Calvary Baptist Church In Reno is Setting For Erickson-Plymale Vows

Reno Calvary Baptist Church was the setting for a late evening wedding, when a Klamath Falls couple exchanged vows in a 10 p.m. ceremony, the Rev. H. A. Farrar Jr., officiant. The double-ring service united Carolyn Ann Plymale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Plymale, 3006 Greensprings Drive, to Wilfred James Erickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Erickson, 725 Front Street.

Mrs. Don Erickson, the bride's sister, Shirley, was matron of honor; their brother, Don H. Plymale, served as best man; and ushering was Don C. Erickson, cousin of the bridegroom, and brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride's gown of white nylon tulle and Chantilly lace over satin, was made with a scooped necked fitted bodice of lace with long sleeves marked with a row of satin and lace covered buttons marking the snug tapered wristline.

Identical buttons marked the back of the bodice from the neck to the waist.

The same lace flared from the slim waist into a deep pleatum over the bouffant two tiered skirt of net. A liara of seed pearls held of KUHS, and of Southern Oregon College, Ashland with the class of '56.

The traditional blue garter, the borrowed veil from her sister, Mrs. Erickson; and a necklace and earrings for "old" were included in her trousseau.

The honeymoon trip took the couple to points in California and Nevada, including Lake Tahoe and Cal-Neva. They are now at home, 2518 Shasta Way.

Every wardrobe has to be altered from year to year. Your favorite wool dress will need the hemline changed, your crepe will need adjustment at the waistline, your pet skirt will need to be taken in a little. Don't put off the alterations. It detracts from an attractive appearance to wear clothes that aren't carefully fitted.
