Red Reported Ready To Fight To Protect Mid-East Interests

NEW YORK (AP) — Nikita S. Khrushchev has made it clear that the Soviet Union is prepared to use military force if necessary to defend its interests in the Middle East, the New York Times said today.

During an interview with James Reston of the Times, Khrushchev also accused Secretary of State Dulles of inciting Turkey to start a war in the Middle East by attacking Syria. The Communist party boss challenged the U.S. Senate to investigate his charges.

The interview took place Monday at Communist party headquarters in Moscow. The final portion was released by the Soviet government for publication today.

Reston reported that, in what seemed to be a clear threat of Soviet intervention in any Middle Eastern war, Khrushchev said: "If war breaks out, we are near Turkey and you are not. When the guns begin to fire, the rockets (missiles) can begin flying and then it will be too late to think about it. . . . Turkey would not last one day in case of war."

Khrushchev charged that Dulles first instructed Loy W. Henderson, deputy undersecretary of state, to incite Jordan and Iraq against Syria on his trip to the Middle East after leftist officers took control of Syria's armed forces last August.

Failing to incite Jordan and Iraq, Khrushchev said, Henderson turned pressure on Turkey to attack Syria. Turkey is an American-armed ally in NATO.

When Reston asked Khrushchev for verification of the charges, the Soviet leader replied: "Why don't you ask Mr. Dulles? In his speeches he often refers to God. Then let him swear under oath and tell the truth about the instructions he gave Henderson. If he is truly a believer and does not want to be a perjurer, he will admit that he did give such instructions."

After Reston expressed disbelief at the accusations, Khrushchev went on:

"I quite understand you when you say you are flabbergasted, but it is true. Perhaps there may be more factors now for peace than for war, but the United States is pushing Turkey into the arms of Syria. We will do everything to prevent it."

"In moving their troops the Turks are even laying bare some parts of their frontier with us. They should not do that. They are very weak. Turkey would not last one day in case of war."

Later on Monday, at an East German Embassy banquet, Khrushchev repeated his charges against Turkey and his slightly veiled threat of Soviet retaliation to any attack on Syria. The Turks have rejected the charge of aggressive intent and said their troop movements are a defensive measure made necessary by Soviet arms shipment to Syria.

Khrushchev told Reston there were documents to prove his charges which eventually will be published.

"It would be useful if the American Senate would acquaint itself with those instructions which Henderson received from Dulles. . . ."

Khrushchev said.

Reston reminded the Russian leader that the United States had gone against its major allies in the Suez crisis to bring peace to the Middle East and was now confronted with new Communist arms and provocations in Syria.

Khrushchev replied with condemnation of the Eisenhower Doctrine. He said: "From the Soviet side there were no provocations in Syria. There is not a single Soviet soldier in Syria. There is but an economic delegation with a group of technical experts."

Khrushchev conceded that Soviet arms had been supplied to Syria but added that the United States has also supplied arms in the Middle East.

Khrushchev observed that Arabs in general are far from Communist ideas. He said they are not Communists but nationalists and President Nasser has even jailed Egyptian Communists.

While aware of Nasser's views on Communists, the Soviet Union cooperates with him against all kinds of colonialism, including American, Khrushchev said. He called that "practical coexistence."

Search Halted For Woman

ARLINGTON, Ore. (AP) — The organized ground search for a missing 36-year-old woman was called off Thursday by state police.

As many as 75 men have searched the flat farmland along the Columbia River near Boardman for two days without turning up any trace of Mrs. Clara Lovette.

Bloodhounds once followed a scent that led them to the banks of the Columbia. Then they picked up another trail that ended at a road near Mrs. Lovette's farm home.

Mrs. Lovette disappeared Tuesday. Her husband, Jess, said that he later found a note from his wife which said she was going for a walk.

State police said they may ask the Coast Guard at Pasco, Wash., to continue the search on the Columbia. Mrs. Lovette's home is about 1 1/2 miles from the river.

Court Names New Planner

Ed Stastny of Malin was named as a member of the Klamath County-Klamath Falls Joint Planning Commission by members of the Klamath County Court. The county planning group now consists of Ed Stastny, Elmer Lemler of Merrill, Bob Beach, Don Sloan and Murdo Morrison all of Klamath Falls, and Harry Obenchain of the Falls area. Beach, Sloan and Morrison are members of both the county and city joint group.

Morrison and Lloyd Anderson of the Municipal Research Department of the University of Oregon talked with members of the county court Wednesday about future plans to be undertaken at the October 29 meeting of the joint group.

Court members pointed out that the mayors of Klamath County towns, and leaders of community groups in the outlying areas will be invited to the session. It is anticipated that more members may be named to the planning group, or that advisory committees will be organized to work with the planners and serve in ex-officio capacities.

The court points out that the intensified activity of the planning groups is necessary for handling the mounting planning problems within the county, and that it is hoped to have all areas of the county represented.

One remained on guard at the door and the other, thought to be between 30 and 35 years of age, demanded the cash in the till which Tolozano handed over. After taking two bottles of whiskey and the money, the two men left by car. The robber backed up his demand for cash with a gun Tolozano described as a .22 caliber pistol.
