

AN ANNUAL SUMMER VISITOR is Lindsay Merryman, who has returned each year during vacation since she moved with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Merryman, to Kentfield, near San Rafael.

The three of them flew to Klamath Falls shortly after the middle of August, and went directly to Lake of the Woods, where they were guests at the summer home of Lindsay's paternal grandmother, Mrs. George Merryman.

Dr. Merryman returned from the lake to his practice in San Rafael, and Lindsay and her mother continued their summer visit in town at the home of Lindsay's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, 1233 Pacific Terrace.

The junior Mrs. Merryman is Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins' daughter, Mary Jane. Most summers, Lindsay celebrates her birthday anniversary, August 17, in Klamath Falls. But this summer, they were still in Kentfield on that special date, so the celebration had to be sandwiched into a crowded schedule of getting ready to go north.

Her mother's expert engineering produced a birthday cake. Also, a just-before-leaving party for Lindsay's 10th birthday was successfully achieved. They returned to Kentfield to get Lindsay ready to start the fall school term. —Photo by Otto Ellis

Parcel Post Shower Here Fetes Honoree In Germany

A Parcel Post baby shower was given recently for Gabriel (Mrs. William E.) Snider, Munich, Germany, by Mrs. Jack Dailey, Mrs. Robert Walton and Mrs. Gordon Davis, at the Davis home, 2150 Ward Street. Games were diversion of the party with prizes given to Mrs. Pat Kelley, Martha Perrean and Mrs. Axel Hedlund.

The absent honoree's mother-in-law, Mrs. Edwin Snider, opened the gifts as they could be shown at the party and later merged into a single package for easier mailing to Germany.

Luncheon was served to Lena Perkins, Mrs. Ted Schuh, Mrs. Coy Wiles, Mrs. Pat Kelley, Mrs. J. G. (Bud) Becker, Mrs. Gifford Wood, Mrs. Francis Slowey, Mrs. Louis Taucher, Mrs. Walter Ferrell, Mrs. Edmund Anderson, Mrs. Axel Hedlund, Mrs. Allen Davis and Mrs. Tom Gaspadenich.

Gift cards from those unable to attend the luncheon read: Mrs. Harold Tunnell, Miami, Oklahoma; Mrs. Andy Anderson, Mrs. Jack Reed, Mrs. Mike May, Mrs. Fern Scott, and Mrs. Ted Otterbein.

DUNSMUIR EASTERN STAR

Mrs. O. E. Dews was elected worthy matron of Dunsmuir Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at the October meeting at the Dunsmuir Masonic Temple. Installation ceremonies will be held on the evening of November 1.

James Haley was elected worthy patron; Frances Welch, associate patron; Margaret Smith, conductress; Doris Morgan, associate conductress; Selma Porter, secretary; and Errol Beaughan, treasurer.

An initiation ceremony for the incoming member was a highlight of the October meeting. It was the last meeting for Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Welch, worthy matron and patron, as presiding officers, and they presented an altar cloth made by Mrs. Welch to the chapter as a memento of their year in office.

A harvest theme was used in decorating the refreshment tables. Naomi Lane, Millie Aldridge and Merle Haley served as a refreshment and decorating committee.

Summer's the time for open sandals that do wonders for your feet, both in flattery and in clearing up those corn and calluses produced by closed shoes. But have them fitted with the same care you'd use for any other shoe. The fact that it's a sandal doesn't mean that any size at all will do nicely.

Former Member Feted By Orions

During the Orions October 8 meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Larson, 2407 Radcliffe, a handkerchief shower honored Lavene Harbrige, a member of Orions before she moved to Montana.

Mrs. John Weber, president, conducted the business session, which was concerned chiefly with plans for a club turkey dinner in November.

Special prize of the day was won by Mrs. Charles Larson, and game prizes went to Mrs. Charles McFarlan and Mrs. C. A. Baker.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. D. Elliott, Mrs. Joe Wachter and Mrs. Larson to Mrs. Preston Card, Mrs. Charles York, Mrs. A. N. McEachern, Mrs. Fred Biehn, Mrs. Richard Teater, Mrs. Bert Hegler, Mrs. Roland Cofer, Mrs. Charles McFarlan, Mrs. C. A. Baker, Mrs. John Weber, Mrs. Cleta Paddock, Mrs. Ray Aschenbach, all members; and two guests, Mrs. E. H. Buchholz and Mrs. Nell Wachter.

YOUNG SCION of the Mills family is 8-month-old David Bryant Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Mills, 825 Lincoln Street. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mills, 624 North Second Street; and Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Janisse, Van Nuys, California.

BONANZA

SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party was given for Mrs. Dick (Helen) Derry, district deputy of Bonanza Rebekah fraternity 106.

Kathy Wilson, noble grand, baked the cake and Mrs. Derry's daughter, Mrs. Howard Schmidt, decorated it with the lodge colors pink and green. Donna Derry, another daughter, played selections on the piano. She was given a cup and saucer for her collection from the lodge.

The Odd Fellows Lodge joined the group for the refreshments and social time. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Derry, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, Mrs. Belle Heseline, Mrs. Kathy Wilson, Mrs. Wesley Hankins, Mrs. Homer Holt, Fred Fernlund, J. A. Barratt, Eldon Bergloff, George Fernlund, Don Ralph, Jim Morley and Roy Fernlund.

The lodge also sent a gift to Mrs. Fred Fernlund, who has been quite ill.

PICKS NEW NAME

Upon his accession to the throne, the Pope takes a new name, which usually is the name of some predecessor whose sanctity and policy particularly appeal to him.

Newlyweds Now At Home In Fort Rock

FORT ROCK—Virginia Houston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Houston of Paisley, became the bride of Richard Morehouse, son of Mrs. Mabel Morehouse and the late Roy Morehouse of Fort Rock, in ceremonies at the First Methodist Church of Reno on September 17.

Following a wedding trip to Southern Oregon, Crater Lake and Portland, the young couple is at home near Fort Rock, where Morehouse will be associated with his mother and brother Robert in ranching operations.

The bride, a 1956 graduate of Paisley High School, has been employed at the Hotel Chewaucan at Paisley. The bridegroom, a 1954 graduate of Paisley High School, recently returned from an overseas assignment with the U.S. Army in Germany.

"Peeping Tom" was named for the man, Thomas, who peeped at the nude Lady Godiva riding a horse through Coventry, England, to force her husband, the Earl of Mercia, to lower an oppressive tax. The earl lowered the tax, so her ride gained its purpose.

YREKA

LINEN SHOWER

A linen shower was given in honor of Karen Adele Johnson at the home of Mrs. Chester Barnett on Friday evening, October 4. Sharing hostess duties with Mrs. Barnett were Mrs. Lloyd Lane, Mrs. Pete Schlueter and Mrs. Irene Willenbrink. The honoree will become the bride of Harry Hopkins on October 27.

Decorations to carry out the "wedding shower" theme consisted of bridesmaid dolls and an arrangement of roses in the party rooms. On the gift table a miniature parasol and flower sprinklers completed the decorations.

The evening's entertainment consisted of the playing of games, prizes being won by Mrs. Ruth Rider and Mrs. Robert Trinka.

The evening was concluded with the bride-to-be opening her many gifts, followed with the serving of refreshments by the hostesses. The refreshment trays were cleverly decorated with tiny wedding bells, to which a wedding ring was tied with lily-of-the-valley and ribbon.

ONLY TWO STATES

In the 1936 presidential election, Republican candidate Alfred Landon carried only two states, Maine and Vermont, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Be A Jump Ahead

of the Christmas rush, in ordering your personalized STATIONERY gifts from SHAW STATIONERY. Never in all my born days have I seen such a selection of stationery! AND ALL in such exquisite good taste. Stationery for the man . . . heavy paper Hunt Club motif, giving evidence of being designed for the masculine gender. Stationery for my fair lady, dainty and sweet as only she deserves. . . . "BLACK MAGIC" in palest pink with envelopes lined of sheer black lace. My imagination ran wild when I saw this: I know Lady "Whozit" penned romantic love messages to her lover on just such stationery. Gossamer thin paper, envelopes lined with dainty flower sprigged patterned design. Stationery for the lover of our famous Pine Woods; pine needles and cone design with a delicate pine scent. Not even the youngsters have been overlooked. . . . SHAW'S have stationery the small fry will adore. Lined paper for easier writing (and reading) with space ships and rockets to the sky, printed top and bottom for further interest. Correspondence with Grandma will be a pleasure with this stationery.

Two would be impossible to write about all the beautiful stationery that caught Martha's eye, there are literally hundreds of styles and motifs. . . . all attractively boxed. For a little added something, tuck in a tiny box of monogrammed seals.

You'll find that this year you may have up to three lines for name and address. . . . last year only two. The price is so low you'll be amazed. A gift of personalized stationery is exactly right for any occasion. . . . thoughtful, considerate and always practical.

No hurry, no worry if you use SHAW STATIONERY'S personalized service. The Christmas sleuth never relies on guess work so place your order now at 729 Main Street.

Fashions with fur start with daytime wear this season and go right into evening. Fur may be a small collar, a deep collar, cuffs or even a tuxedo front according to the expert. And, they claim one touch of fur is essential to the ensemble.

It Fits The Skin

like a glove on the hand . . . it's the ultimate in perfection . . . it's the wondrous new powder base just arrived at CURRIN'S. . . . Elizabeth Arden's VEILED RADIANCE. It's not a cream, not a liquid, but a new flowing emulsion, lightly creamy, that covers like a second skin. It has the most perfect lasting quality, lasts until you take it off. A foundation that comes in colors to blend with any skin . . . from palest pink to a rich beige which lends radiance to the duldest skin. Just a little VEILED RADIANCE covers a large area, the consistency is light and easy to apply. . . . a smoothing touch with the finger tips blends the fluid on the skin.

Women in K. Falls discovered long ago that an entirely different make-up base was necessary in the fall and winter. Our rigorous climate requires a foundation base that not only protects the skin, but imparts a gentle glow to give the skin a soft radiant beauty. VEILED RADIANCE smooths on easily . . . melts into your skin, erases tiny blemishes utterly — and gives a velvety base for your make-up. Hats off to CURRIN'S, and hats off to Elizabeth Arden, for the supreme in foundation base that gives lasting tint and coverage for a greater number of make-up hours.

CURRIN'S has Elizabeth Arden's very latest shade of lipstick and nail polish too. . . . "New Fashion" . . . created for the browns, tans, and subdued greens of fall. You'll love the tawny rose shade, subtle color to blend with soft fall costume hues.

Lovely To Look At

as a lamp should be . . . and wonderful to read by, too. Beautifully executed lamps styled for a world of new decorator charm in your home. At MILLER'S you'll find lamps that are sleekly modern plus lamps inspired by lovely traditional designs. Some crafted with hand painted china, most all glowing with brass or bronze accents. You'll find a huge stock of COPPER, BRASS and WROUGHT IRON accessories for the home in the downstairs department at MILLER'S. Beautifully crafted PLANTERS, cleverly styled ASHTRAYS, exquisite CANDLESTICKS, CURRIER & IVES PLAQUES and antique BOWLS AND TRAYS. I know I've overlooked some items . . . looking this way and that way trying to see them all . . . prices start clear down at rock bottom. And here's a footnote . . . this is a high grade, heavy copper and brass that will grow more lovely with burnishing and age.

"It's like buying memories," to buy CUT GLASS. Women for generations have prized their cut glass above all other possessions. I found a Creamer and Sugar Bowl that are almost an exact replica of a pair I've tried to talk my mother out of for years. Beautiful footed bowls filled with flowers or fruit makes a gorgeous centerpiece for holiday entertaining. Compotes so dainty and graceful you can think of dozens of ways to use them. Tall vases, low vases and fan shaped vases offer a multitude of decorative ideas. Candy Bowls to fill with gaily colored candies or graciously lovely as a container for a rosebud. The Downstairs Department is crammed full of ideas for good living, good giving. . . . Gifts to glorify the home you love. Make MILLER'S your "one-stop" shopping center. You'll find it the best place to shop after all. Free customer parking always in the rear of 512 Main.

MILLER'S

The tall, older woman who longs for a tiny, delicate, Dresden-doll look doesn't realize that she can be striking in a way her smaller sisters never can be. Instead of wearing fussy trimmings and ruffles, which she feels make her look more feminine, she could acquire a smart, sophisticated appearance by choosing clothes with slimming lines and smooth fabrics.

to make a treat if you use MEDO-BEL PRODUCTS. Mr. M never liked my pumpkin pies, it just didn't taste like the pumpkin pie, "Mother used to bake." That is he didn't like my pumpkin pie until I made it with MEDO-BEL CREAM. Here's the recipe. It's not only a snap to make it's a cinch to be good.

2 cups pumpkin 1/2 teaspoon each
1 level teaspoon salt ginger, nutmeg
2 level teaspoons 1 cup white or cinnamon brown sugar
4 eggs 1 cup MEDO-BEL
sweet cream

Mix pumpkin, salt and spices, stir in sugar with well beaten eggs. Add MEDO-BEL sweet cream. Put in a partly baked pie shell and bake in a moderate oven for 40 minutes.
