

QUEEN FOR A DAY Mrs. Patricia Berry, upper left on plane boarding steps, is pictured at the Klamath Falls airport where she arrived Thursday to be one of the honored guests during the Klamath Basin Potato Festival at Merrill Friday and Saturday. She is from Los Angeles. From left to right in the picture are Joyce Taylor, Dian Schwaegler, Mrs. Mary Mills, companion to the queen while she is here, Mrs. Berry, Donna Carson, potato festival queen; Barbara Hundley, Charlene Finchum, Mrs. Vernon Schuck, hostess, and Mrs. James Walker, hostess. — Photo by Ellis

Lions Group Hold Session

The Klamath Falls Lions Club Auxiliary met for a planned potluck dinner in the dining room of the First Presbyterian Church, recently.

The meeting was opened with all members and guests singing "God Bless America," followed by the invocation given by state president, Mrs. F. L. Thompson.

The regular business meeting followed the dinner, at which time a report was given by Mrs. Loy Barker, chairman of eye conservation for the club.

She reported that the telabynocular tests given at the high school under supervision of Mrs. Howard Strode were completed with over 350 students receiving the test. This included students at the Sacred Heart Academy.

Special guests for the meeting were introduced which were Oregon Lions Club Auxiliary state president, Mrs. F. L. Thompson, Eugene, and Mrs. William McCord, state treasurer, Sutherlin.

Mrs. Thompson has taken as her theme for this year, "Unselfish Service Through Fellowship." Mrs. Thompson's talk was helpful, inspiring and interesting. All present expressed themselves as being helped and felt that they had received much in knowledge of Lionism.

Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. McCord are houseguests of Mrs. Clarence Humble while in Klamath Falls.

APPEARING RECENTLY at the home of Mrs. Clarence Humble, past state president of the Lions Auxiliary are, foreground, left to right, Mrs. F. L. Thompson, state president, Eugene and Mrs. Frank W. McCord, state treasurer, Sutherlin, seated on the arm of the chair and to the left of Mrs. Thompson are Mrs. Humble and Mrs. E. L. Miner, president of the local auxiliary.

DALE MONTGOMERY

Firm Names New Manager

The Floyd A. Boyd Company announced today the selection and appointment of Dale Montgomery to succeed Clarence Decious as general manager of their operations at Tulelake. The firm deals in farm equipment.

Montgomery has been with the firm for the past three years and is well qualified to assume his new duties, Boyd said.

The rest of the staff will remain the same, with Rudy Skalicky heading up the parts department and Lyle Sherer in charge of the shop and field operations.

BPW Slates Dinner Event

YREKA — During the recent meeting held by the Yreka Business and Professional Women's Club, plans for the annual junior girls dinner were made.

The event is slated to take place in November with Mrs. Evelyn Hogg named as chairman in charge of arrangements.

Two new members were accepted into the club during the meeting. They are Mrs. Ora Jackson of Yreka and Mrs. Agnes Savage of Montague.

Mrs. Madeline Baumbach and Mrs. Marjorie LeFever, who attended the Northern District Conference held at Mount Shasta on September 14 and 15, gave reports on the conference.

Those attending the conference besides Mrs. Baumbach and Mrs. LeFever included Mrs. Carol Kelly, Lollie Smolsky, Mrs. Margaret Esrey, Mrs. Helena Schueter and Pauline Davis, assemblywoman, who is a member of the Yreka club.

The next meeting of the Yreka BPW-C will be a dinner meeting and is scheduled to take place at the Yreka Inn on October 22.

Vote Backs BLM Board

LAKEVIEW — When the votes were counted Tuesday afternoon at the office of the Bureau of Land Management, it was found that all three incumbent members of the Lake District Advisory Board had been reelected, according to a report by R. C. "Bud" Burgess.

Walter Lechmann Sr. represents sheep in the Little Juniper and North Warner unit. Tom Brattain in the Paisley-Silver Lake unit and Henry Gerber in the Bonanza unit are cattle representatives. Forty-two ballots were cast by mail, a better than average return, Burgess said. Lechmann and Gerber are continuous members of the board since its organization following the Taylor Grazing Act of 1934. Brattain was elected following the death of his father, who was also one of the original members.

Counting the ballots were Con Lynch, Mike Deely and Mike Sullivan.

Discussion Group Meets

The newly formed Family Discussion club met Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Emil Biranowski, 2503 White Street.

Charles E. Perry Jr. was chosen leader and Virginia Perry was elected secretary of the club which is designed to serve as a regular get-together for people interested in discussing aspects of the Roman Catholic Church.

The group plans to meet every other week and the public is invited to attend. The next meeting will be held on October 30 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Charles E. Perry Jr., 2043 Applegate. Refreshments will be served.

YOUTHS HELD

YREKA (Special) — Shelby Johnson, 21, Decatur, Illinois, was held in Decatur this week for return to Siskiyou County to face charges of burglarizing residences at Salmon River and Dorris last August. Two runaway juvenile boys, age 16, from Seattle, Washington, and Kent, Washington, were being held at the county jail this week for Washington authorities.

TRIAL SCHEDULED

YREKA (Special) — Date for the trial of William A. Crossman, 37, of Juneau, Alaska, on charges of taking an automobile without permission of the owner, and drunkenness in and about an automobile, has been set for November 5, 1957, in the Dorris Justice Court.

P.T.A. NEWS

McCLOUD

A food sale is being planned by the McCloud P.T.A. The proceeds will go towards sending the McCloud High School band to Berkeley next month to participate in the annual University of California high school band day.

Parents of the band members will furnish transportation, and each will receive passes to the football game.

A concert will be given late this month, and the band's share of the proceeds will go toward paying for the expenses.

will make a house-to-house canvass to see if enough persons are interested in having free polio shots to make it worthwhile for a health clinic to be held in Paisley the latter part of October.

Reports were given by the executive, ways and means and program committees.

PELICAN

By Mrs. Nello Pieruccini

"Look at yourself and work through that way," said Mildred

Lowden, psychiatric social worker from the Klamath County Health Department. Miss Lowden, introduced by the school nurse, Mrs. Paul, was guest speaker at the October 16 meeting of the Pelican P.T.A.

Miss Lowden gave an overall picture of the purpose of the clinic, which is to provide diagnostic and consultation services in helping the emotionally disturbed child or parent. The diagnostic clinic is held at the Klamath County Health Department twice a month. The three staff members consist of Dr. Edward Scott, clinical psychologist, Dr. Harry Danielson, psychiatrist, and Miss Lowden. Miss Lowden's services are available at any time.

Presiding at the meeting was Mrs. Archie McClurg, president. During the business meeting Mrs. McClurg announced that all mothers interested in being den mothers for the Cub Scouts, please contact Clyde Martin.

Mrs. Jane Craig, music department, announced there would be an operetta, "Jack and the Beanstalk," November 22.

A fancy work sale will be held following the November meeting. Mrs. Travis Miles and Mrs. Dale Watson will be in charge.

Mrs. Donna Brown and Mrs. Glen Buchanan were appointed as a committee for the Christmas preschool party.

Mrs. Beth Ness' second grade and Mrs. Lillian Stenberg's fifth grade won the room prizes with the most parent attendance. A prize was won by Mrs. Viola Hunsaker. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hunsaker's and Mr. Stafford Thomas' sixth grade room mothers.

The next meeting is scheduled for November 13, which will be an evening meeting. Hostesses will be Mrs. Agnes Lageson and Mrs. Ida Edsall.

PAISLEY

Elementary a and high school teachers were honored at a reception at the Paisley School Wednesday evening, October 9, at the P.T.A. meeting. New additions to the teaching staffs are Raymond Dooley, seventh and eighth grades, and Mrs. Irene Whitaker, English, journalism, art and music teacher in the high school.

Mrs. Peggy Bell presided at the business meeting. She was unanimously elected president to replace Mrs. George Elder who resigned to move to Lakeview. Mrs. Lou-Wauna Roper's Cub Scout troop

Sacred Heart Notebook

By ANN SARGENT

Sparking enthusiasm for the Chiloquin vs. SHA football game, Trojan cheerleaders — Leslie Leake, Josephine Krok, and Carole Gervais — led the academy student body in songs and yells. The rally was held on Friday at 2:35 p.m. in the auditorium.

Margaret Colwell presided over the Trojan Pep Club meeting, held on Tuesday during the activity period in the auditorium, under the advisement of Sr. M. John Magdalen. Girls were asked to wear transparent scarfs at the games if headgear is to be worn.

Regular class meetings were held last Monday during the activity period in their respective classrooms.

Vice president, Maureen Novak, presided over the senior class. New business taken up included: the senior project, the Atrian progress, and the netted proceeds from the letterman dance, sponsored on October 4. A report was made on collection of money from the seniors for the film, "Robinson Crusoe," presented by the sophomores for the support of the hop. Maureen urged daily participation in the family rosary during October — the month of the Holy Rosary.

Plans for the Thanksgiving dance scheduled for November 27 highlighted the junior class meeting. Madelon Guidi, committee chairman, reported that all classes were in favor of a masquerade, which will be held in the parish hall. The decorations will follow an autumn motif.

A cake sale for raising funds for the hop was the topic of the sophomore class meeting. This sale will be the second sponsored by the class this year. Decorations and programs for the hop were touched upon. Jean Gasperini reported on the Klamath County Student Council meeting held last week.

During the freshman class meeting, President Patricia Korsein led the discussion of the thank you dance planned in the near future for the senior class. The class was urged to yell louder in the pep rallies. Other business included the sale of the season tickets to SIAA games and freshman dues.

You, too, should get in on this Sensational Copco Bonus Offer!

$25 Additional Copco Bonus Allowance!

This is in addition to our regular trade-in allowance!

Brand New, 1957 FRIGIDAIRE RANGES REDUCED!

Model RS-30 "Thrifty" 30 RANGE—
Was $214.95—
OUR SALE PRICE
Less $25 Copco Bonus Allowance —
$169.95

You Pay Only
$144.95

NEW LOW PRICE

Model RS-15 Full 40" RANGE
Reg. $259.95 $219.95
Sale Price . . .
Less $25 Copco Bonus Allowance —
YOU PAY ONLY $194.95

Model RS-38 Range Complete With Lamp and Timer
Reg. $249.95 Our Sale $199.95
Price
Less $25 Copco Bonus Allowance
YOU PAY ONLY $174.95

Plus Our Regular Trade-in Allowance for your Old Range!

$20 Additional Copco Bonus for Your Old Water Heater!

NOW— HOT WATER Fast! Fast! AS "SCAT!"

Fast Units! Quick Recovery!

- ★ 10-year warranty!
- ★ High Wattage!
- ★ Fast Recovery!

UPRIGHT and TABLE MODELS

Frigidaire Fully Automatic - Completely Dependable
ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS

Vern Owens'

Cascade Home Furnishings

124 No. 4th Phone TU 4-8365

OLDSMOBILE Only 2 Left!

CADILLAC Only 1 Left!

First Come, First Delivery!

HURRY!

1958 Olds - November 8th

Dick B. Miller Co.

OLDS - Cadillac Ph. 4-4154

7th & Klamath