

IN HOOD RIVER PINE GROVE COMMUNITY CHURCH, Frank Eldon Rickman, Klamath Falls man, claimed Marian Louise Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Moore, Hood River as his bride, in an afternoon ceremony in the presence of some 150 wedding guests. The Rev. A. F. Butzin read the candlelight double-ring service at 2 p.m. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rickman, 3031 Emerald, who were in Hood River for the important event. Ellen Mitchell, Rhododendron, attended the bride; and the bridegroom's brother, Harold Rickman, served as best man. Ushers were Leroy Porter, Ken McAndrews and Jerry Johnston. Nephews of the bride were candlelighters, Billy Sheirbon and Pat Moore. The bridegroom is a graduate of Oregon State College; and his bride was a student at the same school for three years. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. (Pete) Wilkerson, the Silver Wedding Anniversary couple pictured on the front page of today's society section, have three children, two sons, Ronald K. (Ronnie), and Jerry; and a daughter, Nadine. They also have a granddaughter, Robin K., 7 months-old only child of Ronnie and Pat (Cunningham) Wilkerson. Ronnie is on the teaching staff at Peterson School; Nadine attended Oregon State College for one year, and is presently with the local Social Security office; and youngest of the three, Jerry was a student at OTI prior to farming with his father at Macdoel.

Twenty-five years ago, Ena Longmore became the bride of R. E. Wilkerson in Phillipsburg, Kansas, on October 24. They came here in 1936, and have been residents until the recent move to Macdoel to be closer to Wilkerson's farming interests.

Their three children and daughter-in-law, Pat, assisted with the guests during the afternoon open house. Nadine's betrothal to Roddy VanBuskirk was announced this summer at a luncheon.

The brother and sister host-team at the dancing-birthday-party last Saturday at the Yacht Club share an ardent interest in horses. Hugh, 16, and Jane, whose 15th birthday anniversary was celebrated at the party on the eve of the natal date, are son and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Swaney, Lakeshore Drive.

Boating is also one of their interests — and the boats are docked almost at the front door of the Swaney, home which is on the shoreline of Upper Klamath Lake. Both are familiar faces at the Rafter MD Dude Ranch near Chiloquin, where the young guests are encouraged not to be duds.

In fact, one of the owners, Dottie Poole, claims that Hugh, at first just one of the ranch "guests," has developed into a very capable and thoroughly dependable top hand. His summer stays are longer and apparently he finds his vacation fun in the every day routine chores. But on the front page in his sartorial splendor and Jane in fetching lace and satin they are social lion and butterfly. In school, they are junior and sophomore classmen at KUHS.

Nancarrow, 510 Pacific Terrace, made the announcement. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Gup-till, 1932 Portland Street. Carolyn is a freshman and Charles will be enrolled as a sophomore at the OSC winter term. — Photo by Ferebee.

VOWS SAID IN CATHOLIC RITES

YREKA — Teresa Rover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matteo Rover of Montague, became the bride of James Rice, son of Mrs. O. C. Colvin of Vinita, Oklahoma, at recent rites at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Yreka. The Rev. Patrick McTague officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown styled with a fitted bodice, pearl studded nylon lace and a satin skirt with cascades of nylon net ruffles. Her illusion net veil was caught to a crown of lace and pearls, and white carnations encircling an orchid formed her bou-quet. Helen Easton of Yreka was maid of honor and Mary Jones of Medford was bridesmaid. They wore ballerina length dresses in pastel shades and carried white carnations. Kenneth Blevins was best man and Jim Favero served as usher. A four-tiered wedding cake was cut at the reception at the Yreka Inn. Joyce Broce and Virginia Mabrey assisted in serving and Evelyn Rice carried the guest book.
