

Local Quota Club Makes Debut As District Conference Host And Celebrates 10th Anniversary

Herald And News

Klamath Falls, Oregon

October 20, 1957

LAVERNE SLUSSER, general chairman of the 17th Annual Conference of District 14 Quota Club International, is shown in the top left picture as she greets Beatrice McMichael, member of the Spokane Quota Club. The Klamath County Club observed its 10th birthday anniversary during the conference weekend, October 11-12-13, and it was the first time for the club to be a district conference hostess. Until this year, Portland and Eugene were the only Oregon towns to hold a District 14 conference since 1941.

The local Quotarian is standing in front of the lily pond that Ninon Nyback, banquet chairman, made as part of the enchanting decorations for the formal dinner on the table, from the left are Alice Barnhart, president of the Eugene club; Joan Carter, parliamentarian, Vancouver, B. C., who represented her club president, E. Mae Moss at the conference; Peggy Lott, Anchorage, Alaska, who represented Anchorage Club President Mildred Ostrom Mantle; Emma Schiffer, president of the new Oswego Quota Club, chartered in Portland October 16.

Saturday night at Reames Golf and Country Club.

At the top right, Ardath Danielson, lieutenant governor of the 14th District, is shown at the mike, as she paid tribute to the Klamath County Club's 10th anniversary. With her at the beautifully decorated head table are, from the left, Margaret Bailie, local president; Elsie Yarter, Cheyenne, president of Quota Club International, Incorporated, who was a special guest at the conference, and one of the dinner speakers; James Martin Pitman, OTI exchange assistant dean of instruction from Hawaii, guest speaker of the evening; and Helen Blanas, program chairman for the dinner.

Pictured bottom left in the Quota pictures seated at

The charter was presented to the Oswego club president by her sister, International Quota President Elsie Yarter.

Continuing from the left, Gladys Lawrence, Spokane president; Mrs. James Martin Pitman and Lucille Larson, governor of 14th District.

Another picture of the head table includes from the left, Elizabeth Malm, secretary-treasurer of District 14, from Tacoma; Alice Vitus, first president of Klamath County Quota Club and past governor of District 14; Lillian G. Crist, Portland president; Beulah Lee, Juneau, Alaska; Irma L. Paine, Tacoma; Grace Hoitt, Fairbanks, Alaska; Betty Wing, Seattle; and 1957 Conference Chairman Laverne Slusser.

Identified in the foreground, facing camera, are George Blanas, husband of Helen Blanas; and Betty (Mrs. Bob) Porter, now member of the Eugene Quota Club, and well known here as a local resident for many years before moving to Eugene. — All Quota Photos by Otto Ellis

Ruth Kalina, Member Of One Of Malin's First Families, Is Bride Of Don W. Unruh

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

THEIR AUTUMN WEDDING in Malin Presbyterian Church was one of the largest in the history of the town.

The bride is the former Ruth Marie Kalina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vaclav Kalina, and granddaughter of Mrs. Marie Kalina, all of Malin, and A. Kalina, now of Portland. Ruth's grandparents were among the founders of Malin, and played a leading role in the growth and development of the community. The bridegroom, Don W. Unruh, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Unruh, also of Malin.

The Rev. Arthur Johnson of Tulelake Presbyterian Church officiated at the 4 p.m. double-ring ceremony on September 21.

The church couldn't begin to accommodate the wedding guests—but ample space was provided at the reception in the Broadway Hall, where a festive buffet supper featuring favorite Czechoslovakian dishes was served to some 500 guests.

In the picture at the right, the bride has a gay whirl on the dance floor with her father-in-law.

Her cousin, Molly Kalina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Kalina, Eugene, was flower girl; and another cousin, Jerry Kalina, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kalina was ring-bearer. Wedding story is on inside page. All photos by Ferebee.

