McCloud District Fire Total Given

McCLOUD — Twenty-five lightning and 13 man caused fires have been brought under control in the McCloud ranger district during the past fire season. Three were listed as caused by lumbering operations, two by unattended campfires, five miscellaneous causes and three by children playing with matches. A total of 8.43 acres were burned.

This compares favorably with 70 fires for the 1956 season, when 153.5 acres were burned. The district had 14 man-made fires and 56 lightning fires last year, reports Jack Prevey, USFS district ranger.

HOBBY CLASS

An adult hobbyist class in woodworking is being offered weekly from 7 to 9 p.m. on Tuesdays at Klamath Union High School in the woodworking shop. The class extends for 10 weeks, and a small fee is charged for use of the equipment. There is still room for six or seven men to enter. Further information may be obtained from the high school office, TU 2-4446. The second class will be Tuesday, October 22.
