

Pitt Completes Coast Conquest With 20-14 Victory Over USC

By BOB MYERS
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pittsburgh's massive football triumph Saturday, their conquest of the Far West complete and the score all even in their sporadic rivalry with the University of Southern California.

Coach John Micholens's Panthers, who knocked off Oregon 6-3

Marshfield Pirates Stop Tornado 12-0

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Marshfield moved on a rain-soaked field at Coos Bay in the second half to a 12-0 victory over Medford Friday night, establishing a class A Oregon high school football record.

It was the Pirates' 39th consecutive undefeated game. Before the contest they were tied at 38 with Medford, which had set the mark in 1928.

Quarterback Peggy Baker lugged the ball six yards into the Medford end zone early in the third period after a scoreless first half. Marshfield ground out an insurance touchdown in the fourth quarter.

It was the 12th straight victory and the fourth of the season for Marshfield, which has won the state class A-1 title the past two years.

Medford tied Marshfield early last season and South Salem tied the Coos Bay school in the state championship game of 1954. These are the only games Marshfield has failed to win in 39 starts.

It was a non-league game for both teams. Marshfield is a favorite to retain its Midwestern League (District 6) title. Medford is the favorite with Grants Pass for the Southern Oregon Conference championship.

Marshfield is No. 1 in the Associated Press poll and Medford No. 5.

Grants Pass, seventh in the poll, had a hard time beating Central Point, 29-13.

Milwaukee routed Astoria, 34-6, in a Metropolitan League (District 3) game but had its unshared record spoiled. In the same league Beaverton, No. 8, whipped once-powerful Central Catholic of Portland, 25-0.

South Eugene, the No. 2 team, won from Roseburg as expected in the Midwestern League but by an unanticipated score of 20-0. The result focuses interest in the coming Marshfield-South Eugene game.

In the Portland League, Grant pulled a mild upset when it defeated Benson, the defending champion, and No. 10 in the poll, 20-14. High-scoring Jefferson, No. 4, had trouble with Lincoln but won, 28-19.

McMinnville, the sixth-ranked team in the state, barely got by St. Helens, 13-12.

South Salem firmed up its position as leading contender for the Valley League (District 3) championship by trouncing The Dalles, 20-0. The Dalles had been unde-

Sports Briefs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

GOLF
LINDRICK, England — The United States took a quick lead over England at the start of the Ryder Cup golf matches Saturday, winning three of the four Scotch foursomes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—Willie Smith, a freshman on the ladies' pro circuit, tied the course record with a 73 Friday to take a two stroke lead in the $5,000 women's open at the Presidio Golf Club.

PARAMUS, N.J. — Defending champion Fred J. Wright of Watertown, Mass., and last year's runner-up, Clark Espie of Indianapolis, advanced into the final of the USGA Senior Amateur championship.

IONA IN FINALS

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (UP)—Iona College reached the final round of the Eastern College Athletic Assn. baseball tournament Friday by defeating St. Francis, 8-4. Another semi-final game between Siena College and St. Peter's (N.J.) was suspended by darkness with the score tied at 8-8 and was resumed Saturday.

Gerry Coleman Has Nine Lives

MILWAUKEE (UP) — Three times you should have given a plunger bucket to the baseball pitcher of relief Gerry Coleman—and better would be.

Two of those times were when he was a Milwaukee ace flying a total of 130 missions in two wars. The other time was in mid-June when the New York Yankees had a surplus of infielders.

But the lean, slender six-footer still is with the Bronx Bombers today and they are happy about it as they contemplate his World Series batting average of .600 against the pestiferous Milwaukee Braves.

"Come out to three." Coleman grinned as he worked out at Milwaukee County Stadium in preparation for Saturday's resumption of the Series. "Mostly they say, three times and one. I guess I'm just lucky."

It's more than that for the guy who survived two wars and a

Brave Fans Don't Worry About Seats

MILWAUKEE (UP)—More than 250 Milwaukee baseball fans don't have to worry about tickets for the World Series, they have their own private stadium.

These fans are the veterans at Wood VA Hospital here, who not only have their special Series seats, they watch every home game played by the Milwaukee Braves.

The veterans watch baseball sitting on benches atop a hill beyond County Stadium, not more than 1,000 yards from the playing field.

The vets now have a roof over their heads when they watch a game. The Gettelman Chapter of the Disabled American Veterans donated a $2,000 galvanized steel canopy for the stands and a crew set the structure up last week.

Friday's High School Scores

Oregon Prep Football Scores
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Marshfield 12, Medford 0
South Eugene 20, Roseburg 0
Milwaukee 34, Astoria 6
Grants Pass 20, Central Point 13
McMinnville 13, St. Helens 12
South Salem 30, The Dalles 30
Springfield 31, Klamath Falls 0
Beaverton 25, Central Catholic (Portland) 0
North Bend 26, Coquille 13
North Salem 20, Lebanon 6
Hillsboro 27, Parkrose 6
Albany 19, Sweet Home 12
Tigard 6, Newberg 6 (tie)
Gresham 13, Douglas (Portland) 0
Ontario 34, Payette, Idaho, 18
Nyssa 42, John Day 9
Independence 45, Madras 6
Corbett 31, Knappa 6
Williamina 22, Dayton 0
Mt. Angel 26, Gervais 7
Serra (Salem) 13, Woodburn 7
Silverton 14, Aurora 13
Chiloquin 19, Jacksonville 13
Yamhill 13, Banks 0
Reedsport 27, Florence 19
Tillamook 13, Nestucca 6
Ashland 13, Lakeview 6
W. East 20, Vernonia 0
Seaside 38, Clatskanie 6
Toledo 7, Myrtle Point 6
Rainier 19, Hood River 7
Stayton 51, Turner 19
Pendleton 26, Eisenhower (Yakima, Wash.) 6
La Grande 6, Kennewick, Wash. 0
Troutdale 25, Warrenton 0
Seo 33, Colton 0
Alsea 25, St. Paul 19
Cascade Locks 27, Lyle, (Wash.) 6
Francis (Eugene) 13, Oakridge 7
Cresswell 13, Pleasant Hill 7
Elmira 19, Willamette (Eugene) 7
Lowell 33, McKenzie 14
Camas Valley 14, Triangle Lake 12
Yoncalla 12, Canyonville 0
Glendale 33, Illinois Valley 0
Myrtle Creek 24, Glide 0
Baker 27, Weiser (Idaho) 13
Crow 19, Mohawk 6
Hereford 20, Huntington 19
Oregon City 14, Oswego 6
Newport 20, Waldport 14
Sherwood 34, Plomoth 14
West Linn 8, Forest Grove 0
Malin 13, Bonanza 0
Grant 23, Benson 0
Jefferson 28, Lincoln 19
Wilson 33, Madison 12
Franklin 31, Cleveland 6
Washington 27, Roosevelt 19

McDougald Hit Downs Scribe

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
MILWAUKEE (UP) — Each World Series game is a bit of hell on earth for uncomplaining Mickey Mantle.

I know that to be an absolute fact because he proved it to me personally at County Stadium Friday.

Mantle furnished the proof as I lay on the trainer's table, victim of a foul liner hit by Gil McDougald during a Yankee practice session. McDougald's smash struck just above the right ankle and the leg felt as if it had been run over by a truck.

"Sick to your stomach?" Mantle asked me as Yankee trainer Gus Mauch applied an ice pack to the leg.

I nodded.

"And do you feel like you might black out?"

Right again, but how was Mantle able to describe my sensations so accurately?

"That's easy," he said, poker-faced, "because the pain in my leg acts up on me the same way."

I asked him how often that happened.

"Every time I step on it," he answered.

Other Yankee players weren't quite so sympathetic with my plight even though Mauch insisted I'd be wearing Will Harridge's signature on my leg for the next few days.

"McDougald didn't do half as good a job on you as he did on Herb Score," put in Yogi Berra.

Casey Stengel, however, took one look inside the trainer's room and shook his head.

"Now I gotta change my whole line-up again," he said.

College Football

Pitt 20, Southern California 14
Brigham Young 20, Montana 7
Ithaca 19, Wilkes 0
Youngstown 13, Eastern Mich 6
Mt. Union 32, Marietta 26
Middle Tenn 26, Western Kentucky 7
Iowa State Techs 35, Kirksville (Mo) 13
Western Illinois 23, Southern Ill 13
Hanover 21, Georgetown (Ky) 0
Central Okla 45, Southern Arkansas 6
Culver Stockton 20, Carthage 14
College of Emporia 28, Bethany (Kan.) 20
Baker (Kan.) 19, McPherson 0
Sterling 19, Central Missouri 13
College of Idaho 26, Whitman 24
Eastern New Mexico 36, Washburn 34
Long Beach (Calif) State 12
Calif. Aggies 6
San Francisco State 28, Humboldt 14

Washington Entry Wins Bronc Riding

NEW YORK (UP) — Les Johnson, a cowboy from Omak, Wash., won the saddle bronc riding event in Friday night's competition at the Madison Square Garden Rodeo.

Ellis Lewis, also of Omak, was second in bareback bronc riding. Sherman Sullins, Eugene, Ore., was second in steer wrestling, being clocked at .081.

Portland, Ore., cowboy Bill Boag placed second in the bull riding event.

Gene Fuller, who held the midwestern title for four months, began boxing at the age of eight.

British Win Ryder Trophy

LINDRICK, England (UP)—Britain won the Ryder Cup golf trophy from the United States professional golfers for the first time in 24 years Saturday.

In a great comeback, the British methodically turned back the Americans one by one Saturday after the U.S. had taken three of the four scotch foursome matches Friday and appeared headed toward another international victory.

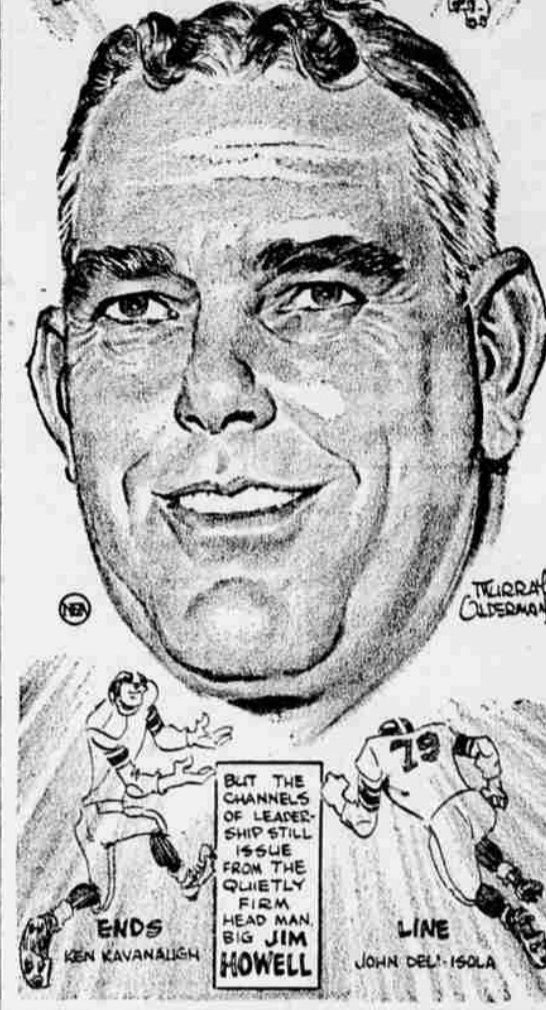

The Americans needed to win only four of the eight singles matches Saturday, but the home forces rallied brilliantly.

Ken Boustfield of England applied the clincher when he defeated Lionel Hebert, Lafayette, 4 and 3. It was the sixth singles victory of the day for the Brits, who were scoring their greatest golfing upset in years.

Eric Brown of Scotland started the fireworks when he downed Tommy Bolt of Los Angeles, 4 and 3, in the first of the 36-hole singles matches.

The American team trailed badly after the 18-hole morning round, when Peter Mills defeated Jackie Burke of Bellaire, Tex., 3 and 3.

NERVE CENTER

Harry Grayson's SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor
NEW YORK (NEA) — For 50 years, Al Mayer has been prying a living from a reluctant world. Among many other things, Mayer managed Sarah Bernhardt, Louis Angel Firpo and Paulino Uzcudum. He foisted a bloodless bullfight on New York City, promoted a fight between a boxer and a wrestler.

Now Mayer has come up with a plan to put professional wrestling under circus tents, which may be where it has belonged all along. And engaged in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

"We debated for a long time whether it would be cheaper to move the rasslers or the tents," Mayer says. "From a standpoint of sheer tonnage, it would be just about as easy to move the tents as the performers. Wrestlers travel six or eight in a car and sleep six or eight in a hotel room however, whereas tents require special handling. So we decided it was more practical to transport the wrestlers than the tents."

Mayer is negotiating with outfit which operates theaters, all of which are in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

"We debated for a long time whether it would be cheaper to move the rasslers or the tents," Mayer says. "From a standpoint of sheer tonnage, it would be just about as easy to move the tents as the performers. Wrestlers travel six or eight in a car and sleep six or eight in a hotel room however, whereas tents require special handling. So we decided it was more practical to transport the wrestlers than the tents."

Mayer is negotiating with outfit which operates theaters, all of which are in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

"We debated for a long time whether it would be cheaper to move the rasslers or the tents," Mayer says. "From a standpoint of sheer tonnage, it would be just about as easy to move the tents as the performers. Wrestlers travel six or eight in a car and sleep six or eight in a hotel room however, whereas tents require special handling. So we decided it was more practical to transport the wrestlers than the tents."

Mayer is negotiating with outfit which operates theaters, all of which are in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

"We debated for a long time whether it would be cheaper to move the rasslers or the tents," Mayer says. "From a standpoint of sheer tonnage, it would be just about as easy to move the tents as the performers. Wrestlers travel six or eight in a car and sleep six or eight in a hotel room however, whereas tents require special handling. So we decided it was more practical to transport the wrestlers than the tents."

Mayer is negotiating with outfit which operates theaters, all of which are in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

"We debated for a long time whether it would be cheaper to move the rasslers or the tents," Mayer says. "From a standpoint of sheer tonnage, it would be just about as easy to move the tents as the performers. Wrestlers travel six or eight in a car and sleep six or eight in a hotel room however, whereas tents require special handling. So we decided it was more practical to transport the wrestlers than the tents."

Mayer is negotiating with outfit which operates theaters, all of which are in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

"We debated for a long time whether it would be cheaper to move the rasslers or the tents," Mayer says. "From a standpoint of sheer tonnage, it would be just about as easy to move the tents as the performers. Wrestlers travel six or eight in a car and sleep six or eight in a hotel room however, whereas tents require special handling. So we decided it was more practical to transport the wrestlers than the tents."

Mayer is negotiating with outfit which operates theaters, all of which are in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

"We debated for a long time whether it would be cheaper to move the rasslers or the tents," Mayer says. "From a standpoint of sheer tonnage, it would be just about as easy to move the tents as the performers. Wrestlers travel six or eight in a car and sleep six or eight in a hotel room however, whereas tents require special handling. So we decided it was more practical to transport the wrestlers than the tents."

Mayer is negotiating with outfit which operates theaters, all of which are in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

"We debated for a long time whether it would be cheaper to move the rasslers or the tents," Mayer says. "From a standpoint of sheer tonnage, it would be just about as easy to move the tents as the performers. Wrestlers travel six or eight in a car and sleep six or eight in a hotel room however, whereas tents require special handling. So we decided it was more practical to transport the wrestlers than the tents."

Mayer is negotiating with outfit which operates theaters, all of which are in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

"We debated for a long time whether it would be cheaper to move the rasslers or the tents," Mayer says. "From a standpoint of sheer tonnage, it would be just about as easy to move the tents as the performers. Wrestlers travel six or eight in a car and sleep six or eight in a hotel room however, whereas tents require special handling. So we decided it was more practical to transport the wrestlers than the tents."

Mayer is negotiating with outfit which operates theaters, all of which are in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

"We debated for a long time whether it would be cheaper to move the rasslers or the tents," Mayer says. "From a standpoint of sheer tonnage, it would be just about as easy to move the tents as the performers. Wrestlers travel six or eight in a car and sleep six or eight in a hotel room however, whereas tents require special handling. So we decided it was more practical to transport the wrestlers than the tents."

Mayer is negotiating with outfit which operates theaters, all of which are in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

"We debated for a long time whether it would be cheaper to move the rasslers or the tents," Mayer says. "From a standpoint of sheer tonnage, it would be just about as easy to move the tents as the performers. Wrestlers travel six or eight in a car and sleep six or eight in a hotel room however, whereas tents require special handling. So we decided it was more practical to transport the wrestlers than the tents."

Mayer is negotiating with outfit which operates theaters, all of which are in an enterprize known as Seaboard Sports, Inc., he was immediately confronted with a problem in taking his shows to 21 different spots.

Rams-49ers Tangle In Hot One Today

The San Francisco 49ers and Los Angeles Rams have built up one of football's greatest rivalries in only seven years, get together Sunday at Kezar Stadium for their 15th regular season meeting.

Kickoff time is 1:30 p.m., and a crowd of more than 55,000 is expected.

The Rams, favored in many quarters to replace the Chicago Bears as western conference champions in the National Football League, have captured nine of the previous contests; the 49ers have won four and there was a 24-24 deadlock in 1954.

Coach Sid Gillman's Los Angeles forces opened their season last Sunday by downing the Philadelphia Eagles, 17-13, while the 49ers dropped a 10-20 decision to the Chicago Cardinals.

The clubs met in their annual pre-season affair September 13, with the Rams winning easily, 58-27, before 75,000 fans at Los Angeles.

The big guns of both sides will be ready to go Sunday, with the Rams having a decided edge in the depth of their firepower.

Coach Frank Albert's 49ers will have the services of Billy Wilson at right end for the first time since he injured his knee at Seattle. Wilson, 190, will have Clyde Conner, 195, as his running mate at the left flank. The rest of the offensive line includes Bob Cross, 250, left tackle; Lou Palatella, 230, left guard; Frank Morse, 280, center; Ted Connelly, 240, right guard and Bob St. Clair, 265, right tackle. Y. A. Tittle, 190, opens at quarterback, with Hugh McElhenny, 198, left half; R. C. Owens, 205, right half and Joe Perry, 210, fullback.

Defensively, the 49ers will line up like this:

Ed Henke, 227, left end; Leo Nomellini, 235, left tackle; Marv Matuzak, 235, middle guard; Bill Herchman, 240, right tackle; Bob Toney, 250, right end; Stan Sherliff, 225, left linebacker; Charlie Powell, 220, right linebacker; Paul Carr, 205, left half; Bill Sitts, 195, right half; Bob Holladay, 175, left safety, and Val Joe Walker, 178, right safety.

Dave Walden Belted Out By Williams

WASHINGTON (UP) — Ernie (Sonny Boy) Williams having disposed of a fill-in opponent, now wants to take on the man he was supposed to fight in his debut as a main event.

Williams, 21-year-old Washingtonian, stopped Dave Walden of Youngstown, Ohio, on a technical knockout at 30 seconds in the ninth round of their scheduled 10-round lightweight bout at Capitol Arena Friday night.

Sonny Boy had been scheduled to meet ninth ranked lightweight Johnny Busso of New York. But Busso came down with a virus infection Thursday night and had to withdraw.

Walden made the most of his opportunity in the early rounds. He never had Sonny Boy in distress, but ripped the hometown boy with right uppercuts and left hooks in the infighting.

Williams, whose 139 pounds gave him a 5-pound edge, then completely outmaneuvered Walden.

On occasions there was more banging of skulls than of fists. In the ninth, however, Sonny Boy jarred Walden with a right, then almost crumpled him on the ropes with a short left uppercut, a right and a left hook.

Referee Marty Gallagher darted in to stop the barrage.

Manager Joe Carter said he now hopes to test Williams against Busso. Sonny Boy has won 20 against lesser foes, lost 3 and had 1 draw. The loss was Walden's sixth and his first by kayo. He has won 16 and drawn 4.

Through the eighth, Gallagher's card had Williams in front, 77-68, giving the winner of each round 10 points. Judges Charley Buck and Mike Tardugno both scored it 79-72 for Williams.

Referee Marty Gallagher darted in to stop the barrage.

Manager Joe Carter said he now hopes to test Williams against Busso. Sonny Boy has won 20 against lesser foes, lost 3 and had 1 draw. The loss was Walden's sixth and his first by kayo. He has won 16 and drawn 4.

Through the eighth, Gallagher's card had Williams in front, 77-68, giving the winner of each round 10 points. Judges Charley Buck and Mike Tardugno both scored it 79-72 for Williams.

Referee Marty Gallagher darted in to stop the barrage.

Manager Joe Carter said he now hopes to test Williams against Busso. Sonny Boy has won 20 against lesser foes, lost 3 and had 1 draw. The loss was Walden's sixth and his first by kayo. He has won 16 and drawn 4.

Through the eighth, Gallagher's card had Williams in front, 77-68, giving the winner of each round 10 points. Judges Charley Buck and Mike Tardugno both scored it 79-72 for Williams.

Referee Marty Gallagher darted in to stop the barrage.

Manager Joe Carter said he now hopes to test Williams against Busso. Sonny Boy has won 20 against lesser foes, lost 3 and had 1 draw. The loss was Walden's sixth and his first by kayo. He has won 16 and drawn 4.

Through the eighth, Gallagher's card had Williams in front, 77-68, giving the winner of each round 10 points. Judges Charley Buck and Mike Tardugno both scored it 79-72 for Williams.

Referee Marty Gallagher darted in to stop the barrage.

Manager Joe Carter said he now hopes to test Williams against Busso. Sonny Boy has won 20 against lesser foes, lost 3 and had 1 draw. The loss was Walden's sixth and his first by kayo. He has won 16 and drawn 4.

Through the eighth, Gallagher's card had Williams in front, 77-68, giving the winner of each round 10 points. Judges Charley Buck and Mike Tardugno both scored it 79-72 for Williams.

Referee Marty Gallagher darted in to stop the barrage.

Manager Joe Carter said he now hopes to test Williams against Busso. Sonny Boy has won 20 against lesser foes, lost 3 and had 1 draw. The loss was Walden's sixth and his first by kayo. He has won 16 and drawn 4.

Through the eighth, Gallagher's card had Williams in front, 77-68, giving the winner of each round 10 points. Judges Charley Buck and Mike Tardugno both scored it 79-72 for Williams.

Referee Marty Gallagher darted in to stop the barrage.

Manager Joe Carter said he now hopes to test Williams against Busso. Sonny Boy has won 20 against lesser foes, lost 3 and had 1 draw. The loss was Walden's sixth and his first by kayo. He has won 16 and drawn 4.

Through the eighth, Gallagher's card had Williams in front, 77-68, giving the winner of each round 10 points. Judges Charley Buck and Mike Tardugno both scored it 79-72 for Williams.

Referee Marty Gallagher darted in to stop the barrage.

Manager Joe Carter said he now hopes to test Williams against Busso. Sonny Boy has won 20 against lesser foes, lost 3 and had 1 draw. The loss was Walden's sixth and his first by kayo. He has won 16 and drawn 4.

Through the eighth, Gallagher's card had Williams in front, 77-68, giving the winner of each round 10 points. Judges Charley Buck and Mike Tardugno both scored it 79-72 for Williams.

Referee Marty Gallagher darted in to stop the barrage.

Manager Joe Carter said he now hopes to test Williams against Busso. Sonny Boy has won 20 against lesser foes, lost 3 and had 1 draw. The loss was Walden's sixth and his first by kayo. He has won 16 and drawn 4.

Through the eighth, Gallagher's card had Williams in front, 77-68, giving the winner of each round 10 points. Judges Charley Buck and Mike Tardugno both scored it 79-72 for Williams.

Referee Marty Gallagher darted in to stop the barrage.

Manager Joe Carter said he now hopes to test Williams against Busso. Sonny Boy has won 20 against lesser foes, lost 3 and had 1 draw. The loss was Walden's sixth and his first by kayo. He has won 16 and drawn 4.

Through the eighth, Gallagher's card had Williams in front, 77-68, giving the winner of each round 10 points. Judges Charley Buck and Mike Tardugno both scored it 79-72 for Williams.

Referee Marty Gallagher darted in to stop the barrage.

Manager Joe Carter said he now hopes to test Williams against Busso. Sonny Boy has won 20 against lesser foes, lost 3 and had 1 draw. The loss was Walden's sixth and his first by kayo. He has won 16 and drawn 4.

Through the eighth, Gallagher's card had Williams in front, 77-68, giving the winner of each round 10 points. Judges Charley Buck and Mike Tardugno both scored it 79-72 for Williams.

Panthers Top Jacksonville

The Chiloquin Panthers came from behind Friday afternoon to turn back Jacksonville on the Pearl Valley Field 10-13.

The Panthers didn't get rolling until late in the second quarter after they had spotted Jacksonville 13 points.

Jacksonville pushed across both scores in the second quarter, the first on a 20-yard pass from Dennis Caird to Eldon Smith. The second Jacksonville score was a 12-yard pass from Caird to Smith.

When Chiloquin began to move they did it with a well balanced ground and air attack on the muddy turf. Richard Ochoa tossed a 7-yard pass to Brice Parcoe for the first Panther score.

In the third quarter it was a 45-yard pass play from Ochoa to Parcoe, and Munson Sandoval ran the point after touchdown.

The Panthers put the lid on the game in the fourth when they went over from the 7-yard line after marching from their own one. Again it was a pass from Ochoa to Parcoe.

Bush League Charge Hit By A. Pafko

MILWAUKEE (UP) — Veteran outfielder Andy Pafko, the Braves' most experienced World Series player, took issue Saturday with the New York Yankees charge that the city is "bush league."

The aging right fielder said "It's an awful thing" to call Milwaukee "bush league," answering back a statement by a husky Yankee who tagged the city with that label as he, his teammates and manager Casey Stengel turned a cold shoulder to a civic reception.

"After all," said Pafko, "Milwaukee is a nice town and has shown that it's big league by drawing at least two million people in four of five years."

"That's more than the Yankees have done," he said.

Pafko said "Milwaukee wanted to welcome the Yankees and they should have been glad to get a nice reception in an opposing town."

Albert Davis, assistant secretary to Mayor Frank Zeidler, was at the Milwaukee Road Station along with a crowd of several hundred to greet the eastern team when it arrived here Friday to work out at County Stadium.

The Yankees bundled from the train to three waiting buses without stopping to give or take a word. Milwaukee Judge Robert Cannon, a personal friend of Stengel's, asked him to come from his bus and acknowledge the reception. The manager refused and Cannon boarded the bus with several newsmen.

Then a husky Yankee began bustling the newsmen off the bus and said the whole thing "is strictly bush league."

"Gentlemen," Davis called out as the buses pulled away, "whether you know it or not, you've been welcomed to Milwaukee."

Fights

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON — Ernie (Sonny Boy) Williams, 139, Washington, stopped Dave Walden, 134, Youngstown, Ohio, 9.

Chicago — Round Table, with Willie Shoemaker aboard, won a special betless race by seven lengths at Hawthorne. It was a Round Table's final prep for the $100,000 Added Gold Cup Handicap at Hawthorne Oct. 12.

Boston — Cut Out ($12.40), carried top weight of 122 pounds to a nose decision in the feature at Suffolk Downs.