IN THE SPACIOUS YARD of her parents' Malin home — with Oregon hills for a backdrop — the pretty, vivacious bride and her bridegroom smile in the September sunshine for wedding day pictures taken during the reception.

The bride is the former Ethel Jean Loveness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal H. Loveness, well known Klamath Basin family. Her marriage to Roger Michael O'Harra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray O'Harra, Pendleton, was a social highlight of early autumn.

The pair exchanged vows in a 3 p.m. nuptial service in Malin Presbyterian Church on September 15. Officiant was a friend of the bride's family, the Rev. Johannes Hoifeld of Evangelical Lutheran Church, Orland, California.

In the group picture, some of the guests were drawn to the shade of the large, colorful canopy on the wide expanse of green lawn. In the other picture, the pair beams for the photographer before they cut the initial slice of the elaborate wedding cake.

The newlyweds are now at home in Portland where "Mike" is studying medicine at University of Oregon Medical School.

Golden Wedding Reception Honors Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Thomas

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES WILLARD THOMAS are pictured, top left, with their 50th Wedding Anniversary cake that was served at the reception given in their honor on Sunday, September 29, at the Klamath Yacht Club. They were married on October 1 in Klamath Falls and have four children — two sons, Beverly and Kenneth; and two daughters, LeVerne (Mrs. Walter) Lassett; and Edna May (Mrs. Melvin) McCollum. All are local residents, except Kenneth and his family, who live in Tulare, Calif.

In the top center picture the celebrants, seated, pose with their happy hosts, who planned the beautiful 2 to 5 p.m. party in their honor. From the left, standing, Kenneth and Connie Thomas, Melvin and Edna May McCollum, LeVerne and Walter Lassett and Beverly and Starla Thomas. Pleasant reading — for always — will be the guest book signed by almost 300 of the couple's many friends — who, despite a downpour of rain — deluged the anniversary pair with congratulations and gifts at the reception for them last Sunday.

Guests were registered by Beverly Lassett, seated, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lassett. She came home from Dominican College, San Rafael, California, to assist at her grandparents' special celebration. Also registering guests was Bev's cousin, standing next to her, Kristine Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thomas. Mrs. A. A. McMaster, sister of Mrs. C. W. Thomas, was about to sign the book when the picture was taken.
