The noses have it, especially when powdered. Most women powder their noses first. Actually it should be powdered last for a balanced look. Powdered first, the nose gets the full brunt and may look overpowdered in comparison with the rest of the face.

Bogue Golden Wedding Reception

host of friends who came to congratulate them last Sunday afternoon were from all over the Klamath Basin.

Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Hannah Hickson, a Klamath Falls friend and neighbor; Mrs. Dan Barry, Merrill; and Mrs. Clarence Bailey, formerly of Merrill, now living in Klamath Falls. She and her husband, who celebrated their own Golden Wedding Anniversary in September, were Merrill farm neighbors of the Bogues for about 30 years.

The tiered white-frosted anniversary cake decorated with festoons of gold icing, gold leaves and other ornamentation was topped with miniature wedding bells. It was cut by Mrs. Wyatt Padgett, Mrs. Howard Hanville and Mrs. Neil F. Black. The three also assisted at the punch bowl and with other hostess duties.

Mrs. Bogue's sister, Mrs. Mary Pierson, registered the guests. Junior assistants were two sister-teams, Linda and Sally Hanville and Jane and Kathy Black.
Also noted among the guests was another anniversary couple, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Thomas, who celebrated their 50th year of marriage the Sunday before. The Bogue residence was also the setting for an anniversary dinner that night after the reception.
Mrs. Van Wart and Mr. and Mrs. Zammitt continued their stay in Klamath Falls through the week and plan a few more days of family visiting before returning to their homes.
