academy.

Maid of honor and only attendant was Susan Vandenberg, who has since become Mrs. Philip Lynch. She wore a gray and gold street length dress and a floral bandeau of feathered chrysanthemums with a single tiny pink rosebud on the side. She carried a three-chrysanthemum tapered arrangement graduating from large at the top to medium in the center and small at the bottom. The mums were carried by a loop fastened to the large mum.

Paul Williams served as best man, and ushers were James Thielke, the bride's cousin from Boise; and Stanley DePuy.

Organist for the wedding was Mrs. D. C. Heffley.

Mrs. Donnelly wore a light blue-gray crepe afternoon dress with black accessories, and a lavender orchid. The senior Mrs. Pedersen wore a cocktail length dress of mauve lace with black accessories and accented with a lavender orchid.

Church decorations included two bouquets of white mums on the main altar; with two on each inside railing in front of floor candleabra.

Barrie, a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy, is presently employed in the dental offices of Dr. Fredrick Krauel. Frank is a graduate of KUHS. He attended University of Oregon and is now with the local Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Special guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frieda McDevitt, San Francisco; her great-uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kilian, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Thielke and James, cousins, from Boise; and Mrs. Jesse Hughes, Sacramento.

An informal buffet luncheon was served at the reception. Mrs. McDevitt assisted about the rooms, and Mrs. Thielke cut the wedding cake.

Prior to the wedding, social events for the bride included a bridal shower given in August by Mrs. R. J. Michels and daughter Carol, close friends and across-the-street neighbors, 595 North Fifth Street. They invited 20 other close friends to the 7:30 p.m. party in the Community Lounge.

THE BETROTHAL of their daughter, Beverly Quin Ann, to Anthony Pellegrini, was recently announced by Mr. and Mrs. Quincy A. Moore, 1505 California Avenue. Beverly is a '55 graduate of Whitfish, Montana High School. Anthony, a '53 graduate of New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, is now stationed at Fort Lewis with the U.S. Army. No date has been set.

Klamath Falls Lions Club 30th Anniversary Party

The 30th anniversary of the Klamath Falls Lion Club was celebrated with a dinner-dance at Reames Country Club, Saturday evening, October 13.

Nearly 100 Lions and guests were present to meet Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hawn, Eugene. He is director of Lions International and was principal speaker of the evening.

Director Hawn traveled 35,000 miles for Lions International and visited six foreign countries during the past year. In his dinner-dance talk on the 13th, he described the vastness of the organization.

Other dignitaries introduced by emcee for the evening, Clarence Humble, were District Governor William and Mrs. Rohlfings, Grants Pass and Deputy District Governor Frank and Mrs. Trotman, Merrill.

The district officials extended anniversary greetings from their clubs and from the district. All past presidents of the Klamath Falls club were honored. After the bountiful buffet dinner, dancing to Syc Halaas music was diversion for the remainder of the evening.

Fall flowers decorated the room and a tall pink stork stood over the gifts.

A contest was played with prizes going to Mrs. Luther Noble and Mrs. John Driscoll.

Miniature pastel flannel diaper containers for mints were arranged on the refreshment table.

Mrs. Driscoll, aunt of Mrs. Ritter, helped open the gifts and Joan Roberts and Bruce Ritter, small son, also helped. There were about 30 guests.

Stork Shower

BONANZA — A pink and blue shower was given for Mrs. Walter Ritter at the Bonanza Library the afternoon of October 18. Hostesses were Mrs. Owen Pepple, Mrs. Nelson Wood, Mrs. Howrey Roberts, Mrs. Wesley Hankins and Mrs. Dick Pepple.

Tulelake Couple Weds In St. Paul's Church

TULELAKE—St. Paul's Episcopal

Church, Klamath Falls was the flower-decked setting for the double-ring service that united a well known Tulelake couple in marriage on October 6.

Judith Ann Huse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Huse became the bride of Harry Ronald Peterson in the presence of members of the immediate families and a few close friends.

The petite bride wore a full-skirted, street-length frock of turquoise lace and carried an arrangement of pink rosebuds and white carnations on her Rainbow Bible.

Shirley Young, only attendant to the bride wore a pink dressmaker suit. Her flowers were pink roses and carnations.

Cecil Moore, Tulelake was best man. The Rev. Galen Onstad officiated at the afternoon rites.

Linda Bruno, Tulelake, sang before and during the ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Huse chose a green jersey frock with white flowers at the shoulder.

A reception at Little Sweden in Klamath Falls followed the ceremony where the new Mrs. Peterson and her husband cut the pink and white tiered cake.

Mrs. Peterson is continuing her studies at Tulelake High School where she is a senior in the class of '57. Her husband was graduated in 1954 and attended Shasta Junior College, Redding.

In addition to the wedding party, guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Hadwick, Dorris, Mrs. Jerry Phillips, sister of the bridegroom and Mr. Phillips.
