NAOMI SHRINE

Past worthy high priestesses and past watchmen of shepherds were honored at a meeting of Naomi Shrine No. 5, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, held at the Masonic Temple on September 21.

The past officers escorted to the East, welcomed and introduced, were Charlotte Martin, Beatrice Denison, Nell Retterath, Blanche Schulze, Irene Markham and Vera Fritsch, past worthy high priestesses; Jack Schulze, George Retterath, Jack Metler and James Hunter, past watchmen of shepherds of Naomi Shrine, and Harold Jones, past watchman of shepherds of Emanuel Shrine No. 19, Wenatchee, Washington.

Plans for Friendship Night to be held on October 12 were discussed at length. Large delegations from Washington, California and other Oregon shrines are anticipated. All members were urged to attend this meeting to assist in the entertainment of the visitors.

Under good of the order, the past officers were again escorted to the East and presented gifts by the three wisemen in costume, portrayed by Max Mitchell, Gus Vlahos and Elmer Vincent, and the three hand maids, Josephine Young, Aletha Howell and Vera Linkenbach, in an addendum. The worthy high priestess then presented each woman with a corsage and each man with a boutonniere. Charlotte Martin extended thanks in behalf of all the past officers.

Refreshments were served in the banquet room following the meeting by the committee, Helen Spiker, Lois Gueck, Marie Metler and Gwen Pierson. Table decorations in an autumn theme were made and arranged by Aura Mitchell.

DUNSMUIR GUILD BAZAAR

October 25 is the date of the traditional fall bazaar and luncheon given by St. Barnabas Episcopal Guild in the church guild hall.

Members have announced they are planning an event of interest to the entire community. Emphasis is being placed this year upon variety and low cost. Novelty items, suitable for inexpensive gift giving, will be among the handicraft for sale.

Mrs. A. W. Kilborn and Mrs. Stanley Macgiverin are co-chairmen of the bazaar. Mrs. J. M. Kelby is luncheon chairman. Among those assisting are Mrs. C. C. Wendell, aprons; Mrs. Austin Nelson, food; Mrs. Chester Grenvick, white elephants and old jewelry; Mrs. C. H. Dodwell, plants, driftwood, ceramics and antiques.

The House of Young Churchmen will have a grab bag, and the Mount Shasta guild will have a handicraft booth. Christmas cards, flavorings, Christmas candles, sachets and gift subscriptions will be among the holiday suggestions at the Christmas booth manned by Mrs. Henry Riely.

Luncheon tickets will be sold in advance and at the door. Service is being planned to accommodate business people and office employees.

WOMEN'S CLUB

The United Nations, the "last best hope of man," will be discussed by Mrs. R. G. Christison at the luncheon meeting of the Dunsmuir Women's Club on Tuesday at the Hotel Dunsmuir.

Christmas cards, flavorings, Christmas candles, sachets and gift subscriptions will be among the holiday suggestions at the Christmas booth manned by Mrs. Henry Riely.

CHILOQUIN

The Shawlanna Camp Fire Girls had a hayride Friday night, September 20. The girls and their guests rode in a truck loaded with straw from Chilouquin to see Bert Stanley ranch at the north end of Wood River Valley.

Guests were Paul Harris, Kenneth Hoback, Dennis Ridenour, Benny Nygren, Greg Wilder, Joe Kirk, Jackie Hoggarth, Neal Harris, Douglas Van Wormer and Albert Wilder.

Members are Judy Stanley, Janet Hall, Cheryl Wolf, Mary O'Neil, Mary Ann Hardman, Jimmy Lynn Doak, Diane Haas, Sally Ravizza, Barbara Nicholson, Karen Jenkins, Cheryl Jack and Donna Robinson.

Accompanying the group were Mrs. Earl Hall, Mrs. Robert Doak and Mrs. Bert Stanley.

ANN CURRY will be the Christmas Day bride of Richard Gadberry in Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church. She is the daughter of Mrs. Frances Curry, 4315 Freida, and Howard Curry. Ann is a graduate of Henley High School, OTI and attended Oregon State College.

Her fiancé, a resident of Mill Valley, California, is a graduate of Holland High School, Ohio, and attended San Francisco State College. He is presently employed by Safeway Stores in Mill Valley. — Photo by Miller-Williams

THE PRE-HOLIDAY SEASON has been chosen for the exchange of marriage vows between Roxie Kasparian of Fresno and Berkeley, California, and Marvin Haley Thomas, a former resident of Tulelake, now of Berkeley. Wedding invitations will be for December 14 in the Presbyterian Church, Fresno. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael C. Kasparian, 3336 Balch Avenue, Fresno. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas, longtime residents of Tulelake. The engagement was announced recently at a family dinner at the bride-elect's home. The young couple will visit the Thomas home in November.

Ever Have clothes that never LOOK clean, even after just returning from the cleaners? ... It can't happen if you send your cleaning to CASCADE CLEANERS AND LAUNDRY. They have the know-how to get out all the dirt, banish stubborn spots and perspiration stains ... AND with STA-NU the colors will be revived and the press will last longer. You'll be amazed!

Even new clothes may look old, harsh or careless cleaning methods will wilt and age new fabrics and colors in a hurry. CASCADE'S STA-NU process eliminates any risk of damage to your most delicate garment. Through the STA-NU Company Cascade Cleaners and Laundry can offer you an added bonus too. With each garment you have cleaned you can purchase for only 59 cents a steak knife, that would ordinarily sell for $1.60. Matching forks can be ordered, and there's a handsome case that can be ordered. I bought my first 3 knives yesterday, and am we pleased! They're so graceful and good looking besides being razor sharp. You can buy the knives and place your order for either the forks or the case at Cascade or from one of the drivers.

Don't miss this opportunity ... the very finest character AND the greatest bargain ever in cutlery, you'll be proud to own. Call TU 4-5111 for pick-up service or stop in at the office, 330 South Seventh Street.

families are being offered an opportunity to see a variety show starring a man whose talent is so abundant it leaves a person breathless. Arthur Lee Simpkins can sing arias of favorite operas with such finesse you think they were created just for him.

Arthur Lee Simpkins loves to sing and people love to hear him sing. From the Atlantic to the Pacific, from north to south, even in Georgia, where he began his musical career, he's a favorite.

You'll be glad the Business and Professional Women's Club decided to sponsor an Evening of Song and Family Fun next Wednesday, October 16, at the Pelican Theater. You can buy tickets at Derby's Music Company, 126 North Seventh, where they're on sale right now.

Besides Arthur Lee Simpkins, there are two great supporting attractions ... a ventriloquist and a conjurer. A great night ... and evening of marvelous entertainment for the entire family, produced by George and Mary Amato of Portland.

Get your tickets either at Derby's, from any Business and Professional Women's Club member or call Mrs. Abernathy, president of the club, at TU 4-4589.

Tickets are $1.50 per copy. Plan to take the entire family for an evening they'll long remember.

It's Amazing how CURRINS always has the newest and finest in beauty preparations. I'm always interested in improving my appearance (what woman isn't) so I read Mademoiselle regularly, and in the October issue I read about Helena Rubinstein's MASCARA-MATIC.

Helena Rubinstein didn't stop with eye beauty discovery. ... She's discovered THE SKIN DEW TREATMENT to overcome the aging effects of dehydrated skin. Next to time, nothing robs a woman of her youth so completely as dehydrated skin.

Just $2 buys a four to six month supply of MASCARA-MATIC ... there's no waste, no mess, no dirty brush to worry about. And for a limited time only, the SKIN DEW DUET is only $5. The SKIN DEW EMULSION is regularly $5 plus $3 for the SKIN EXTRA-RICH ... but to introduce her marvelous discovery Helena Rubinstein is offering the two for only $5.

For the new and easy in beauty go to Ninth and Main.

I'm Not Foolin'

I've never seen anything to equal the beauty and durability of Sloane's GOLD CHIP linoleum. McCOLLUM'S HOME MART has it. I've never seen it before in all my wanderings about town.

GOLD CHIP comes in 14 colors by the yard and in six colors in tile. From a short distance away it looks like modern wool carpeting ... the metallic spatters don't "hit you in the eye," but give a lustrous glow to the vibrant background colors.

That HOME MART store is fabulous, they're always getting in those new things I read about in the home decorating magazines. You can find almost anything your heart desires to make your home more beautiful and comfortable at the HOME MART. ... You should see what they've done for the Martha's. Plus giving S&H GREEN STAMPS ... plus getting expert advice from two nice young men, who must stay up all night every night studying what we women want in our homes. 2074 South Sixth.
