Winners Of Spud Festival Parade To Receive Awards

MERRILL — Generous cash prizes and cups are being offered for winners in the Klamath Basin Potato Festival parade to be staged at Merrill during the 21st celebration on Saturday, October 19.

The parade will start moving down its route from Garfield Street near the elementary school promptly at 11 a.m. The line of march will be south to the highway, east to the Signal service station corner, north two blocks, then west to the point of starting where it will disband. Entries must be at the starting point by 10 a.m.

Lewis Kandra, Merrill pioneer, will lead the parade, followed by the colors, Hillah Temple Drum Corps, Klamath Falls, the queen's float, distinguished guests in cars, organizations and lodges, the Henley High School Band.

Postmaster Attends Meet

NEW PINE CREEK — Mrs. Buna Paris, postmaster, attended a directors meeting of the Oregon Chapter of the National Association of Postmasters in Crescent last weekend when Postmaster Ester Goodall of Crescent was hostess to 34 postmasters and spouses attending. Mrs. Paris attended the meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peat of Lakeview. The Crescent Garden Club served dinner to the group.

After spending Saturday night as guests of Mrs. Hope Brader in Chemult, president of the Oregon Chapter, the local members attended a meeting Sunday at Powell Butte for directors of five county groups, Klamath, Deschutes, Crook, Lake and Jefferson, where Postmaster Fred Peterson was host. The Powell Butte Garden Club was in charge of the banquet, and each postmaster was presented with a sack of potatoes.

Post Resigned By Police Judge

CHILQUIN — Guy A. Staiger has resigned from the offices of police judge and recorder of Chilquinn because of illness. Walter Zimmerman, justice of the peace, is acting police judge and Wayne Blair is interim recorder.

Staiger has been a resident of Chilquinn for over 30 years as has Zimmerman, but Blair is a newcomer, having moved from Salem in June to open a law office here.

School Clubs Elect Heads

CHILQUIN — For the first time in many years Chilquinn High School will have a Girls Athletic Association. Ruth Hagelstein will be the faculty adviser. Officers for the group are Karen Wilson, president; Louise Niehaus, vice president; Meta Collins, secretary-treasurer and Janet Wilson, point secretary to keep track of progress toward athletic awards for girls.

The Girls Pep Club has chosen Janet Clark as president, Karen Wilson for vice president and Meta Collins, secretary-treasurer. The Panther rally squad, made up of two girls from each of the upper four classes, includes Lou Ellen Cook and Karen Wilson, seniors; Louise Niehaus and Meta Collins, juniors; Doris DiUlio and Sandra Haas, sophomores, and Agatha DiUlio, freshman. One more freshman will be selected to replace Norma McKenzie, who is no longer in school.

Stephen Pope has been selected as editor of the Chilquinn High School annual, the Chiliscan, with Ruth Ann Adams as assistant editor. Mrs. Frank Bell is the faculty adviser for the project. All the seniors will work on the staff in small committees. They are Mike Ravizza, Anna Barney, Don Genzler, Dorothy Shadley, Bruce Parazo, Janet Wilson, Lester Barnes, Janet Clark, Wyn Heseock, Gail Mannerling, Richard Ochoa, Eleanor McNameer, Ramona Shadley, Karen Wilson, Louise Haglund, Lou Ellen Cook and Barbara Adams.

BOOSTER NIGHT

NEW PINE CREEK — Grange booster night Saturday, October 5, was fairly well attended by local and visiting grange members. Lecturer Hazel Van Cleave arranged the program, a talk by Al Haselbacher, county agent, and a comedy skit, "Waiting in a Doctor's Office." Supper was served early so that buck hunters could be up early Sunday.

FIRES HIT AUSTRALIA

SYDNEY, Australia (UP) — All open fires were banned in New South Wales today in an effort to stem the area's worst brush fires in 35 years. One little girl has been fatally burned, at least 17 homes, a factory and a school destroyed, and more than 2,000 square miles of grazing land scorched by the fires fanned by high winds.

BEN MITCHEL MORRIS

Singer Featured By Navy Band

Ben Mitchel Morris, talented young vocalist, will be heard with other solo and specialty numbers during the two concerts to be presented October 17 in Klamath Falls by the United States Navy Band. Both performances will be in Pelican Court of Klamath Union High School. Morris was enthusiastically received during his appearance here with the Navy band three years ago.

He is a student of such nationally known teachers as Count de Seguerola, Max Pons, George Lapevre, Lottie Lehmann, Richard Bonelli, Richard Hale and Jeffrey Harris.

Net proceeds from the concerts will be used to assist the KUHS band to appear at the East-West game in San Francisco and for the KUHS choir to travel to the Music Educators National Convention in Los Angeles in March.

School Bond Rally Slated

DUNSMUIR — The Dunsmuir Elementary School Board, eager to secure full public backing for a new school, will sponsor a bond rally meeting at the elementary school auditorium at 8 p.m. October 15.

The board said state school officials and Howard Perrin, architect, will be on hand to explain the need for the $135,000 bond issue being sought at a November 5 election for new school construction. The board will seek $889,000 in state aid for the building program.

A school site in north Dunsmuir on land known as the Wehrheim property is now being considered by the board. The first choice of sites, the Herrin Estate, was recently sold to the St. Germain Foundation. The undeveloped acreage now being surveyed belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brennen.

At its Tuesday night meeting, the board summed up the reasons for quick action on a new school. Members pointed out the current school building is overcrowded, cannot be expanded on its present site and is below state standards in many respects. They also noted that forest reserve funds now available for site purchase will be lost to the district if not used this year.
